

Baptists Were In Session

The pastors and laymen of the Brant and Oxford Counties Baptist Church met in a missionary movement at the First Baptist Church on Tuesday. The churches were largely represented, there being some 50 present when the morning session opened at 9.30 a.m. Two excellent addresses were given, one by Rev. W. A. Cameron of the Bloor street Baptist Church, Toronto, upon the church and community and the second by Rev. J. G. Brown, Foreign Mission Secretary of the Baptist Denominational Union of Canada, upon the subject of Evangelism.

Obituary

ISAAC ROSZELL Isaac Roszell, for many years a worthy and well known citizen of Brantford, passed away yesterday after a short illness of pneumonia. He was in his 64th year, and resided at 268 Darling street. A strong Presbyterian, he was associated with the Alexandra Church, and leaves many friends of the flock to mourn his loss besides a wife and two daughters, Pearl, at home, and Mrs. Ashdown, out West. The deceased was for many years employed at Gould, Shapley and Muir shop, and had, with his genial disposition, obtained the good will of all. The funeral will take place to-morrow.

A PLACE WHERE QUALITY AND SERVICE ARE PARAMOUNT.

That cookery is among the fine arts one must admit after a visit, however brief, to the Crompton Lunch Room. To dine there at the noon hour one realizes this to the fullest extent. The dinner menu is both enticing and satisfying and the appointments and service are all that could be desired. Every little nice ideal—the soft shaded lights—the tables gay with tiny ferns in baskets—the Madeira plate dainties—the delicate china—help to make the lunch attractive to the eye as well as to the palate. On any afternoon you might drop in, as the writer did, one would see groups of smartly-dressed women having a pleasant little gossip over the tea-cups, while a waitress in a dainty white cap and apron hovers near. The food is of the best, whether it be a mid-afternoon lunch of tea and buttered scones or a full course dinner. Perhaps the highest praise is to say that it is just like home-made. Mrs. Boney has taken charge of this department, which is now under the direct management of the firm. Those who know her—and they are many—will realize this means service par excellence.

REAL PATRIOTISM. OTTAWA, Nov. 23.—H. F. Baker, keeper of a lighthouse at Clapperton Island, Georgian Bay, who received a circular which suggested that all government employees should contribute a day's pay to the patriotic fund, has written that his salary is too small to make a day's pay worth while, and instructs the department to deduct $10 from his quarterly check. He also enclosed $5 from his wife and family.

Young People's Societies Meet ST. JUDE'S A.Y.P.A. St. Jude's A.Y.P.A. held their usual meeting on Monday evening. After the business was over the rector spoke a few words in behalf of the society, expressing regret at losing for a time Mr. H. Harrington, who, with his sister, is leaving for England this week. Mr. Harrington was then presented with a travelling toilet case as a token of the esteem in which he is held. In a modest speech he thanked the members, saying he would never forget St. Jude's, and hoped to return at some future date. The program was a debate between Farrington Debating Club and St. Jude's, the subject being, "Resolved, that the peace of the British Empire is more likely to be maintained by a policy of isolation in respect to treaties with foreign powers than by the policy of forming alliances." Messrs. McPherson, A. Harley and Kew took the affirmative, and Messrs. P. Unsworth, Pelling and Broomfield the negative.

LIFE IN THE TRENCHES A despatch of life in the trenches taken from a letter sent home tells what our soldiers are doing. "Once a shell exploded just on the surface of the Aisne and it threw up a spout big enough to drench every man in our trench, which lay about two hundred yards away from the bank. One can imagine the size of the spout. It was a magnificent sight and we wished the Germans would give us some more "water-pantomines." If you show as much as your little finger above the edge of the trench a volley of bullets is immediately fired at that finger. We amused ourselves by sticking up a cap on a rifle barrel and popping it up above the edge of the trench like a man peering out, just to see how many volleys the Germans would fire before they found out that it was only an empty cap. And often when we left a trench to occupy a new one, which always had to be done at night, we left in the old one a few caps sticking up. Then it was great fun the next day to see the Germans firing volley upon volley at these caps and shelling the empty trench. BROKE PAROLE. AMSTERDAM, vit London, Nov. 24, 8.25 a.m.—The Berlin correspondent of the Telegraf, states that the two German officers who broke their parole and escaped from Holland, have arrived at Osnabruck. They will be summoned before a court of honor, the correspondent declares, and must leave the army. LOST HER WAY. QUEBEC, Nov. 24.—In the severe snow storm that swept the gulf and lower St. Lawrence, Saturday last, the Furness Whiteby Company of Montreal boat, Hendon Hall, lost her way, and crept upon the rock bottom of Trinity Bay near Point Des Monts, Gaspé coast, and foundered there, ripping her hold open. All of the crew escaped, but the vessel is regarded as a total loss. The Hendon Hall was on her way from Cardiff to Montreal for a wheat cargo, when she stranded in the gulf. She was in charge of Captain E. Frotte.
