The Late Mrs. J. K. Lancaster Honored. Handsome Tablet Unveiled to Her Memory

Placed in St. John's Church by the Parishioners.

The memory of the late Mrs. J. K. Lancaster has been perpetuated in a handsome mural tablet, which was unveiled at St. John's church on Friday evening, 15th inst. The tablet is in the form of a beautiful design of white marble, the lettering being done in gold. The inscription is as follows:—

ERECTED BY THE PARISHIONERS OF
ST. JOHN'S CHURCH
IN LOVING MEMORY
OF
JANE KNOX LANCASTER
DEPARTED THIS LIFE
MARCH 8, 1905

"BLESSED ARE THE DEAD WHICH DIE IN THE LORD."

Rev. H. Caplan officiated, and after the Litany had been said, dedicated the tablet, the unveiling being done by Mrs. Wm. Webb, on behalf of the parishioners, who presented the tablet to the glory of God and the beloved memory of the late departed lady.

Then followed part of the office for burial of the dead and the hymn, "For all thy saints who from their labour rest."

Mr. Caplan then referred to the christian character of Mrs. Lancaster, whose life was worthy of all emulation. It was most fitting to raise a tablet to show to all parishioners and the world at large that while she was with them they were not unmindful of her virtues and that they revered her memory as one of the church's departed saints.

Address and Presentation

Mr. Wm. Dineen Receives Handsome Meerschaum Pipe.

On Friday night last "mine host Dineen" of the Dineen House, was presented with an address and a beautiful meerschaum pipe by the boarders of that widely known hostelry.

The address was as follows:
Havelock, Dec. 22, 1905.

Mr. Wm. Dineen,
Havelock, Ont.

VENERABLE SIR:

We, the undersigned guests of your world-famous inn, wish you to feel that we deeply appreciate the warm generosity in which you at all times treat us, and we take great pleasure in presenting you with this small token in order that you may in the future remember and feel that in obliging your guests as you do, in numberless ways, it is not overlooked nor unappreciated.

We wish your inestimable helpmate, Mrs. Dineen, and yourself, all the compliments of the season and many of them and trust we may all see many more Christmas and New Year's seasons together.

Signed,

John Carey, Geo. Warren,
M. McGlade, Jos. Muldoon,
A. Connors, Alex. Bruce.

Mr. Dineen in responding to the above made an eloquent and humorous reply, in his well known versatile and forceful manner. "In the future," he said, "if any occasion should arise in which a possible difference of opinion might exist, like the famous 'Gitchie Manito' of the Hiawatha Legend, he would call a council of his warrior guests and together they would smoke the pipe of peace, until all element of discord had dissolved in fragrant clouds of Canadian tobacco smoke, and all causes of argument were as dim remembrances of the golden past."

Parties wishing to have buttons made can do so at M. H. Swain's.

Round Lake Christmas Tree.

Mrs. Jno. Cochrane and Miss Jewell Presented With Gifts.

The annual Christmas tree entertainment of the Round Lake Sunday School was held on Wednesday of last week, and was a big success in every way.

The program consisted of dialogues, recitations, readings, songs, music, and a drill by the younger boys, all of which was enjoyed by everyone present. Mr. Moss occupied the chair during the evening, which he filled very happily.

Miss Jewell, the public school teacher of the McGill school, was presented with a handsome album and picture frame, accompanied by an address. Mrs. John Cochrane, superintendent of Sunday school was also presented with an address, a teacher's bible and a pen box. Both ladies made fitting replies.

The receipts for the evening amounted to $36.96.

A Mild Case in Havelock.

A young boy named Woodcock has contracted smallpox in Chase's lumber camp about seven miles north east of the village. The camp, and six families who have been exposed to the disease, have been quarantined.

A mild case has also developed in town, Mr. Wm. Dooze having contracted the disease from exposure to a visitor from the Chaudos district. His residence has been quarantined and Dr. Hourigan placed in charge, and it is expected that no further outbreak will occur.

Wedding Chimes.

A very happy event took place at the residence of Mr. Jos. Johnston, Belmont, on Wednesday evening, 20th inst., when his daughter-in-law, Miss Mildred Smith, was united in marriage to Mr. Arthur Mathison. The ceremony was performed at seven o'clock by the Rev. A. E. Camp, B. A., of town. Mrs. Jas. Martin, also of town, playing the wedding march. Miss Elida Johnston and Master Howard Johnston acted as flower-girl and ring bearer respectively. After the nuptials, the large number of invited guests sat down to a most elaborate dinner, to which full justice was done.

The bride was presented with numerous and costly presents, showing the high esteem in which she is held. The young couple left on the morning express for a trip to Western points, before returning to take up their residence on Mr. Mathison's farm on the Trent Bridge road.

The bride was charmingly attired in blue crepe de chine and white point d'esprit.

The Standard joins with their many friends in town, in wishing the young couple a long life of happiness and plenty.

Business Education.

The business world offers the best chance to the young men or women of to-day. And its big prizes go to the young men and young women who prepare for business by business education—by becoming practical stenographers, expert bookkeepers, swift legible penmen. The bookkeeping course of our College is intense practical, the students are taught business rather than merely the art of keeping books. Our Stenographic students are given actual business dictation, varied in character. They are taught to "think in shorthand." They are taught the typewriter keyboard, just as a piano player is taught the piano keyboard. We have been brought face to face with what employers demand in their bookkeepers and stenographers—and our College makes provisions to meet these demands, and our graduates do meet them—and fill them.
