The first auto-truck seen in Athens made its appearance on the streets on Friday. Its complicated history is as follows: Mr. Wm. Stevens turned in a Flanders car to A. Taylor & Son on a McLaughlin Six. The Flanders was sold to Mr. Hawkins of New Dublin, who had the Earl Construction Co. convert it into a truck.

We wish to remind those who have not, as yet, paid their subscription account to the REPORTER to be kind enough to do so at once. Otherwise they will be placed for collection. Look at the label on your paper this week. There are a large number who pay up promptly and for which this does not apply. If you are in arrears kindly settle at once. We need the money.

The Duke of Connaught will head a campaign, beginning November 1, to raise $7,500,000 throughout the Dominion for the Canadian Patriotic Fund. During the past year $5,350,000 was subscribed. Twenty thousand families are at present receiving aid from the fund, but by Christmas it is expected that this will be increased to twenty-five thousand families, and more money will be required. The fund supplements the regular military allowances.

A Communication

Editor Reporter—An appeal was made to me by some of the young people about celebrating Halloween on Monday night, and to this I cheerfully agreed, with the understanding that operations were to be confined strictly to fun and that no damage to property would be contemplated. This was carried out, on the whole, in a manner that was enjoyed by all. It has been our policy to offer every facility for the enjoyment of the young people within reasonable bounds, and we regret that a few of the baser sort managed to bring reproach and disfavor on otherwise innocent times of diversion. Some of the performances on Saturday night and Sunday morning betray a lack of moral sense on the part of those that did them. Some of the offences were of a decidedly criminal nature and the culprits are liable to severe punishment. The true spirit of Halloween does not offer insult or damage to anyone, and we hope the parties involved in these outrages will have attained to higher ideals before another year has passed.

Keep A Tootin'.

If you toot your little tooter and then law away your horn, There's not a soul in ten short days will know that you were born. The man who gathers pumpkins is the man who plows all day. And the man who keeps a-humping is the man who makes it pay. The man who advertises with short and sudden jerks, Is the man who blames the paper because it never works. The man who gets the business has a strong and steady pull; He keeps his trade and paper from year to year quite full. He plans his advertisements in an honest thoughtful way, And keeps forever at it until he makes it pay.
