AWARD CONTRACTS FOR MAIL DELIVERY AT PHILIPPSVILLE

Thomas Moulton and Samuel Carr
Are Successful.

NEWS OF THE DISTRICT
Patrons of Farmers' Pride Factory
Undecided About Marketing System.

Phillipsville, Jan. 10.—Thomas Moulton has been awarded the contract for delivery of Phillipsville, Harlem and Chantry mails from Phillipsville station, and Samuel Carr that of rural delivery from Elgin.

The time-honored date of the anniversary services of the Methodist church of this place has been on or about January 29. This year there will be the usual Sunday service and Monday night supper on the 28th and 29th.

W. B. Phelps left on Saturday last for Brockville and Toronto, where he will spend the winter months.

Mrs. Robert Preston has returned from a New Year's visit at the home of her father, John Loverin, near Athens.

Mrs. Mac Barker, of Pembroke, is a guest of her sister, Mrs. Arthur Cooper, of this place.

Mrs. Harry Coon, who has been ill the past week, is improving.

The auxiliary of the W.M.S. held their New Year meeting at the home of Mrs. E. A. Whitmore on Thursday afternoon last.

The Women's Institute met on Wednesday afternoon, the 10th inst., in their regular monthly meeting with a good attendance. The chief item on the programme for this date was to have been an address by Miss Mc-Guigan, the district president, who unfortunately, through illness, was unable to be present. The musical part of the programme was enjoyable in contributions of vocal numbers by the Misses Thelma Stevens and Vera Kernan, also piano selections by the Misses Gile and Jennie Halliday. An address was read by Miss Georgia Acheson. Mrs. Isaac Stevens presented some splendid suggestions for home entertainment and house parties. The roll call, responded to by "The funniest thing that happened at our house," made a truly happy number, giving much merriment.

The patrons of Farmers' Pride cheese factory were addressed on Wednesday night of last week by John Beatty, of Caintown, president of the Ontario Co-operative Dairy Products, Ltd., on behalf of that organization, when he emphasized the benefits and specific need of such to the farmer. The assembly were not of one accord as to the proposal, and the dairy interests and plans for operation are at present rather unsettled.

Mrs. M. H. Seed, of Toronto, arrived to spend New Year's with her mother, Mrs. Chisholm, and is remaining for a time.

Lansdowne Women's Institute to Hold it in February.

DISTRICT NEWS NOTES
W. S. Giffin, Maitland, Has Hand Injured in Litter Carrier.

Lansdowne, Jan. 10.—The regular meeting of the Women's Institute was held on Friday afternoon in the town hall, but owing to the bad weather conditions only a small number were on hand. It was decided to have a course in domestic science, given some time in February. The date will be announced later.

William Landon, Fairfax, is seriously ill in the General hospital at Brockville.

Dr. J. Donevan, Ogdensburg, N.Y., has been visiting at his home at Fairfax.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Landon and little son, Brockville, spent the holiday with the former's mother, Mrs. E. Landon.

Donald McNeil, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McNeil, left last week on a trip to California.

Miss Cecilia Ralph is receiving treatment at the Hotel Dieu, Kingston.

Miss Ena Bigford is a patient in St. Vincent de Paul hospital, Brockville.

Miss Marjory Leach has returned to Brooklyn, N.Y.

Mrs. Robert Turner was taken to the Brockville hospital yesterday for treatment.

Lansdowne

Lansdowne, Jan. 13.—The funeral of William R. Landon, who passed away on Wednesday afternoon in the St. Vincent de Paul hospital, Brockville after a very brief illness having only entered the hospital on the previous Saturday, was held Friday afternoon from the home of his sister, Mrs. M. where Rev. I. N. Beckstedt conducted the service. A large congregation was present. Deceased was aged 62 and a life long resident of Lansdowne township, being a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Festus Landon. He was a prosperous farmer and had never married. He leaves one sister, Mrs. Mary Clair, of Fairfield, and two nephews, John and James Clair, also of Fairfield. The pallbearers were Herb Cook, N. McKay, Wesley Webster, Samuel Furner, John Allen, James Moore. The remains were placed in the union vault.

CHARLESTON.

Charleston, Jan. 15.—F. B. Moulton, Jones' Falls, was a visitor here last week.

The children of J. A. Flood, L. Halliday, M. J. Kavanagh and Mrs. Larry have all been ill of la grippe.

George Heffernan surprised his neighbors by slipping quietly off on Monday and being married to Miss Nellie Leeder, of McIntosh Mills, by Rev. V. O. Boyle, of Athens. The bride is a former teacher here and has many friends who bid her welcome.

Fred Spence and bride are spending a few weeks with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Spence.

Mrs. Crozier has been suffering with blood poisoning in her finger.

R. Foster came from Brockville on Thursday to spend a few days getting in his wood and ice.
