A very interesting event took place at Grand Pre yesterday, when our esteemed friend Mr. R. R. Duncan stepped out from the ranks of the grand army of Bachelors and took a wife from among the fair daughters of Grand Pre. As a bachelor "Bob" was a gigantic success and a general favorite with "the boys." Now that he has joined the other party we hope he will meet with that success and happiness in life which is merited by all good and true bachelors. We are in hopes he is "not lost" but merely "gone before." He will please accept for himself and wife our most sincere congratulations and well wishes.
