

New Hair Ayer's Hair Vigor makes the hair grow because it is a hair-food. Feed the hair-bulbs, and the hair grows. That's nature's way, and that is all there is to it. Strong and healthy hair stays in, keeps soft and smooth, and grows thick and heavy. Then aid nature with Ayer's Hair Vigor. A little of it often does great things. There's genuine comfort in a handsome head of hair! J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

FRIENDS OF IRELAND.

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 1.—Friends of the Irish cause, hundreds in number, are gathered here from all parts of the United States and Canada, to attend the third national convention of the United Irish League of America, which will hold its sessions during the next two days. The deliberations of the convention will be of unusual importance, in view of the fact that a measure of self-government for Ireland will be introduced in the British parliament next spring, and it is believed that the attitude of the friends of Ireland on this side of the Atlantic, as it will be declared at the convention, will have a very powerful influence in shaping the provisions of the measure of national self-government.

As a preliminary to the convention a great mass meeting has been arranged for the Academy of Music tonight in honor of T. P. O'Connor, M. P., and Edward Blake, M. P., the delegates to the convention from the national party in the British parliament. Governor Pennypacker is to preside at the meeting and the speakers will include Mayor Weaver, Messrs. O'Connor, Blake and others of note.

DEATH AT ST. JOHN

Flower-May, eldest daughter of James and Catherine McCaffrey, died at her father's residence, St. John, yesterday. The deceased, who was a great sufferer, had been ill for over a year. She leaves besides her parents, two brothers, John J. proprietor of the Queen Hotel, this city, and William J., manager of the New Amsterdam Insurance Co. of New York, and one sister, Katherine L., who was training for a nurse at Melrose, but came home last Christmas to care for her invalid sister.

CROOKED WORK CHARGED AGAINST HORSEMEN AT HALIFAX

Layers of Odds Anxious About Outcome of This Afternoon's Racing—Story That Both Meadowvale and Warren F. Were to Be Pulled in the 2.40—Pools May Be Declared Off—Meadowvale Was the Hot Tip in Opening Sales.

Halifax, Oct. 1.—The horsemen gathered here from all parts of Eastern Canada and New England are unusually excited over what has transpired since the close of Saturday's racing, and exciting times are expected between now and the close of the 2.40 class this afternoon.

Since the opening of the ten days' meeting the "hot" place has been heavy. Pool selling has been carried on in lively style at the Royal Hotel and at the St. James Cafe on Hollis street. The latter place has been the best patronized and in the vicinity of $2,500 is in the pool box each day. It is also estimated that nearly $1,000 is wagered in side bets and at the enclosure in front of the grand stand each day.

SECOND-CLASS MAIL ENQUIRY.

New York, Oct. 1.—The postal commission appointed under the recent act of congress to make enquiry regarding second-class mail matter assembled at the Holland House in this city today for its first hearing. The purpose of the commission is to enquire into and report to congress its conclusions on the operation and effect of the existing law relative to second-class mail matter, and what changes, if any, should be made.

The commission will direct its enquiries especially along the following lines:

1. Whether the revenue from the second class of mail matter should not be made commensurate with the actual cost of the service rendered in handling it, and whether its classification should not accordingly be grounded upon practical rather than ideal distinction?

2. In case second class matter is not put upon a cost-paying basis, what limitation should be placed upon the number of copies of any publication which may be placed in that class?

3. By what amendments of existing law may the changes which appear to be advisable be most effectively brought about?

GAME PLENTIFUL IN MAINE.

Bangor, Me., Oct. 1.—Maine's deer hunting season opened today and will continue until Dec. 15, Sundays excepted. According to reports brought down to the woods by men who have been camping and gleaning, game is very plentiful this year, having wintered well and enjoyed better protection than usual this summer.

According to the figures of the fish and game commission about 25,000 deer and 500 moose are killed every season in the Maine woods.

The best hunting is in the regions about the Penobscot River, Moosehead Lake and Aroostook Co. While the shooting of big game is a sport and pastime for the men from the cities, it has come to be regarded by the
