MAGISTRATE OBJECTED.

Thinks It Not Right For Mayor to Question Clark

If a Charge is to be Brought Against Him.

Chief Smith Closeted With the Constable at Noon.

The second chapter of the sens tional charges made by Mayor Mc-Laren against Constable James Clark, that the constable worked during the municipal elections for a mayoralty candidate was heard at Mrs. Clyds Green will be the soloist in the morning and Miss Gertrude Stares and Mrs. Clyds Green will sing a duet in mayoralty candidate, was heard at noon to-day in the City Hall. Chief Smith stated that he had summoned a Clark before him and that he and Clark were going before Mayor Mc-Laren in the mayor's office at noon. A little bird whispered this information to Magistrate Jelfs and the magistrate became warm.

"What right has the Mayor to question Clark when he will be one of his judges if the constable appears before the commissioners?" said his worship, and he went direct to the Mayor's office and had a talk with him. He told the Mayor that in his mind it was not the proper thing for him to question the constable even assuming he was guilty, and told the Mayor that the proper procedure would be to go before the board with his charges.

cedure would be to go before the board with his charges.

"Haven't I a right as a private citizen to question this man as to what he has done?" said the Mayor to the Magistrate.

"You are here as Mayor, and not as a private citizen," replied the Magistrate.

"You are here as Mayor, and not as a private citizen," replied the Magistrate.

When the Mayor insisted on holding the confab the Magistrate said he would instruct Clark to decline to answer any questions. "Well, I'll lay a charge, said the Mayor, and Magistrate Jelfs told him to go ahead, that that was the proper course. At press time Constable proper course. At press time conclusive was closeted with Chief Smith and Mayor McLaren was waiting for their appearance in his office. Mayor McLaren stated that he would not lay a formal charge unless Constable Clark denied the accusation the Mayor had made.

The Sunday afternoon meeting of the Y.W. C. A. will be held as usual at 4.15. The speaker will be Rev. Mr. Whiting, of Centenary Church. All young girls are welcome. Tea served at the close.

Did Fear of Exposure Cause Diebel's Death?

Toronto, Jan. 23.-Did fear of exposure of having carried on a smuggling business in connection with his store in Windsor cause Jacob A. Diebel, of Windsor, to jump out of a window of Windsor, to jump out of a window of the King Edward Hotel yesterday?
"The circumstances were that some time ago Mr. Alfred W. Reid, a Toronto business man, entered into negotiations with Mr. Diebel for the lease of his business in Windsor. An agreement was aigned, and Mr. Reid deposited $1,500 as an evidence of good faith. Later, however, he made discoveries which, according to the statement of claim filed by him in the suit which followed, led him to consider the deal a bad one; and the to consider the deal a bad one; and the result was an action for the return of deposit. It was alleged that a con-lerable portion of the business done by the defendant in the said premises was of an illegal and illicit nature, in the selling of goods to parties for the purof an illegal and illieft nature, in the selling of goods to parties for the pur-pose of being smuggled into the United States of America, and in the assisting of such smuggling and arranging and preparing goods soid so as to facilitate the smuggling of them.

COBALT'S GREAT RIVAL, GOWGANDA.

Mr. H. T. Pemberton, a prominent mining expert and manager of the Bartlett mines at Gowganda, recently gave out the following: "Well, Gow Ganda is off with a good start. Silver ore of surpassing richness exists there, and with great big faith in its future men are spending money on the most modern kind of machinery and are going in to make for Gow Ganda a name in the mining world that will outrival Cobalt."

CITY EXTENSION EASTWARD.

CITY EXTENSION EASTWARD.

To the Editor of the Times:
Sir,—The difficulties that exist between the Township of Barton and the City of Hamilton are not at an end. Solicitor Waddell, in behalf of the city, declares that an appeal has got to be entered against the judgment in the late suit. This must prolong the hardship suffered by the outlying sections now so thickly settled.

The extension of the water and sewer systems is a pressing necessity. All parties owning property in these now populous suburbs are existing under circumstances not in keeping with this age of progress.

The township is not in the business of supplying all that is required in the line of city improvements. Crown Point and the surrounding district, including Union Park and Kenilworth, will do well 'o come into the city and have all the benefits of the union of forces operating in a large corporation.

Property will take on new value and union of forces operating in a large corporation.

Property will take on new value and the health of the inhabitants may thus be protected. If proper terms of annexation are arranged, this union should take place in time for the opening of work this spring. The terms of annexation may be arranged by the Railway Board. Their judgment is good and free from all elements that might create suspicion.

There are good reasons why the city should get control of this district now and direct its improvements in harmony with it own plans.

The district is large and its annexation will be a great accession to our population.
