SUMMER HEAT

HARD ON BABY

No season of the year is so dangerous to the life of little ones as the summer. The excessive heat throws the little stomach out of order so quickly that unless prompt aid is at hand the baby may be beyond all human help before the mother realizes he is ill. Summer is the season when diarrhoea, cholera, infantum, dysentery and colic are most prevalent. Any one of these troubles may prove deadly if not promptly treated. During the summer the mothers best friend is Baby's Own Tablets. They regulate the bowels, sweeten the stomach and keep baby healthy. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

WOODSTOCK SUMMER

School of Science

they have not acquired the skill of properly handling their tools? How far more advanced our farms and our localities in general would be if every boy in the rural school were taught the proper use and care of tools. Our aim in the teaching of the rural school should be in a measure to satisfy the educational requirements of the district, and one of the essential needs of every school boy is a skillful training in manual work; which apart from the economic view elevates labor to its plane of dignity; while the boy becomes more closely related to nature and nature's produce.

When we teach Manual Training to the child in the Rural School, we are preparing him for his future life work. The child instinctively becomes familiar with the work, and creates in himself a liking for it, because this teaching is following along the natural trend of the boy's life, and the teacher is working along the line of least resistance to the child, thus producing better results.
What boy does not find unbounded delight in his jack-knife? Now manual training places in the hands of the boy jack-knives of modified and varied type, which may be guided by him in making projects such as farm gates, poultry crates, ladders, hay racks, whiffletrees, saw-bucks, buildings and sheds and if need be, furniture.

What boy could not be interested in this work? And it is this interest that will tend to keep the boy at school longer than the ordinary farm boy's period of schooling. At school then the boy would be interested, and there he would naturally bend his efforts.

This work in the rural school has also the important outcome of quality of associating school and home, in such a way as to cause more interest to be taken in the work by the parents; who begin to realize among other things the economic view of dollars and cents in connection with their boy's education. Can we not picture this effect upon the community at large, when farmers and boys begin to see that their source of comfort and produce may outcome from the proper handling and care of farm tools.

We have been dealing with this practical work from a utilitarian standpoint, let us now test its additional value. The teaching of Manual Training is a resourceful aid in the other subjects of the curriculum, such as arithmetic, through which the boy comes daily in contact with the concrete meaning of fractions, which are involved in the problems of calculating the lengths and breadths of projects, etc. Among other things the boy gains a general knowledge of forest and tree study.
Also, Manual Training may serve as a very appreciative aid in all other lines of school work, as exemplified in our short term here, how Manual Training played such an extensive part in every branch of our study.
What a potent factor it could be in our Rural School!

We realize now the long-felt need of the teaching of Manual Training in cities and towns, and we hope the time is not far distant when our Rural Schools may be equipped in like manner.

The Woman In Halifax

Who Didn't

A little incident about "Beaver" Flour

MRS. (well, never mind her name) couldn't make good Pies with "Beaver" Flour. The crust was "always heavy", as she told her grocer.

He couldn't understand it, because he was selling "Beaver" Flour to all his customers. In fact, none of his customers would use western wheat flour after trying "Beaver" Flour.

The grocer asked Mrs.—how she made the pies. The recipe seemed all right until she came to the water.

"What kind of water do you use?"
"Why, WARM water, of course", exclaimed the poor young bride.

"Well, just try COLD water, ICED WATER, and you'll have the kind of Pies you read about."

"Beaver" Flour is a better pastry flour than even special pastry flours; because it contains the same choice Ontario wheat from which special pastry flours are made. In addition, it also has a little Manitoba wheat to increase its strength.

This means, more Cake and Pies and Pastry to the barrel, while retaining its whiteness, lightness and home-made flavor.

Being blended in exact proportions, it is always uniform in strength and quality—and you can depend on it to give you the best results every time.

Order a bag at your grocer's and try it when next you bake.
