MARQUIS CURZON
PASSED AWAY
FRIDAY MORNING

Marquis Curzon of Kedleston; Lord President of the Council; died Friday morning. Death came at 5.35 o'clock. His physicians had been with him throughout the night.

They were convinced that the signs they saw late Thursday evening portended death. The indications of his passing then were so marked that they did not conceal their opinion from the public and announced in their bulletin that the patient's condition was extremely grave.

The Marquis collapsed on March 5 at Cambridge; while he was dressing to attend a public dinner. It was said at the time that he had suffered from a hemorrhage. All his immediate engagements were cancelled and he was brought back to London the following day.

On March 9 he underwent a serious operation; and since that time he had gradually failed.

After Thursday evening's official bulletin; no information regarding the patient was forthcoming; until his death was announced.

The public still is without definite knowledge as to the nature of the illness which necessitated the operation on March 9. Bladder trouble has generally been given as the cause of the collapse which heralded the fatal sickness; the earliest outward manifestation of which was faintness; accompanied by the hemorrhage at Cambridge.

Death came quietly ending a career which was notable in many ways. Opinion necessarily is much divided with regard to the political acts of the Marquis but it is conceded that whatever verdict history eventually passes upon him it cannot be denied that he was a great Statesman who spent a large part of his life in devoted service to his country a service the demands of which it is believed undoubtedly weakened his physique which never was very strong.

Church Union
Will Furnish
Excitement

Church Union is expected to be one of the matters of chief interest before the House of Assembly this week. Last year the measure proved one of the most contentious ever introduced, those opposed to Church Union fighting the measure tooth and nail. This session those opposed to Union are promoting their own bill the object of which is to provide for voting by Presbyterian churches prior to the Federal Act coming into effect June 10th., and the Unionists promise the opposition.

Hon. W. E. Foster, former premium of the Province, introduced the petition for the bill Wednesday and on Thursday introduced the bill. In the ordinary course of events it should be before Corporations Committee on Friday morning of this week.
First reading given in the House and second reading on Tuesday after the House resumes after the weekend.

A another flood of oratory is anticipating before the committee which is presided over by R. T.
Hayes of St. John, himself a stout supporter of Union. The prospect is that the question of Church Union will again be dealt with both before committee and House.

In addition to the part of the bill touching the time of voting, there is a contentious clause which provides that only those in full membership in churches July 19, 1924, may vote, on

FINED HEAVILY
Liquor Sub-Inspector Fraser Saund was in town recently and prosecuted George Gallon of Chelmsford for operating a still and also for having a worm and other apparatus in his possession last September.

The still was the largest ever seized in the province. He was convicted on both counts. For having the still he was sent to gaol for one month and to pay a fine of $200 or in default of the latter to spend six additional months in gaol. On the other charge he was sentenced to one month in gaol or a fine of $200.

In a recent baking Contest held in St. John by the Telegraph-Journal, 756 loaves of bread were submitted to the judges. After more than three hours concentrated attention the number of loaves to be judged was reduced to 30, and of these 30, a loaf baked by Mrs.
Joseph Harrington 41 Cranston Avenue, St. John and made from ROBIN HOOD FLOUR was awarded first prize.

This is a great compliment to ROBIN HOOD FLOUR and there is no reason for
