He kissed me, and I knew 'twas wrong,
For my mouth with his was in;
Need me do penance very long
For such a tiny little sin?

He swore, by heaven, at this was bright;
Why could I not believe?
It was a lie—I knew it quite—
But in it there were days and days.

There's mischief in the kisses, I know;
I'm positive I saw him wink
When I pretended 'twas no go;
I hate deceit, I think.

But after all, 'tis not to think
He took the course—for those men
Are, you know, of a different make
From you and me, and when
There's no parting!" (Customer smiles painfully.)

Boarder.—What large chickens these are. Landlady.—Yes, chickens are larger than they used to be; ten years ago we couldn't pretend to get chickens as large as these." Boarder (quite innocently.)—"No, I suppose not; they must have grown some in that time." Landlady pokes as if she had been insulted.

A little six-year old boy was asked by his teacher to write a composition on the subject of water, and the following is the result: "Water is good to drink, to swim in, and to wash the dishes. I used to bake me every morning in water. I have been told the Injuns use it in war."

The late Peter Cute, Esq., was once called upon by two young men for pecuniary assistance.

One of them commenced:—"Mr. Cute, our father died and made a will."

"Is it possible?" never heard of such a thing," answered Mr. Cute.

"It hardly happened every day," said the young man.

"It is the first case of the kind," answered Mr. Cute.

"Well," said the young man, "if there is to be any difficulty about it, we had better give you a fee to attend to the business."

The fee was given, and then Mr. Cute observed:—"Oh! I think I know what you mean; you mean that your father made a will and died. Yes, yes, father made a will, that must be it." But he took the fee, nevertheless.

which can be cured by a timely resort to this standard preparation, as has been proved by the hundreds of testimonials received by the proprietors. It is acknowledged by many prominent physicians to be the most reliable preparation ever introduced for the relief and cure of all Lung complaints, and is offered to the public, sanctioned by the experience of over forty years. When resorted to in season it seldom fails to effect a speedy cure in the most severe cases of Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza, Asthma, Colds, Sore Throat, Pains or Soreness in the Chest and Side, Liver Complaint, Bleeding at the Lungs, &c. Wistar's Balsam does not dry up a Cough, and leave the cause behind, as is the case with most preparations, but it loosens and cleanses the lungs, and allays irritation, thus removing the cause of the complaint.

"A Large Soul in a Small Body."

The above cut represents our $70 Organs.

WHILE thanking our former agents and customers for their liberal patronage and confidence for the past year [and which we still hope to retain,] we would respectfully call their attention to our style No. 61. This Organ being a 6 octave, Double Reed (U Scale) is a very desirable instrument for advanced players, Pianists or parties educating themselves for the pianoforte and as a parlor Instrument, it meets every requirement.—Our No. 30 is the same as 61, but different style, and more expensive. Our No. 32 is pronounced by all who have seen it to be the finest Instrument in the world for the price; this organ has two complete sets the same as No 30, with two additional half sets, viz, Hautboy and Vox Celeste, making four setts from middle C up and also 1½ octaves of Bass Profundo. We are the first and only parties who make this line of Instruments, and the universal satisfaction they have given, and the immense sale of these Organs, show that they are appreciated and encourages us to make them a speciality.

Applications for agencies, where we have no agents, at all times confidentially solicited.

Prospectus for 1873—Sixth Year.

THE ALDINE,

An Illustrated Monthly Journal, universally admitted to be the Handsomest Periodical in the World. Representative and Champion of American Taste.

Not for sale in Book or News Stores.

THE ALDINE, while issued with all regularity, has none of the temporary or timely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of pure, light, and graceful literature, and a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it has been bound up at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness, as compared with rivals of a similar class, THE ALDINE is a unique and original conception—alone and unapproached—absolutely without competition in price or character. The possession of a complete volume cannot duplicate the quantity of fine paper and engravings in any other shape or number of volumes for ten times its cost; and then, there are the chromos, besides.

ART DEPARTMENT.

Notwithstanding the increase in the price of subscription last Fall, when THE ALDINE assumed its present noble proportions and representative character, the edition has more than doubled during the year; proving that the American public appreciate, and will support, a sincere effort in the cause of Art. The publishers, anxious to justify the ready confidence thus demonstrated, have exerted themselves to the utmost to develop and improve the work; and the plans for the coming year, as unfolded by the monthly issues, will astonish and delight even the most sanguine friends of THE ALDINE.

The publishers are authorized to announce designs from many of the most eminent artists of America.

In addition, THE ALDINE will reproduce examples of the best foreign masters, selected with a view to the highest artistic success, and greater general interest; avoiding such as have become familiar, through photographs or copies of any kind.

The quarterly tinted plates, for 1873 will reproduce four of John S. Davis' inimitable child-sketches appropriate to the four seasons. These plates, appearing in the issues for January, April, July, and October, would be alone worth the price of a year's subscription.

The popular feature of a copiously illustrated "Christmas" number will be continued.

To possess such a valuable epitome of the art world at a cost so trifling, will command the subscriptions of thousands in every section of the country; but as the usefulness and attractions of THE ALDINE can be enhanced, in proportion to the numerical increase of its supporters, the publishers propose to make "assurance double sure," by the following unparalleled offer of

PREMIUM CHROMOS FOR 1872.

Every subscriber to THE ALDINE, who pays in advance for the year 1873, will receive, without additional charge, a pair of beautiful oil-chromos, after J. J. Hill the eminent English painter. The pictures, entitled "The Village Belle," and "Crossing the Moor," are 14 x 20 inches—are printed from 25 different plates, requiring 25 impressions and tints to perfect each picture. The same chromos are sold for $30 per pair in the art stores. As to the determination of its conductors to keep THE ALDINE out of the reach of competition in every department, the chromos will be found correspondingly ahead of any that can be offered by other periodicals. Every subscriber will receive a certificate, over the signature of the publishers, guaranteeing that the chromos delivered shall be equal to the samples furnished the agent, or the money will be refunded. The distribution of pictures of this grade, free to the subscribers to a five dollar periodical, will mark an epoch in the history of Art; and, considering the unprecedented cheapness of the price for THE ALDINE itself, the marvel is little short of a miracle, even to those best acquainted with the achievements of inventive genius and improved mechanical appliances (For illustrations of these chromos, see November issue of THE ALDINE.)

THE LITERARY DEPARTMENT

will continue under the care of Mr. RICHARD HENRY STODDARD, assisted by the best writers and poets of the day, who will strive to have the literature of THE ALDINE always in keeping with its artistic attractions.

TERMS.

$5 per annum, in advance, with Oil Chromos free.

THE ALDINE will, hereafter, be obtainable only by subscription. There will be no reduced or club rate; cash for subscriptions must be sent to the publishers direct, or handed to the local agent, without responsibility to the publishers, except in cases where the certificate is given, bearing the fac-simile signature of JAMES SUTTON & Co.

AGENTS WANTED.

Any person, wishing to act permanently as a local agent, will receive full and prompt information by applying to.
