THE KING'S CONDITION.
LONDON, Nov. 4.
The King had a somewhat disturbed night but was better this morning and could move with less discomfort.

MUNITION FACTORIES.
LONDON, Nov. 4.
Private factories controlled by the Minister of Munitions for making munitions and other war material, now number 1,349.

DURATION OF PARLIAMENT.
LONDON, Nov. 4.
Political circles are exercised over ministerial silence with regard to the Parliament Act, which orders that Parliament automatically expires within ten weeks. It was expected that special legislation would have extended the life of the present parliament before now, but ministers make no sign.

NO GENERAL ELECTION.
LONDON, Nov. 4.
The Marquis of Lansdowne announced in the Lords to-day that the Government is firmly of opinion that there should be no general election until after the war.

SUGGESTION IN THE COMMONS.
LONDON, Nov. 4.
The suggestion was made in the Commons to-day by Sir Alfred Mond, that legislation be enacted suspending, during the war, payment of rent, insurance premiums, interest on mortgages and similar fixed obligations of men who join the Army. Sir Mond, whose suggestion was received with favor, said that these charges were like millstones around the necks of many men who, except for them would be glad to enlist. Asquith said the Government fully recognized the importance of the problem, and promised to consider the suggestion carefully.

OPERATIONS IN THE KAMERUN.
LONDON, Nov. 4.
An official communication issued to-night, concerning operations in the Kamerun region, says that the towns of Mamadia and Ekohi have been occupied by the British, whose casualties were small.

COMPelled TO PAY INCOME TAX.
LONDON, Nov. 4.
Chancellor of the Exchequer McKenna to-day promulgated an order under which the agencies of American mercantile firms, operating in Britain, will be compelled to pay income tax on the basis of their total earnings in Britain, including money returned to the United States. Hitherto these agencies have only paid income tax on profits expended in the country. The new tax will hit some of the agencies very hard, and may have the effect of discouraging imports, what in war times are considered luxuries, and a caste unfavorable to the trade balance.

REPLIES TO WOMEN ABOUT ZAM-BUK.
Mrs. M.—Zam-Buk being quite free from all mineral coloring matter is quite safe for baby's skin sores. Apply twice daily.
"Louise"—No fretting will occur in a sore if Zam-Buk is used. For the ulcer, cleanse well and apply Zam-Buk freely.
"Well pleased"—Eczema is often a stubborn disease, and if Zam-Buk has cured you in three weeks, no wonder you sign yourself "Well Pleased."
"In Doubt"—Write to the Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, sending one cent stamp for reply, and mention this column. They will send you a free box.
"Anxious Mother"—Whether the eruption is eczema or something less serious, you should treat it. Apply Zam-Buk daily. One week should show an improvement—likely less, as Zam-Buk cures very quickly.
"Economy"—The real price of Zam-Buk is 30 cents, but some druggists cut their profit rather than sell inferior ointments, and you can get it sometimes for less.
"Puzzled"—If your doctor has said that Zam-Buk is better than what you have tried, we see no reason why you should remain puzzled. This great herbal balm is now regarded by the medical profession, as well as by the great army of mothers, as the best family ointment. Take the advice from your doctor and try Zam-Buk.
Address all applications for samples and retail orders to T. McMURDO & CO., St. John's, Nfld.

GREEK CABINET RESIGNS.
ATHENS, Nov. 4.
Following defeat in Parliament to-day, the Cabinet resigned. The immediate cause of the defeat was a remark made by War Minister Yanakitas, which was considered by former Premier Venizelos as insulting to the National Assembly. Venizelos demanded an immediate apology. Yanakitas declared the Government stood behind the War Minister and demanded a vote of confidence. Discussion of proposed military laws, the correspondent says, raised a question between the Minister of War and the majority of the party of the former Premier Venizelos. On this issue Yanakitis decided to ask for a vote of confidence. The discussion then turned on the foreign policy of the Government, whose policy, he considered, harmful to the interests of the country. All the party leaders engaged in the discussion. The final vote was 147 against Government 114. The Athens newspapers which are opposed to Venizelos consider a dissolution of parliament certain.

GREEK CABINET CRISIS.
ROME, Nov. 4.
Commenting on the Greek cabinet crisis, the Giornale d'Italia says: Logic seems finally to have triumphed. Venizelos should return to power, but in Balkan affairs any surprise can be expected.

GREECE GROWS UNEASY.
SALONIKA, Nov. 4.
According to information secured from Greek sources—believed to be reliable—King Constantine has assured the French Minister at Athens that should Roumania join the Entente Allies, or should the situation in Serbia be appreciably ameliorated by an Anglo-French offensive movement, Greece will not be unprepared to change her present attitude. Reports of Russian troops landing at Varna have made a deep impression here.

VENIZELOS ACCLAIMED.
LONDON, Nov. 4.
A General News correspondent at Athens says that after Premier Zaimis had handed his resignation to the King, the Chamber of Deputies again assembled. There was a striking demonstration in honor of former Premier Venizelos.

WOMEN SOLDIERS.
LONDON, Nov. 4.
There were nearly two thousand women in Serbia's army when I left. Women soldiers were being organized, said Dr. Grutch, a Serbian army doctor, now in London, to-day. The women are not of special battalions, as by the complete uniform of the soldier for the sake of comfort, others wear skirts with blue tunics. Some wore the coat of special battalions. The younger women go with their brothers or husbands; they are women of every class of the population. We cannot prevent them from serving. They inspire the men with whom they march side by side, and with whom they move shoulder to shoulder in the trenches. These women are not afraid. Nobody in Serbia is afraid, and the women rankers do not lose their nerve under fire. We realize the great power of our friends in the war. Every soldier feels we are only part of a world army, and if it is necessary, that our army shall be lost, well, it is only a part. There is time yet to save Serbia, but assistance for her cannot come too quickly.

THE FIGHTING IN THE BALKANS.
LONDON, Nov. 4.
An artillery duel is in progress all day to-day at Valandovo in the Strumitza region, between the French and Bulgarians. The Serbians are reported to be retiring in good order from Tetovo before a superior force. In Dabina Pass, which protects the road to Prilip and Monastir, the Serbians are continuing to repel furious assaults by the Bulgarians. Generally speaking, the despatch says, the situation of the Serbians is extremely critical, but if they are able to hold out a little longer, the situation will take on an altered complexion. Further reinforcements of the Allied troops are being moved rapidly forward.

KING PETER GONE TO THE FRONT.
AMSTERDAM, Nov. 4.
The Bulgarian statement received to-day from Sofia says King Peter of Serbia has gone to the front to encourage his soldiers and take them the news that French and British forces are hastening to their assistance.

LANDING OF TROOPS CONTINUE.
PARIS, Nov. 4.
Landing of French troops at Salonika continues without incident, according to an announcement made this afternoon by the French War Office on operations in the east.

SERBIANS HOLD THEIR OWN.
LONDON, Nov. 4.
A late wireless message received through Scutari says that the cohesion of the Serbian army has been preserved. Where necessary troops are making an orderly and strategic retirement, rear guard actions are being carried on efficiently and the armies are being maintained unimpaired. The Serbians are holding the line west of Uskup and Kuppulja, and along the Babuna mountains. The railway is safe from Salonika to a point near Kuprulu. At Kragevatz the Germans found nothing of much value in the arsenal. All important equipment had been removed. Up to the present advice says the Austro-Germans have paid dearly for the advance they have made. No decisive battle has been fought, as such action will not be accepted by Serbians at present.

GERMANY TO CONTINUE THE WAR.
LUCERNE, Nov. 4.
Prince Von Buelow informed the Associated Press to-day that he had not come to Switzerland on a peace mission. He declared Germany was resolved to continue the war to its conclusion by arms.

ITALIAN DENIAL.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.
At the Italian Embassy to-day, this statement was issued: The Italian Embassy has been instructed to deny most emphatically that any kind of attempts have been made by the Italian Government to discuss peace.

REPORT OF WITHDRAWAL INFURIOUS.
BERLIN, Nov. 4.
Among the items given out for publication to-day by the Overseas News Agency, was the following: Reports that the German government had asked the withdrawal of the American Minister at Brussels, Brand Whitlock are absolutely untrue. The German Government had no reason to ask for his withdrawal, since his personality and his personal activity have never caused dissatisfaction.

DISASTROUS WRECK.
MARSHFIELD, Oregon, Nov. 4.
Twelve persons are known to have lost their lives, and seven passengers are still unaccounted for, through the wreck of the steamer Santa Clara, which went ashore south of Co. Bay on Tuesday.

CLEARED FOR OPERTO.
The schr. Benjamin C. Smith cleared for Operto yesterday taking a cargo of 3274 quintals of codfish from Alan Goodridge and Sons.

La Grippe and Colds.
In La Grippe and Colds, Anti-kamnis(A-K) Tablets are unexcelled, as they stop the pain, soothe the nerves, and bring the rest so greatly needed by nature to restore the system to health. Physicians have used these tablets for over twenty years, in the treatment of colds, fevers and grippe, and have found no other remedy more useful in these conditions. Anti-kamnis(A-K) Tablets are so inexpensive, so pleasant to take, so satisfactory in their results, and so useful in all conditions where there is pain, that A-K Tablets should always be kept in the house for the time of need. Many of our ablest physicians obtain perfect results in grippe and colds by cleansing the system with Epson salts or "Acolids", a very good cathartic, putting the patient on a limited diet, and administering one A-K Tablet every two or three hours. This treatment will usually break up the worst case in a day or two, while in milder cases, a 10c and comfort, follow almost immediately. These tablets are also unexcelled for Neuritis, Rheumatic Pains, The Pains of Women, Indigestion and Insomnia. All druggists have them. Genuine A-K Tablets bear the K mark.

"Come Out and Fight."

New York World.—They need something to hearten them up a bit and excite their risibles in London, and so we respectfully suggest, that the despatch from The World's Berlin correspondent describing a visit to the German fleet be widely distributed in England.

"Do you think the British fleet will ever come out?" is the question that everybody on board asked the correspondent. Why does not Great Britain "throw the glove in the naval arena for Germany to pick up?"

The ships on which this delightful segment of German public opinion was found are as snug as bugs in a rug under the guns of Wilhelmshaven. They are as secure against come-outers as a cave-dweller, and designedly so.

The British fleet has come out sufficiently to control the seven seas. Aside from a few submarines, there is not a German ship afloat anywhere except in neutral harbors and in heavily protected German waters. Merchant-war and merchantmen alike have disappeared, while British flags, commercial and naval, are seen as frequently as in peace in every ocean.

With nearly all its colonies in the hands of the enemy and its great high-sea fleet helplessly a prisoner in its own harbors, Germany may fairly be asked what kind of comic-opera challenge it is awaiting.

A Child's Tongue Shows if Liver or Bowels Are Active

If cross, feverish, sick, bilious, give fruit laxative at once.

Every mother realizes, after giving her children "California Syrup of Figs," that this is their ideal laxative, because they love its pleasant taste and it thoroughly cleanses the tender little stomach, liver, and bowels without griping.

When cross, irritable, feverish or breath is bad, stomach sour, look at the tongue, Mother! If coated, give a teaspoonful of this harmless "Fruit Laxative," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. When its little system is full of cold, throat sore, has stomach-ache, diarrhea, indigestion, colic remember, a good "inside cleansing" should always be the first treatment given.

Millions of mothers keep "California Syrup of Figs" handy; they know a teaspoonful to-day saves a sick child to-morrow. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here, so don't be fooled. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company."

MARRIED PEOPLE.

Young Rollo and Alice got married last year and then in a palace began their career. From goldsmiths and cutlers they laid in a store; they'd footman and butlers and servants galore. They'd dachshunds and poodles, apparel the best, and autos, and Boodle's the family crest. They had every blessing that mortals pursue, but this is distressing—they'd nothing to do! Alas, for folks who are idle no fortune can please. So Alice and Rollo—a matter of course, such things often follow—indulged in divorce. Oh, Reuben and Bridget got married last May; their roll was a midget—he worked by the day. They entered a cottage of tumble-down sort, their fodder was potage at ten cents a quart. He's earning his wages along with a gang; she's canning green gages in that cheap shebang. And neither will fliget for things out of reach; for Reuben loves Bridget, she thinks he's a peach. And indolence raises no cloud in their view; they're busy as blazes, with plenty to do.

LEFT FOR ALICANTE.

The French barqet Yvonne Odette sailed for Alicante yesterday taking a cargo of 4939 quintals of codfish from Balne Johnstone and Co.

In Milady's Boudoir.

PRETTY TEETH ESSENTIAL.

Pretty teeth, or at least white teeth, are very essential to beauty when beauty smiles. But teeth, whether pretty or ugly, should be kept immaculate in appearance at all times.

The teeth of most people are sufficiently far apart for small articles of food to lodge between them, and if these particles are not quickly removed, their decomposition begins, injurious acids are formed and a decay of, first the enamel, and then the teeth proper, begins.

Besides, such decaying particles, give rise to poisonous gases which make the breath bad, retard digestion, aggravate the nervous system, and poison the blood making, as you see, radiant health impossible. The ill-bred custom of using a toothpick in public is not to be considered for an instant, so it is advisable to retire to ones room or the bathroom as soon after a meal as possible, and there use both toothpick and dental floss to remove any particles of food adhering to the teeth, first having brushed them with warm water.

One must take care, too, that the brush is the right size, for if it is too large it will not reach far back into the mouth and well up into the gums.

A good tooth paste or powder should be used at least twice a day. Two ounces of precipitated chalk and two ounces of powdered orris root crushed and mixed, makes one of the best homemade powders. It is not only beneficial, but harmless.

Sometimes there are spots of tartar on the teeth that do not yield readily to the brush. These can be removed by wrapping a small pointed stick with absorbent cotton moistened and dipped in powdered pumice stone. This treatment should be practised with caution and only done once a week.

Household Notes.

Maple-sugar frosting will make a plain cake into something extra fine. Use one cupful each of maple and granulated sugar, a teaspoonful of butter and three teaspoonfuls of cream. Boil five minutes and stir till slightly thickened. Dip the cakes in, will not taste of cornstarch.

Fish is much more delicate if it is boned. This is very easy to do by cutting the fish in half, running the knife close to one side of the backbone, then with the fingers lift the backbone from the flesh; the rib bones will come with it. The other side will have a few bones that can be easily pulled out.

If towels have become gray and dingy looking cover with cold water in which are dissolved shavings of pure white soap and the juice of a lemon. Place the kettle on the back of the stove and allow to come slowly to a boil. Rinse in tepid water, then in blue water, then dry in the open air.

There are many ways of cooking tomatoes that they can be served once, and sometimes twice each day, and to some extent reduce the meat bill. With good cream for the dressing there is nothing more delicious than fried tomatoes. Then they can be stuffed and baked. They can be scalloped or they can be stewed.

There should be in every sewing room a chest of drawers in which to keep unfinished work, new material and patterns. There should be a trunk where all new and useful scraps of all kinds are kept. A sewing table for thread, needles and smaller things is a great convenience. A low rocking chair without arms and a long mirror would make a sewing room a delight to work in.

The remains of a blanc mange or jelly generally looks untidy and "left-overish." If you set them in individual shapes—old teacups make splendid moulds—there will be no half-finished shapes to use up. Ground rice, tapioca, or ordinary rice shapes can be made this way, and the children will probably eat two "little puddings" of this sort when they would have refused a spoonful from a pudding in a dish.

Ladies' Costumes Fall--1915--Styles.

Was there ever a more fickle lady than Dame Fashion? She is always making changes, and this season has surely surpassed herself.

There is a more decided change in this Fall's styles than has been known for many seasons. While materials are similar, Serges, Gabardines, Tweeds, Cord, etc., the designs are absolutely unlike any of their predecessors. Coats are of many styles, chiefly a la militaire, with high collars, snug-fitting sleeves, and the entire coat in some instances is beautifully braided. Skirts are much fuller, both pleated and gored, and are worn very short.

As descriptions are quite impossible, we can only say that we carry the largest and smartest line of Ladies' Costumes in the city.

U S. Picture and Portrait Co.
