Minister of Militia.

PTE. LEO M. SHORTALL.

In yesterday's casualty list there ppeared the name of Pte. Leo M. Shortall, son of Mr. W. P. Shortall, and Mrs. Shortall, Gower Street, who died of wounds on the 29th ult., at Wandsworth. The deceased was one of our most popular young men and played a prominent part in the October drive, 1916, when the Nfld, Regiment captured a number of German trenches, prisoners and guns. In the battle of Monchy he was severely wounded and for nine months was treated in St. George's Hospital, London, and on January 3rd last was transferred to Wandsworth. A couple of weeks ago messages were received stating that his condition was critical.
