We note yesterday that two fresh faces appeared in the House, viz., Mr. Piccott (Narbor Grace), on the Opposition side after a prolonged absence, and opposite him under the shadow of his "wordy" leader sat Mr. Grimes (Port de Grave), the self-styled Bolshevist of this community.

A heavy storm raged last night and early this morning apparently over the whole Island, as messages from Fogo, and also from the West Coast stated that the wind was N. E., and lowing a gale accompanied with snow. On the railway line, drifts have piled up and all traffic became suspended for a time. In the city a considerable let. of snow fell while the wind blow with a velocity of over We note also that the latter was 50 miles per hour. The storm abated
