For Sweet Charity's Sake.

There is a manifold reason why the spirit of "the greatest of these" should be exercised during the prevalent depression, caused by lack of employment in the city. It is undeniable that many families are in extreme want, many young children cry for bread which their parents cannot give them, and the wall of the hungry little ones is heard through the length and breadth of St. John's. Can we as a community refuse to hearken to that wall and not do something to make glad the hearts and nourish the bodies of the immature in our midst. Can we not unite in some kind of entertainment or exhibition whereby funds can be raised to meet the immediate demands that charity ever makes upon us. No person wants to witness the suffering of the little ones for lack of good, substantial food. The future calls us, yea challenges us to get busy. Peaked faces, shrunken limbs and generally unhealthy bodies will be but a poor gift to Newfoundland, and will damn for all time our professed christianity. It is our paramount duty to look after the "hostages given to fortune," whether by ourselves or others. The need of the times appears to be relief. The cry of the growing generation is "Give us bread." Will that cry fall on heedless ears. We can find time and money for various sports, for the erection of buildings and for numerous other purposes, but there are hundreds of human structures in this city to-day, which need repair, if we are to retain them for the ultimate good of the Colony. The boy is the father of the man: the woman is the mother of the girl. If we permit the potential fathers and mothers then to grown up, illnourished and anaemic, how are we to continue in a physically fit condition? What kind of a population can we expect succeeding years to produce if those upon whom this natural increase devolves are permitted to reach maturity—if ever they do—physically unfit to be the coming parents of our successors in the carrying on of the religious, commercial, political and social business of the capital of Newfoundland. May we suggest in this connection that the Clubs of the city—through their Executive Committees—get together and arrange for a big billiard exhibition to be held at a nominal charge fee for admission, in one of the Halls, the whole proceeds to be devoted to charitable purposes. Dispositions for such an exhibition would not be difficult, and we believe that the attraction and the cause which would be its object, would return a sum, which divided up proportionately amongst those who are actually in distress, would bring gladness to many an adult as well as juvenile heart. Think it over gentlemen of the Club Executives of St. John's.

At the January Clearance Sale at BISHOP'S, Boys' Serge Sailor Suits that were upwards of twenty dollars are selling for eleven dollars and thirty-five cents per suit.

Official Confirmation

OF DEATH OF HOLY FATHER.

It was announced at the Roman Catholic Cathedral on Sunday evening last, that His Grace, the Archbishop had received the following cable officially confirming the death of the Holy Father.

OTTAWA.

"It is my painful duty to announce to you that the Holy Father died on January 22nd at 6 o'clock in the morning, Rome time. Please offer prayers for the repose of his soul."

APOSTOLIC DELEGATE.

It was also announced that there would be a solemn Requiem Mass for the late Pope in the Cathedral on Thursday morning next, 26th inst., at 10 o'clock.

Bell Island Miners Meet.

UNEMPLOYMENT PROBLEM DISCUSSED.

At a mass meeting of over 1000 unemployed miners on Bell Island, a committee was appointed to thoroughly investigate the labour difficulties and obtain information concerning the possibilities of future work on the Island. Messages with regard to local conditions have been sent to the Directors of the British Empire Steel Corporation and the Government, and the following delegates were elected to interview the Prime Minister, Sir R. A. Squires, on his arrival, and present to him Bell Island's claim for assistance, namely Rev. Ira F. Curtis, Captain Leo Murphy and J. C. Stewart, Esq. Another public meeting will be held to-day and the reports of the Committee will be presented. The committee appointed is as follows:—B. King, T. Sweeney, Hy. Stares, Stephen Murphy, A. S. Murphy, Councillor, E. J. Ryan, E. S. Spencer, J. C. Stewart, Councillor, R. T. Kent, Rev. J. J. Stead, Rev. J. J. McGrath, Rev. Ira F. Curtis, A. J. Stickleland, S.A.; Capt. Leo Murphy, George Brown, J. Humber, Edwin Ross, Thomas Conway, Water Davis, Andrew Dart, Councillor Richard Bugden, John J. Murphy and Water Jackman.

Held Over.

Because of extra pressure on space to-day a considerable quantity of correspondence and other local literary matter is unavoidably held over until to-morrow.

Digby's Passengers.

The following passengers have booked to sail by the S. S. Digby for Halifax and Boston:—P. J. Ogan, A. M. Parsons, J. Maddigan, P. Halley, F. M. O'Leary, G. S. Doyle, C. S. Williams, Miss M. L. Orr, J. B. and Mrs. Orr, R. V. Judd, J. J. Slattery, T. S. Cartwright, Geo. McCluskey, J. Miller, H. Young, H. J. Ward, P. and Mrs. Prunty, Miss Prunty, C. H. and Mrs. Miller, L. F. Perlin, S. L. Levitz, W. C. Gear, D. M. Baird, J. P. Stick, T. W. Sparks, Miss J. Thistle, W. H. Macintosh, Miss M. Murphy, A. Ebsary and J. Lester.

Rumour.

It is rumoured around town that the opening of the House has been delayed until next week. The members are determined that nothing will stand in the way of celebrating in a fitting manner Scotland's National Poet.

It is unquestioned that the standard bearers of the St. Andrew's Society have been the Ladies' Auxiliary, who have done so much to make these anniversaries so successful.

This year they commence the supper at 8.30 and continue until 12.30 p.m.—surely a wonderful performance. In the words of Burns:

Some hae meat and canna eat,
And some hae meat that want it;
But we hae meat, and we can eat,
And so the Lord be thankit.

The prominent society man who fell on the ice on Saturday will be welcomed to-morrow night at the C. C. Hall. It will be a real Scotch night.

Express Passengers Arrive.

The following passengers who landed from the S. S. Kyle at Port aux Basques on Sunday, reached the city at 6.50 last night after a good run across country:—N. Andrews and wife, B. Hartigan, J. B. Pettis, L. Blackstad, Miss M. J. Bowdye.

The Passing of the Pope.

HIS HOLINESS POPE BENEDICT XV.

Born, Genoa—Nov. 21, 1854

Ordained Priest—Dec. 21, 1878

Consecrated Archbishop of Bologna—Dec. 22, 1907.

Proclaimed Cardinal—May 25, 1914.

Elected Pope—Sept. 3, 1914.

Crowned Pope—Sept. 6, 1914.

Died—Jan. 22, 1922.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH OF HIS HOLINESS.

On Sunday, January 22nd, at 6 a.m., the death of Pope Benedict XV was proclaimed by Cardinal Vanutelle, Dean of the Sacred College at St. Peter's, Rome. The official confirmation of the passing of His Holiness was received by His Grace Archbishop Roche on Sunday afternoon in a message from His Excellency Most Rev. P. Di Maria, Apostolic Delegate at Ottawa. Benedict XV was born in 1854, and was therefore nearly 68 years old at the time of his death. The Pope's family name has an interesting history. Away back in the fifth century the great St. Ambrose entrusted with the spiritual and much of the temporal care of the wide regions around the city of Milan, to cope with the task, appointed a number of captains to defend the church against the assaults of Arian heretics. In the course of time some of these captains and their descendants became known as champions of the church (capitani delli chiesi) which later on grew into the family name of "Della Chiesa." In the centuries that followed the Della Chiesa became rich and powerful with branches spread over North Italy, and allied by birth or marriage with many of the Italian nobility. One branch settled at Pegli in the neighbourhood of Genoa. Pope Benedict XV, Giacomo (James) Della Chiesa, was born at Genoa on the 21st of November, 1854. Being destined for the church he completed his classical studies in his native city. He next entered the Capranica College at Rome and during his course attended lectures in philosophy and theology in the Gregorian University. Taking his degree in Canon Law he was ordained on December 21, 1878, being then 24 years old. With further study at the Academy he perfected himself in the knowledge of Canon Law and qualified for the diplomatic service of the church. The young priest was before long attached to the congregation of Ecclesiastical Affairs Extraordinary. Here gaining the friendship of Cardinal Rampolla he spent four years with him in Spain as his Secretary, retaining the position when the Cardinal was made Secretary of State under Leo XIII in 1887. After Della Chiesa's next promotion came when Pope Leo recognised his ability as a painstaking, energetic and prudent official, appointed him to the important post of Under Secretary of the Congregation of Ecclesiastical Affairs Extraordinary. This position he had filled, until on December 22, 1907, he received the appointment of Archbishop of Bologna. Seven years afterwards he was destined to change the violet of the Archbishop for the Cardinal's red or Roman purple, as on May 25th, 1914, he was created and proclaimed a prince of the church. Less than four months later a solemn conclave for the election of a Pope was held. On the morning of September 3, 1914 the Cardinal Camerlengo gave the announcement to the world that Giacomo Della Chiesa had been chosen Bishop of Rome, Vicar of Jesus Christ, successor of St. Peter, Prince of the Apostles, Supreme Pontiff of the Universal Church, Patriarch of the West, Primate of Italy, Archbishop and Metropolitan of the Roman Provinces, and Sovereign of the Temporal Dominions of the Holy Roman Church. On Sept. 6th, after he had chosen the name of Benedict XV he was crowned as the 258th occupant of the Holy See, and immediate successor of Pious X. That the new Cardinal was amongst the candidates nobody suspected, nor was there any rumor that he had been mentioned before the conclave. Seven years previously Benedict XV had been a minor official in the office of the Secretary of State. The previous Pope Benedict XIV reigned from 1740-1758 and died at the age of 83.

Twenty Years Ago To-Day.

(Evening Telegram, Jan. 24th, 1902.)

A heavy rainfall during the early morning cleared away all snow from the streets.

Rev. Dr. Milligan passed away at his residence, LeMarchant Road, after a protracted illness.

The Prince of Wales left London for Berlin to represent King Edward at the Kaiser's birthday celebrations. The King of Italy conferred the order of St. Maurice and St. Lazarus upon Signor Marconi.

Announcement made in the House of Commons that legislation would be enacted to place the Newfoundland Naval Reserve scheme on a permanent basis.

Airman Wrenches Knee.

Capt. V. S. Bennett wrenched his knee badly while starting the Martinside aeroplane on Sunday morning. Capt. Bennett was turning over the propeller and as it caught, he was dragged away in such a manner as to cause his knee to be twisted. The accident was a painful one, and prevented him from attempting to pilot the plane during the many flights which were made during the day, but he was able to remain around, and give his assistance where required.

Rotary Luncheon.

SIR P. T. McGRATH ADDRESSES MEMBERS.

Sir P. T. McGrath addressed the members of the Rotary Club at their regular weekly luncheon to-day on "Some Outstanding Personalities in the Recent Canadian Election." The Chairman to-day was Rotarian V. P. Burke. Nineteen members were present at roll call and the guests were: Sir P. T. McGrath, K.B.E.; Messrs. J. R. Bennett, R.R. Stewart of Leicester, England; A. B. Morine, C. J. Cahill, R. T. Joy (Advocate), C. T. James (Telegram).

The repeat was an excellent one and was enlivened by the singing of the customary Rotary songs.

After the toast to the King had been honoured, the Chairman introduced the speaker of the day. Sir Patrick on arising was given an ovation, and immediately entered upon his subject, beginning with a review of Canadian political history since 1896, when Sir Wilfrid Laurier swept the Bowell-Tupper Conservative Government out of power, which they had held for a considerable period. Briefly but graphically he traced all the events down to the recent election, when the Meighen administration was outvoted, and from thence took up the subject of his theme and gave short biographies of all the political leaders during the period covered. The address was listened to with great attention and at the close the speaker was accorded a hearty vote of thanks.

The luncheon concluded with the singing of the National Anthem.

Preaches on Bolshevism.

REV. R. J. POWER QUOTES "TELEGRAM" EDITORIAL.

In his sermon at the Sunday evening service at the Kirk, Rev. R. J. Power quoted extracts from a recent editorial article in the Telegram dealing with the unemployment question. The subject of the address was "Bolshevism and its Meaning." The preacher traced the origin and spread of Bolshevism, imparting to his congregation information which is not generally known. Bolshevism originated in Germany and was brought over to America. It began in Russia with the arrival there, from New York, of Trotsky and 450 anarchists, who introduced its doctrines. On several occasions, while in Canada, Rev. Mr. Power had received pamphlets from the Canadian Government asking him to use his influence and help combat the evil doctrines of Bolshevism. Canada has spent thousands of dollars in propaganda for the purpose of combating that evil. The rev. preacher complimented the Telegram on its recent unemployment editorial and read several extracts from the article. He said that the workman certainly had a grievance and in many cases did not receive value for his work. On the other hand, others had received more than they deserved. The address was an eloquent one and was greatly appreciated by the congregation.

IMPORTANT!

Our attention has been invited to the fact that certain unscrupulous persons import and sell as Beaver Board various substitutes for Beaver Board.

BEWARE!

We therefore give notice that we shall take legal action against any person who represents such substitutes to be Beaver Board, and for information which will enable us to prosecute such unscrupulous persons we shall pay a reward of

FIFTY DOLLARS.

Beaver Board may be easily distinguished from imitations and substitutes by the Beaver Board trade mark which is printed on the back of every genuine Beaver Board.

This is the Beaver Board trade mark. Look for this brand on every board.

If the Board you buy as Beaver Board is not branded like this, you are being cheated. Write to us at once.

Remember the labor putting up a substitute for Beaver Board costs as much as if you were using genuine Beaver Board, but no substitute can give Beaver Board satisfaction. Why then should you waste your money on imitations?

Beaver Board is guaranteed to stand the Newfoundland climate. Beaver Board is trustworthy. Beaver Board is sized ready for painting. Beaver Board is worth the price you pay for it. If you want Beaver Board satisfaction ask for Beaver Board and look for the brand on the back of every board.

IN LOVING MEMORY

of my dear son, Patrick Walsh, drowned from S.S. Beverley, four years ago.
In our hearts we mourn the loss of him we loved so dear.
What would we give to clasp his hand, his gentle voice to hear.
His loving smile and welcome voice that were so dear to us.
He's resting now in heaven above in God alone we trust.

We sit and think of you, dear Pat, while tear drops dim our eyes. You could not say good-bye to us before you closed your eyes.
May heavenly winds blow softly in that wild and lonely spot.
Though the sea divides his grave from us he will never be forgot.
May the Sacred Heart of Jesus have mercy on his soul.

IN LOVING MEMORY of our dear mother, Fannie Barnes, who died Jan. 23, 1921.
Darling mother thou hast left us.
Your sweet face we'll see no more.
Till we meet thee up in heaven.
On that bright and happy shore.

No good-byes shall there be spoken.
Death no more our joys shall part.
No more thought of separation.
Shall arise within the heart.

Miss Mary McCarthy

IN "UNDER THE GASLIGHT."

There are many friends of this talented young lady who felt that in "Deacon Dubbs" real opportunity to display the histrionic ability which she undoubtedly possesses was lamentably absent. In the production of "Under the Gaslight" at the Casino next Monday, Miss McCarthy will portray the emotional character of Laura Courtland, around whose early womanhood a poignant story weaves itself. It is a part calling for the highest skill, ranging as it does from the rather boydenish simplicity of youth to the pathos and tragedy of the sterner realities of life, and one which will enable this popular B. I. S. player to fully exhibit the power and depth of her dramatic ability.

In the last presentation of "Under the Gaslight" the character now being played by Miss McCarthy was brilliantly portrayed by Miss M. McGrath, now Mrs. Martin W. Furlong.
