The Coming of the Fishermen.

The men of the Northern Bays who are now in town, and those who will be coming so soon as opportunity and weather offer, are in a position to know best just how their movement for higher prices for their catch has grown and expanded. They are not likely to be diverted from their purpose by the sneers of the newspaper which has no use for any fishermen of this Colony unless they are allied to the cause of Mr. Coaker. The fishermen themselves are the best judges of the attitude they have adopted, and the stand they have taken. They come to proffer reasonable requests. They come in a body to give strength to their undertaking. They are not seeking wealth at the expense of any other class. All they ask, all they are in search of is a fair remuneration for their fish and fish products, so that, when their voyages are put off, there will be enough returns to meet current expenditures and provide the means for laying in winter supplies. Surely nothing can be more fair, more reasonable. Their meetings North have been with this sole purpose, yet they have been characterized as gatherings at which political propaganda has been proclaimed. Apparently from the tone of a section of the city press these men have no rights. They have been severely criticised for looking for their god-given right to live, and all manner of innuendo has been given to their motive. Warships have not only been brought into the discussion, and used with varying degrees of argument, but one is already in the harbor, and has been anchored here for a considerable period. The men coming through the Narrows in their schooners can see this ship for themselves. Why is she here? What is her particular mission? Not so many months ago, a ship of the navy was rushed from Bermuda at short notice, when the local laborers were seeking the right to live under the flag which has ever stood for freedom. To-day another fighting machine is swinging at anchor, for what? Those in authority can answer the question. Not that there is, or will be, any necessity for a display of naval force. The men from the North are not coming to do violence, unless it may be to the feelings of those who do not want to see them here. They are coming for a peaceful object, and one which is perfectly legitimate. All they ask, all they seek is a fair compensation for their summer's work. Anything out of the way about that? Anything that should have caused all the fiery language used by those who pose as the real friends of the fishermen? Squeezed in every conceivable way by outrageous and unjust taxation, the men from Trinity, Bonavista and Green Bays are only seeking their reasonable rights. Whatever is the outcome of their visit here will be noted keenly by the toilers of other places, who are thoroughly in sympathy with this modern crusade. Let us then hope that something will develop from this peaceful invasion of the capital, and that no misunderstandings will mar whatever negotiations are in progress. The issue is too large for spiteful mischief makers to prevent a rapprochement of the parties most directly concerned, and the generally expressed sentiment of the citizens of St. John's is that the result of whatever conferences may be carried on should be satisfactory to all who are interested, which may be said to be the whole population of the island.

Last Night's Sacred Concert.

DELIGHTED LARGE AUDIENCE.

The sacred concert held last night at the Nickel Theatre under the auspices of the Benevolent Irish Society was largely patronized. His Grace Archbishop Roche, under whose patronage the concert took place, attended, accompanied by Rev. Monsignor McDermott, and a number of parish priests. His Grace and suite were received by a squad of the C.C.C., who, standing at the salute, lined the yardway from the entrance gate to the door of the Theatre, and were there met by Mr. W. J. Higgins, K.C., the President of the Society, who escorted them to seats while the Band played the Pope's March. The concert opened with a selection "The Gloria," by the C.C.C. Band, under the conductorship of Mr. Frank Bradshaw. Two other selections were given by the Band, the second being "The Heavens Are Telling" (from the "Creation" by Haydn). The last, which closed the programme was the "Hallelujah Chorus" from Handel's Messiah. The sacred solos which interspersed were choice selections and faithfully rendered, the accompanists being Messrs. Gordon Christian and F. J. King. The following is the programme:— Selection—"The Gloria" (From Mozart's Twelfth Mass)—C.C.C. Band. Solo—"Trusting in Thee"—Miss Krentzlin. Solo—"Abide With Me"—Mr. Karl Trapnell. Quartette—Ave Verum—Misses Ryan, Krentzlin; Messrs. Bradshaw, Sullivan. Solo—"The Better Part"—Miss M. Ryan. Selection—"The Heavens are Telling" (From the "Creation"—Haydn)—C.C.C. Band. Song—"Vox Clamantis"—Miss Marjorie Hutchings. Solo—"Hear Thou My Cry"—Mr. Ruggles. Solo—"Consider the Lilies"—Mr. Tucker. Selection—"Hallelujah Chorus" (From Handel's Messiah)—C.C.C. Band. The concert programme occupied about one hour, but it was an hour of perfect enjoyment that would well bear repetition.

New Curate Arrives.

GIVEN A CORDIAL WELCOME. The new Curate for St. Thomas's Church, Rev. E. O. Lightbourne, arrived from Canada last evening by S. S. Manoa. The Rev. gentleman who is accompanied by his sister, Miss M. Procession at Anglican Cathedral.

Last evening's service at the Anglican Cathedral was largely attended. Being the 21st Sunday after Trinity, and in the octave of the festival of All Saints, the order of evensong had specially arranged psalms and hymns. His Lordship the Bishop took the office and read the second lesson, the first lesson being read by Canon Jeeves. Second prayers were said by Rev. J. Brinton. The psalms and canticles were sung from settings by Stanford. Canon Jeeves, the Rector, preached a very timely sermon from the text "Remember the days of old." His discourse had particular reference to the progress of the church since the days when its history became inseparable from that of the British nation. After the offertory had been taken and presented, a procession of choir and clergy proceeded by the crucifer via the North aisle, returning through the Nave, was held, the Bishop then pronouncing the Benediction.

Poppy Day Arrangements Well Under Way

Splendid working Committees have been organized for Remembrance Day November 11th, and the preliminary work is well under way. The sale of poppies will be conducted under the auspices of the G.W.V.A., with the co-operation of the Ladies' Auxiliary. The two great objects of wearing a Poppy on Armistice Day should be constantly impressed upon the public. The first of these is to keep for ever fresh the memory of those comrades who form the eternal guard in the battlefields of Flanders and France, and in the deep sea wastes which grid our Empire. The second, to create a fund to alleviate distress among veterans and dependents. In this connection the mandate of a famous General can be used to advantage—"Remember the dead by helping the living."

Mrs. W. B. Fraser, 101 Gower Street has undertaken the organization of the city sale of poppies. Ladies who would be agreeable to assist, are asked to communicate with this lady immediately.

Dance for Orphans.

C.C.C. HALL TO-NIGHT. A dance arranged by Misses G. Wiseman and H. Noonan takes place in the C.C.C. Hall to-night. The C.C.C. Band will be in attendance. Some 200 couples have been invited for the occasion the proceeds of which will go towards the Church of England Orphanage Fund. A large attendance will no doubt be present to help along this worthy cause.

Laborers Leaving for Bermuda.

SECOND CONTINGENT FOR HAMILTON.

Some fifteen men are leaving by S. S. Digby, sailing to-night, enroute to Bermuda, where they will be engaged on construction work in connection with the building of the new hotel there. This is the second contingent that has left here within the last two weeks, and it is not unlikely that a similar number will be engaged for the same purpose before the end of the month. Mr. John Robinson, the well known "chef" is amongst the number leaving here to-day, and will take charge of the commissariat department.

Particulars of Drowning

SEAMAN KNOCKED OVERBOARD. Further particulars of the loss of seaman Pomeroy is contained in the following message received to-day from Magistrate O'Reilly, Placentia:—"Paul Wilson, master of boat Floesie of Merasteen, reports loss of Wm. Pomeroy whilst shaking out reefs of mainsail, when off Point Latine. Deceased leaves a wife and two children who reside at Merasteen."

Chinese Murder Trial.

WO FEN GAME PLEADS NOT GUILTY—COURT INTERPRETER APPOINTED.

The Supreme Court was thronged this morning with spectators eager to get a glimpse of the Chinese, Wo Fen Game, who was up for arraignment on a triple murder charge, and also one of wounding with intent to kill. At about 11.30 the prisoner was placed in the dock between two constables. He leaped his right arm on the dock rail, with his hand under his face. In this position he remained throughout the proceedings, apparently frightened and occasionally taking furtive glances at the crowd.

FULL BENCH PRESENT.

The full bench was present. The Chief Justice, announcing the arraignment, said that Mr. L. Edward Emerson had been assigned by the Court to defend the prisoner. Deputy Minister of Justice Summers moving for arraignment introduced Mr. Alfred Hart as interpreter. On being put in the witness box he said that he was Chief Interpreter of the Department of Colonization for Chinese at Ottawa. He was British born and could converse in the Cantonese dialect, and he had acted as court interpreter in several minor cases in British Columbia. He said he had been examining Chinese emigrants in Canada during 1920 and 21 and in 1916 to 1917 was employed at the Custom House in Canton, China. SPECIAL INTERPRETER FROM CANADA.

He informed the Court that he could not read, print or write the Canton dialect but from a conversation with the prisoner he was assured they could understand each other. The witness was thereupon sworn as official interpreter for the Court during the trial.

CHARGES READ.

The first charge that of killing Hong Loen on May 3rd last being read in English by Registrar Sir W. F. Lloyd, was translated by the interpreter. The accused did not answer, but shook his head. The interpreter replied to the Court that he pleaded not guilty. On the charges of murdering Hung Kim Hi and So Ho Ki, the prisoner answered similarly, and did the same on the last charge, that of wounding with intent to kill one Hong Wing. Deputy Minister of Justice Summers asked that trial be set for November 20th before a special jury—double panel. It was ordered accordingly.

WHO HART IS.

Mr. George Alfred Hart who has been appointed official interpreter to the Court, was sent here on the recommendation of the Department of Justice of Canada. He was born in Australia and spent 10 years in China. He has been connected with the Chinese Immigration Department in Vancouver for over two years. He is a young man, apparently about very little over 30 years. At the concluding of to-day's proceedings, Kim Lee, one of the leaders of the local Chinese colony congratulated him, saying that they could understand his interpretation all right.

IN LOVING MEMORY of my dear husband, John Street, who died Nov. 6th, 1921. Just one year has passed our hearts still sore. As time flies by we miss him more. The call was short the blow severe. To part with one we loved so dear. God called him home it was His will. But in our hearts he liveth still.

Oh, dear husband how I miss you it is more than tongue can tell. But I hope some day to meet you Where the saints and angels dwell.

He suffered much but murmured not. We watched him night and day; Until at last with breaking hearts "We saw you pass away."

He is gone but not forgotten. Never will his memory fade. Sweetest thoughts will always linger Around the grave where thou art laid. Inserted by his wife and children.

IN FOND AND LOVING MEMORY of our dear daughter, Mary Ploco, who died Nov. 6, 1919. May the Sacred Heart of Jesus have mercy on her soul. —Inserted by her parents.
