Mr. Speaker informed the lioue, that the Clerk had received from the judgest their report up n the Bull to declare the intertains of the Curst of Error and Apoeal. The report declared the proposed legislation to be highly objectionally and pointed out that the residence of some of the persons interested beyond the jurisdiction of the Act might present difficulties in the way of its effectual operation.

Mr. Sinclair moved for stakengy for the expenses incurred in connection with the "Proton Outrage" investigation.

Carried.

Mr. Soott (Grey) asked what action they intend to take in cases where the settlers on School lands are mable to pay for, them or whore such lands have been found on inspection to be inferior inquality, and not worth the price or which original purchase money where the lands have been found on inspection to be inferior inquality, and not worth the price or which the way to the extended by the evaluators as made with Lower Canada as to her share of these lands so as to enable so do what is fair better than we can now. A great deal of embarrassment now arose in the case of two townships Jirig alongside each other, one being ureduced school, and the other reduced crown lands. Ho thought that the people who had gone in ten years ago of Grey and Bruce, and settled on inferion land, should be relieved. The reductions in the Crown Lands had been on a much more liberal scale than cna-fifth the original purchase money.

Mr. Skett (Grey) asked what length time for payment, and what jerns-layers the control of the price of which the Government was not prepared to insist upon even that being done.

Mr. Rykert moved his resolution respecting Timber Licenness.

Mr. McKelklar moved that the order of the Bill to provide for taking vote by Ballot be discharged.—Carried.

Horrible Murder in Calcutta.

A horrible wholesale murder is reported in Calcutta. It appears that on Friweek (says the Bombay Gazette of the Soth ult) a native of the Dossad caste, armed with a massive chopper, sharpened on both sides, and two knives, set out of his house with the intention of murdering his wife and son-in-law, between whom, as alleged by him, an improper intimacy existed. Not finding them where he expected they would be, he attacked his daughter, who happened first to come in his way. With a stroke of the chopper he knocked her scalp clean off, so that the whole of her brain was visible. She immediately expired. In murdering her he is reported to have said that had she not been born, and had she not have been estranged from him. He next attacked a not woman of the Dossad caste and despatched her in a similar manner. Finding then his mother in the way he dealt a blaw on her lead and she tell down apparently dead. He stated to the police that he strenck her because he wished to save her the gried which would overtake her on his meeting with his deserved punishment. She is in a very precarious state, and no texpected to survive. He is in a very precarious state, and no texpected to survive. The weather being very mild there was a good turn out, especially from the country. The tea was superb, and the Butter 15 country. The tea was superb, and the provisions were rich and of the finest quality, reflecting great credit on those quality, reflecting great credit on those who prepared them. After tea the people gathered into the Presbyterian Church close by, to get the intellectual part of the programme, which was commenced by a tune from the Alma Choir, and a prayer from the Rev. Mr.-Cobb of Mount Forest, after which Mr. W. H. Drummond was called to the chair who expressed himself pleased with the large turn out, and the general success of the meeting. He appeared to the whole the meeting. pieased with the large turn out, and the general success of the meeting. He approved of tea meetings in general, as being the most innocent of all our social gatherings, and called upon the Rev. Mr. Cobb to address the meeting, which he did in a speech abounding with religious instruction. Addresses were also delivered by Revs. Messrs. Schram of Drayton, Brown and McDonald of Arthur, Langford of Durham, and Scott of Listowel. The resident minister, Mr. McNamara, read a detailed statement of the building fund, also of all monies that has passed through his hands, connected with the building of the church, since he came to Arthur. The Choir entertained the meeting with good music between the different speeches. At the close the chairman said, as there was considerable provisions left, it was profiosed to give a freetea the next day, at one o'clock, to the Sunday School scholars of all denominations. After the usual votes of thanks the meeting was dismissed with the benediction, every one being well pleased with the enterteinment. The proceeds, which are to go towards pewing the church, will amount to about $50.
