

Centre Wellington.

On Tuesday afternoon the deputation appointed at the meeting on Monday, came to Guelph and called on Mr. Guthrie, tendering him the unanimous nomination of the Reform party as their candidate at the approaching election.

We trust that the Reform party in the Centre Riding will be able at their adjourned meeting on Monday, to select a strong candidate, who will secure the united support of the party, and meet the riding on the grass of the Reform Association.

The Ontario Legislature. To-morrow commences the last session of the present Legislative Assembly of Ontario.

There has been another week of splendid weather—and winter also may be smelt, everybody is and has reason to be delighted with it.

THE VILLAGES.—Great improvements have been made during the past summer. Streets have been cleaned out, manholes filled up, about 200 rods of new sidewalk laid down, and crossings and culverts placed in almost every place requiring them.
