Would Organize Co-operative League of Buyers To Reduce the Cost of Living

Some staggering facts and figures were given at a meeting of the home economic committee of the Local Council of Women in the "Y" yesterday afternoon. The women had organized and absolutely refused to purchase goods sold at what they deemed to be too high a cost. In this way New York dealers had to reduce the price of butter from 60 cents per lb. to 52 cents per lb.

In some cases the middlemen receive 50 per cent of the profit. It was suggested that the present tariff was responsible for this state of affairs. Calgary buyers have to pay the full price of goods plus tariff and cost of fare to other cities where the goods could be disposed of. An instance was given of one member who bought strawberries at Mission Junction at the rate of $1.75 per 24 quarts. Her cost of express to Calgary was 45 cents, making in all $2.24, while in Calgary the same fruit was selling at $2 per 16 quarts. Different members reported work by shopping leagues in various cities where the women had organized and absolutely refused to purchase goods sold at what they deemed to be too high a cost. In this way New York dealers had to reduce the price of butter from 60 cents per lb. to 52 cents per lb.

ARE WE TO BLAME?

(By Constance Errol)

There is no one denying that we women are disappointed with the result of the poll in Calgary, but added to that disappointment comes the answer from various quarters that "the women have themselves to thank for the return of three conservatives." Certain it is that if we have done so we are the sorriest persons alive, for apart from their opinions on suffrage, no three finer politicians or more upright men could have been found to represent Calgary. The Liberal candidates themselves, however, deny that the women are hurtful to the Liberal cause but on the contrary they state that the women are the best work the real fault lying in the fact that so few voters appeared at the polls.

In any case we women thank Messrs. Ross, Clifford Jones and McDougall for the position they took and are assured that had any one of them been returned equal rights would have been a reality in Alberta.

Long. Though the election is past, the suffrage movement is but beginning and the Suffrage Society here is now sufficiently strong to do good work toward educating future voters in the knowledge that equal rights is not for one party, nor for one sex, but will help both parties toward cleaner politics, and both sexes toward a higher mode of living.

Egypt's Crop of Cotton

Cairo, Egypt, April 18.—It is estimated that 90 percent of the 1912-1913 cotton crop has now reached Alexandria, and it is possible to determine the quantity and value of the crop with a fair degree of accuracy. By the end of February the average proportion of the crop which has arrived at Alexandria has during the past 17 years, been 85 percent. In one year only, 1910, when the crop was very bad, has the percentage exceeded 90. Thus, the field for mistakes in estimating is very limited, and the figures put forward by the agricultural and statistical departments of the government may be accepted as practically correct. They are:

Cotton, 775,000,000 pounds, value $2,300,000 sterling; cotton seed, 1,480,000,000 pounds, value $4,700,000 sterling; total value of crop, $7,000,000.

THE MAN MAKES THE HOME

To the Wife the Husband's Haven is a Sort of Battleground

(From the London Mail)

I am inclined to think that men are fonder of homes than women. It is the wives who go so keen on "going out."

Of course there is the obvious reason; namely, that the masculine mind has never realized the never ending worry of housekeeping; to his home is the place where he can do more or less as he likes, a haven of refuge where he can smoke and wear old and easy slippers.

To his wife home is more or less of a battlefield where a never ending war is waged against lazy servants, independent shopkeepers, and last but not least, against that malignant demon known as "war and taxes."

The man merely makes the home for the housewife and she belongs to the house and the children to one man alone. In Europe she has much too much freedom to remain a woman at all. If only half of her have read in books and newspapers about womanhood in the west is true—well, I pity the western men!

The former sultan appears to have been favorable to some reforms being introduced in Turkey, but these reforms, he says, must not be rushed on us. We want to go slowly but steadily, while leisure and afterthought are divine. He does not approve of your young Turks going abroad for any length of time, he fears nothing as much as the poison of European civilization. Beware of ideas that come from the west! They are most dangerous for our country. When I see how happy our Moslems are, I feel that our duty is to keep the power of the coming of the European soul and our characters. Islam is not unfavourable to progress, but any progress must come from within, not from without.

Dealing with the present conditions of Islam, Abdul Hamid states: The Koran preaches virtue more effectively than any other religious work. There is Islam in time, in victory, in the whole world. Our trouble does not constitute a religious unity. We have too many Christians in our land. Only evil can be expected from the fact that more than one religion reigns in one country. Look what happens in Germany!

The salvation of Turkey can only be in deep religious belief. There is our future. England, France, Russia are in my hands. One word from my lips will suffice to open a holy war (Tashbad). Then Christians nations will see their doom. The time has not come yet, but it is bound to come when millions of brave Moslems will shake off the yoke of the Ghouls—35,000,000 living in British colonies, 30,000,000 in Dutch colonies, etc. Two hundred and fifty millions pray every day for Allah and the Khalifa. Can one really think that the Moslems is a weak instrument in the concert of nations?

This rather belittling statement is immediately followed by some thoughts about tolerance in Turkey, which, according to the ex-sultan's opinion, is far greater there than anywhere else. He bitterly criticizes the young offenders, who censure everything that is done in Turkey. These unfair pessimists are our worst enemies, he says. Thanks to my secret police, I know exactly where they are to be found. Thanks to Allah, our good people keep far from these eternal sowers of discontent. A real Moslem is always an optimist. The ex-sultan expresses his opinion on slavery as follows:

"I have just received a petition from the anti-slavery congress asking me to suppress slavery in Turkey. I am surprised to see how little Europe knows about our customs and habits. How can the patriarchal relationship existing here between masters and servants be called slavery?"

The Koran commands us to treat our servants well and our laws adequately protect the latter against any abuse of power in the hands of their masters. There is no slavery in my empire. A deharjah (maid servant) in Turkey is happier than a maid in Europe. Why curse the slave merchants? They only secure servants for a certain time.

STUDY PRE-VOCATIONAL EDUCATION AT COAST

Dr. Scott, on Behalf of Calgary School Board, Goes to Pacific Cities

For the purpose of studying pre-vocational education in the schools of Portland, Tacoma, Seattle, Vancouver and Victoria, Dr. A. M. Scott left yesterday for the Pacific coast. The object of pre-vocational education is to launch students into a study of topics likely to have a bearing upon their future callings or occupations. Special subjects are necessarily embraced in such instruction, and courses for various purposes are now being featured in many of the larger cities of the United States and Canada.

Dr. Scott will also lecture into the subject of high school and technical school buildings upon his present trip. The present journey is being made at the request of the local school board. Dr. Scott will be absent for a couple of weeks.

Col. Pryce Jones, British M.P., Is in City and Confirms Report of Resignation, Declaring His Intention of Being Director of General Board

Mr. A. W. Pryce Jones, head of the firm bearing that name in Calgary, has resigned his position, and is succeeded by Mr. A. Curtis, who will henceforth act as general manager of the local sport, after the announcement comes with the authority of Mr. A. W. Pryce Jones, and also with that of his brother, Col. Pryce Jones, who is at present in the city on a visit from England.

The Calgary branch of the Pryce Jones (Canada), Limited, is the pioneer commercial establishment of any magnitude in the vicinity of First street west and south of the C. P. R. tracks. A three-story building was erected over two years ago, and the growth of the business has been such that a further addition is now contemplated. The company's head office is in England, where the concern is one of Britain's greatest institutions. Col. Pryce Jones, M. P., during his stay in Calgary, announces that he will assume the position of advisory managing director to the board.

Mr. A. W. Pryce Jones makes no announcement for the present concerning his future intentions. Should he decide to leave Calgary his departure will have been longly regretted. Mr. Pryce Jones has been a prominent factor in the affairs of the Welsh society, a patron of the Welsh choir, and has been associated with industrial and public affairs tending to the advancement of Calgary.

Day for Prayer for China

Peking, April 18.—An official appeal was made today by the Chinese government to all the Christian churches in China to set aside April 27 as a day for prayer that China may be guided to a wise solution of the critical problems besetting her. This act of the government is regarded here as striking evidence of the extraordinary changes which have taken place in the nation since the revolution.
