IS THIS THE ONE?

Arrest of a Tramp in Aurora, Indiana.

Who Answers the Description of Toohy's Murderer.

Has Discarded the Peg-Leg for a New Crutch—Another Suspect Hiding in the Woods of Dawn Township.

A feeling of great anxiety exists among the police here, as the effect of a telegram received this morning from Marshal Kappel, which reads:

"Aurora, Ind., July 8.—Have the tramp wanted for the murder of Officer Toohy, for a new crutch. Answers description fully. Wire answer."

This bears out the supposition of the London detectives that the fugitive, after successfully evading the police at Stratford, made his way to the border and crossed the river. There is, however, uncertainty in the matter, and officers will be dispatched at once to identify the man. It is two weeks tonight since Toohy met his death, and Aurora is a flourishing town 24 miles from Cincinnati, on the Ohio and Mississippi Railroad.

ANOTHER ARREST.

A one-legged tramp was arrested at Mount Forest yesterday, but he was released on instructions from Chief Williams that he was not the man wanted. This tramp was minus the right leg and failed to answer the description in other respects.

PEG-LEG NEAR DAWN.

A man answering the description of the peg-leg, suspected of the murder of Policeman Toohy, of London, is reported to be lurking in the dense woods of Dawn, on con. 12 and 13, the town line between Dawn and Ennisville, about five miles from Florence village. He has been there for two days past, and was seen on Thursday crossing the road and entering the woods.

FAGGED OUT—None but those who have become fagged out know what a depressed, miserable feeling it is. All strength has gone, and despondency has taken hold of the sufferers. They feel as though there was nothing to live for. There, however, is a cure—one box of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will strengthen in restoring health and vigor. A writer in the Arena declares that 500,000 men now do the work, with the aid of machinery, which needed 16,000 persons to do a few years ago.

THE CASE OF DREYFUS.
Paris, July 8.—In the chamber of deputies, replying to an interpolation of Comte de Chastellane on the subject of Alfred Dreyfus, the prisoner of Devil's Island, the minister for war, M. Cavignac, made an exhaustive statement, advancing the strongest evidence of the guilt of Dreyfus, and the chamber, by a vote of 512 to 2, approved the minister's statement and ordered it to be printed and placarded throughout France.

HAMID IS BECOMING "SMALL."
London, July 8.—Dispatches from Constantinople show that the power of the Sultan of Turkey is waning rapidly, even in his own house. For some time past there has been a marked tendency among the palace officials at Kildiz to rebel against the Sultan's authority, even by the Sultan's Mohammedans, otherwise than as a cipher.

NEW ZEALAND TO DON WAR PAINT.

London, July 8.—Dispatches from New Zealand show that the war scare is having its effect upon that colony. The Government, however, announced recently that a defense committee had been appointed to arrange upon a scheme of defense. The disturbed condition of international relations throughout the world caused the government to deem it expedient to increase the number of volunteer corps and to supply them with modern type, munitions of war and armaments. The response to the call for volunteers has been beyond all praise.

Brussels, July 8.—The papers announce that a Belgian expedition of 100 men, under Lieut. Doublous, has been surprised by Congolese rebels, who killed 31 members of the expedition and captured a quantity of rifles and cartridges. Lieut. Doublous was afterwards deserted by his soldiers and killed.

They Want to Surrender!

Big Guns Sent to Shafter—Valuable Spanish Transport Captured—The Crisis in Madrid Grows More and More Acute—Cervera's Mournful Message.

WANT TO GIVE UP.

El Caney, July 7, per Associated Press despatch boat Wanda, via Port Antonio and Kingston, July 7.—The Spanish volunteers in Santiago are loud in their demand that the city should be surrendered—so persistent, in fact, that many of them have been imprisoned.

It has been learned from reliable sources that Admiral Cervera was practically goaded into making his desperate effort to escape from the harbor. Both he and his sailors were assailed as cowards for not fighting the Yankees. Some marines were assaulted in the streets. The night after the fleet was destroyed the cruiser Reina Mercedes was sunk across the entrance to the harbor—or an attempt was made to sink her there—to prevent the American warships going in.

Mr. Ramedon, the British consul, when asked by the Associated Press correspondent whether the Spanish general would continue to resist replied: "Of course, he will. Toral will fight till he dies." Different stories, however, are told as to the temper of the Spanish soldiers. One counsel who declined to allow his name or nationality to be given, said that so strong was the desire to yield among the rank and file that there was open talk of assassinating Gen. Toral.

BLANCO'S BOSS.
General Blanco telegraphed General Toral, the Spaniards die, but never surrender, paraphrasing the historic cry of Napoleon's imperial guard. This statement is confirmed by the French cable operators, who have left Santiago. They told the writer of this despatch that the cable was still working, and that they continued to receive the cable to Havana before leaving there. This still gives General Blanco communication with Madrid, but cuts out Santiago.

THE LAST STAND AT EL CANEY.
An examination of the forts, sandworks and trenches about El Caney amazes our officers. They cannot conceive how it was ever possible to carry the town by an infantry assault. The last stand was made in an old Roman Catholic Church, which had been converted into a blockhouse, with loopholes in the walls. A dozen soldiers were perched in the old belfry. This church is now used as a hospital and prison for Spanish captives. The walls are shattered with the blood of its defenders. One of the Spaniards is shattered by a shell which exploded from Captain Capron's battery. The wounded prisoners are being cared for by American surgeons.

A PITIFUL SIGHT.
Fifteen thousand refugees filled the roads leading from Santiago to El Caney, Bonito, San Vicente and El Louis, adjacent places. The time between the issuance of the proclamation and the period set for leaving gave small opportunity for transporting household effects or any of the comforts of life.

Tottering old men and women were supplanted; children, and mothers, with babes at their breasts, struggled on towards El Caney, San Luis and other towns. Most of them came here last night and over 5,000 of them slept in the village, which under ordinary circumstances hardly accommodates 300 people. They were crowded together in the houses, on the verandahs and in the streets. At daylight, those who had been overtaken by darkness on the wayside began to pour in, and at this hour they are still arriving. Already more than 15,000 are here. They were not allowed to bring food with them, and those who have money are as destitute as those without it, and the rich and the poor, white and black, are huddled together.

WE HAVE LOST ALL.
Washington, July 8.—The war department has received the report of Admiral Cervera to Gen. Blanco on the disastrous naval fight to the Spanish cause off Santiago. It is as follows:

"To the General-in-Chief, Havana: In compliance with your orders, I went out yesterday from Santiago de Cuba with all the squadron and after an unequal combat against the American fleet, I accordingly informed the Americans and went ashore and gave myself up. The torpedo chasers founded. I do not know how many people were lost, but it will surely reach 600 dead and many wounded. Although not in such great numbers, the living are prisoners of the Americans.

The conduct of the crew rose to a height that won the most enthusiastic plaudits of the enemy. The commander of Spaniards against Admiral Cervera. His crew are very grateful for the noble generosity with which they are treated. Among the dead is Villamil, and I believe, Lazaga (spelling uncertain) and among the wounded Captains Concas and Eulate. We have lost all, and are necessarily depressed."

(Signed) CERVERA.

DONS INDIGNANT.
New York, July 8.—A despatch to the World from Madrid, forwarded privately across the Spanish frontier, says: Indignation is increasing among all classes of Spaniards against Admiral Cervera. It is openly charged that the ships were not well fought, the hauling down of the flag without attempting to blow up the vessels. The public and press clamor for a rigid investigation and condign punishment.

THE QUEEN CRIED.
The queen cried bitterly when she first heard the news, according to court gossip, and manifested great displeasure when she heard all the details of the sea fight off Santiago.

The queen has again quietly consulted Marshal Campos, Lopez Dominguez and Primo de Rivera, Gen. Calleja, the captain-general of Madrid, and Senor Silvestre, the chief of the Conservatives. All agree with Premier Sagasta that the war must be continued for some time longer, under the conduct of Senor Sagasta, and with his present colleagues, if this is possible, in order to allow the popular and military discontent.

WORSE NEWS EXPECTED.
Senor Sagasta, like all the persons consulted, said he felt most uneasy about what would happen when the news of the fall of Manila and Santiago comes. Steps have been taken already to break the expected news slowly, especially in the provinces, where the irritation and discontent are more intense even than in Madrid.

Those counselors agree also that the government ought not to hesitate about displaying the utmost severity in repressing disturbances, because the discipline and loyalty of the army will be brought out by the first collision with the republicans and the Carlists. The Carlists are most dreaded in the north and east of the kingdom; the republicans in Barcelona and Madrid and Bilbao.

The queen is anxious, but seeks to form a military government if Sagasta fails to meet the emergency.

THE GHOST SQUADRON.
Suez, July 8.—Admiral Camara's squadron is anchored beyond the three-mile limit, where it awaits the Pelayo. Admiral Camara yesterday visited the governor and salutes were exchanged.

At Manila.
New York, July 8.—A despatch to the World from Manila from Hong K.-g. says: The Spanish transport Manila has been captured. She is fitted with two 4.7-inch quick-firing guns, and will be valuable to Admiral Dewey for river work. Lieut.-Commander Anger, from the Raleigh, has been put in command of her.

The story of an explosion on the cruiser Baltimore was pure fabrication. The Spanish transport Manila has been captured. She is fitted with two 4.7-inch quick-firing guns, and will be valuable to Admiral Dewey for river work. Lieut.-Commander Anger, from the Raleigh, has been put in command of her.

There are persistent rumors that it is the desire of Governor-General Augustus to surrender Manila to the Americans, but the command of the Spanish troops is practically held by the senior colonel of artillery, who opposes surrender.

The rebels have captured the waterworks beyond Santa Mesa, which supply Manila, and the Spanish fear that the water will be cut off.

The rebels have also captured the strongly fortified positions of San Juan and Del Monte, where the Spaniards expected to make their last stand if Manila capitulated.

The city is still surrounded by insurgents.

There was fierce fighting Saturday before Malate, a suburb. The Spaniards had modern guns to command the rebel trenches, and maintained a steady fire throughout the afternoon, but found it impossible to drive the natives out. Forty rebels were killed. The Spaniards finally were driven back.

The food supply of Manila is growing shorter.

The feeling of the Spaniards against the British is bitter. A recent issue of the Manila paper contained an attack on Colonial Secretary Chamberlain for his speech in favor of the Americans.

MORE MEN FOR DEWEY.
Honolulu, June 29, via San Francisco, July 8.—The second fleet of transports arrived here June 23, and sailed for Manila on the 25th. The trip was successful and all on board were well.

Washington, July 8.—The navy department has received the following cablegram from Admiral Dewey: Cavite, July 4, via Hong Kong, July 6.—United States troops have landed and have been comfortably housed at Cavite, Luzon Islands. Insurgents still active. Aguinaldo proclaims himself

BIG GUNS FOR SHAFTER.
Washington, July 8.—With a view of giving Gen. Shafter the benefit of more heavy artillery, orders have been issued for the immediate departure of four heavy batteries to Tampa for transportation to Santiago at once.

The White House war conference decided not to storm Santiago immediately, believing its downfall can be accomplished soon without the heavy loss of men or ships that would result from storming the city.

TALK OF INTERVENTION.
London, July 8.—Dispatches from the continental capitals still talk of European intervention in the Hispano-American war. France is being represented as taking the initiative, and Germany and the other powers as declining to interfere.

By way of Berlin comes an interview with Senor Moret, former Spanish minister of the colonies, advocating that Spain should sue for peace, "because it is ridiculous ever to suppose that she could tire out the United States," and because Spain "can only expect fresh defeats, placing her in a worse position than ever." Senor Moret said it was imperative that the United States should issue victorious out of its first war with a foreign power, because its social problems and surplus wealth compelled it to pursue a policy of expansion.

Washington, July 8.—Unofficial advice to the administration from sources hitherto accurate say Spain will sue for peace this week. At the same time, no such suggestion from Spain, direct or indirect, has been received here. The government has been often if approached in a proper spirit.
