More Popular Than Ever.

The number of applications for the different subjects taught at the Conservatory of Music, even before the reopening, is greatly in advance of any previous year, and the institution bids fair to have twice as many students as last year. This is not to be wondered at when the staff of teachers engaged at the Conservatory is taken into consideration. Mr. Barron (the principal) spares nothing to have the "Con." on an equal footing with other conservatories, colleges, etc. The staff has been increased to twelve teachers, as follows: Mr.
W. C. Barron (concert pianist) late of Germany, who studied with the great German pianist and critic, Herr Martin Krause, Prof. De Jassosohn, and others.
Miss Jessica Frances Ter-Williger, teacher of elocution, physical culture, etc. (late of the Emerson College of Oratory, Boston), known in the large cities as a superior elocutionist. Miss Belle Brown, teacher of singing (formerly pupil of the best singing teachers, such as Elliott Haslam, of New York), who has been very successful, as shown by her students at the closing exercises last June. Miss Barron and Miss Proudfoot, who are so well and favorably known as superior teachers.
Mr. A. L. Lawrasen and the Misses Steele and Paterson, accomplished pianists and successful instructors.
Mrs. F. J. Moore, teacher of singing (daughter of the great composer, J. L.
Hutton) and herself a composer of celebrated works, such as "Aberdeen Waltzes." Mr. R. Pococke (late of Germany) teacher of many pupils of fame on the violin. Miss Katherine Moore (late of the Grand Conservatory of New York, and teacher at Helmuth Ladies' College) will teach voice culture at the Conservatory this year. Mr.
Barron considers himself very fortunate in having secured Miss Moore. Miss Matthews teaches guitar.

In another column we insert the advertisement of "Manley's Celery Nerve Compound with Beef, Iron and Wine." The numerous testimonials from people who have been benefited by this valuable medicine, and also from the medical fraternity, fully testify to its wonderful efficiency and power of curing the many weaknesses to which poor, frail humanity is heir.

which exceeded the best previous day by amounted to about $100,000.

the blaze. The fences escaped damage.

Calas Sanders, an old colored man, died on Thursday at 123 Maitland street.
For years past the city has supported him.
The old man did not know his age, but it was thought he was nearly 100 years old. He was born a slave, but escaped to this country very early, and had made his home in London for a number of years. He was separated from his wife, and the latter earns her own living with the aid of a push cart.

winning prizes in the 500 and 600 yards extra series, besides prizes in the Mc-Dougall, Dominion of Canada, Kirkpatrick

Goodwin has also won several prizes, and

On Thursday evening the residence of Mr. James McDonald, Queen street, Ingersoll, was the scene of a brilliant and delightful occasion being the marriage of his eldest daughter, Miss Flora McDonald.
The fortunate young man was Mr. L. J.
Grimeshaw, of London. The bride was handsomely attired and looked real pretty as she advanced on the arm of her father into the nicely decorated parlor. Mr.
Daniel McDonald and Miss Emily Mc-Donald, brother and sister of the bride, supported the happy couple. Rev. J. H.
Huzelwood performed the nuptials. Amid showers of rice the young people left for the east last evening by the accommodation at 9 o'clock amid the congratulations of a large company of warm friends at the G. T. R. station.—(Woodstock Sentinel-Review).

Wolf-Walker.

A quiet but elegant wedding was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. H.
Walker, of Clarence street, Wednesday evening, Aug. 29, when their daughter Carrie was united in marriage to Mr. Aaron Wolf, by the Rev. Mr. Gundy. The bride wore a beautiful imported gown of cream corded silk, en train, with guipure lace trimmings. She carried a beautiful bouquet of white roses, ferns and smilax. Her bridesmaid, Miss Helen Savage, of Detroit, wore light blue crepe and silk, with ribbon trimmings, and carried yellow roses. The groom was assisted by Mr. Will Clarke.
The house was tastefully decorated with palms and white asters. The ceremony was performed under a canopy of evergreens and white asters, banked with palms. The presents were beautiful and costly. Mr. and Mrs. Wolf will be at home to their friends after Sept. 15, at 81 Elmwood avenue, South London.
Bengough on Monday.

The Boston Herald thus speaks of J. W.
Bengough, the celebrated editor of Grip, who is to appear at the Grand Opera House on Monday night next: "To be a humorous lecturer, an opera singer, a comic artist and a popular reciter is a considerable task for any man to impose upon himself. That was, however, what Mr. J.
W. Bengough, editor of Toronto Grip, endorsed last night in the Star course entertainment, and he did it very well." The Boston Globe comments: "He was a host in himself and kept his hearers in a continual roar." The Boston Traveller in its note said, "He sketched, he recited, he Repetition of Job's Great Affliction.

Mr. George Henry Drew, of this city, has been in very poor health for some time. His system was completely run down, and his blood so impoverished that "boils came out all over his body"—in short it seemed but a repetition of Job's great affliction, for no sooner did they disappear in one part of the body than they returned elsewhere with more severity, and this condition of affairs seemed to increase, although Mr. Drew had tried so end of curatives. On the 5th day of August he got one bottle of the Royal Crown Remedy and a box of Royal Crown Pills at Berk-well's drug store, of which he has taken half, and last evening he called at the above store to return thanks, and in the presence of eight witnesses stated that it did him more than $1,000 worth of good, as he had not felt as well for years, and the benefit derived from it could not be overrated, and he ought to be made known to other sufferers. It establishes throughout the entire system functional harmony, and supplies the blood vessels with a pure and healthy current of new life. The skin, after a few days' use of the Crown Remedy, becomes clear and beautiful—pimples, blackheads, black spots and skin eruptions are removed, sores and ulcers soon cured. Persons suffering from Scrofula, Eruptive Diseases, the Itchy Mouth, Leucorrhoea, Trichiaria and Glands, that have accumulated and spread, either from unclean diseases or mercury, or from the use of corrosive malmamay rely on a cure if the Royal Crown Remedy is continued a sufficient time to make its impression on the system.

sang in a way to delight an audience," and in an editorial adds: "Fortunately for cents and 25 cents extra.

A Sea Serpent at Port Stanley?

A sea serpent is reported to have been seen at Port Stanley yesterday morning.
Several went out in a boat, it is said, but could not get a very good view of it as it was leaving the water into the foam. They say it was about 40 or 50 feet long of a mottled green or black color. Such a phenomenon was said to have been seen there about three years ago, but like all sea serpents nobody could get near enough to describe it properly.—(St. Thomas Times). This must be the monster seen at the mouth of the Thames by Chatham sailors.

Hoyt's "A Trip to Chinatown."

The Grand Opera House will present as its opening attraction on Friday, Sept. 7, the popular farce comedy, which has achieved the credit to itself of having surpassed all previous runs of any play of any character known to the stage of a metropolitan theater. For 656 consecutive performances, "A Trip to Chinatown," crowded Hoyt's Madison Square Theater in the city of New York. Author Hoyt brings to the Grand for this engagement the original New York cast in its entirety, including Harry Connor, formerly a member of the Holman Opera Company, as "Wendell Strong," Geraldine McCann, Nellie Parker, Cora Tinnie, Sadie Kirby, Margaret McDonald, George Bean, jun., Julius Whitmark, George Sinclair, and Harry Gifford. Mr. Hoyt also brings to this city Bessie Clayton, a young and beautiful girl, whose dancing can be described as startlingly sensational, and whose wonderful success has brought a swarm of imitators. Although Miss Clayton has never appeared in London her fame has spread to every part of the land.
The management, in order to make this production perfect, will bring a carload of scenery from the New York house, making the production identical, even to the smallest detail, with that given at the Madison Square Theater. Among the new musical numbers that will be heard may be mentioned "The Pretty Widow," "Coons Are All a-Dreamin'," "How D'ye do Cholly Boy," "Rulien and Cynthia," "Harold" and many other selections original with the play, including, of course, the ever welcome "On the Waterway," written up to date. Many will remember the success this production had last season. The Grand was packed.
