* THE WAR NEWS.

It is reported in today's dispatches that Generals Kuroki and Oku have joined forces just south of Liao Yang, which means that the greatest and possibly most decisive battle of the war is about to take place, if it be not in progress already. For several days back fighting has been reported at various points on the Liao Tung Peninsula. In a speech to his men Kuropatkin intimates that he will make a supreme efforts to hurl back the victorious Japanese. The fate of Stakelberg's column, routed by Japs, is still in doubt. Chee Foo reports a combined land and sea attack on Port Arthur yesterday. Admiral Skrydloff wires the Czar of a successful raid by his torpedo flotilla along the northern coasts of Japan. Marshal Ayama has been appointed to the supreme command of the Mikado's army in Manchuria.
