BEWARE THE CHAIN LETTER

Once More Being Widely Circulated Throughout This City.

Chain letters are once more being widely distributed throughout the city. The one being used at present is as follows:

Dear Friend.—Please copy this prayer and send it to your friends and see what will happen.

Prayer.—O Lord Jesus, we implore Thee to love and have mercy on all mankind. Keep us from evil by Thy precious blood, and take us to live with Thee eternally.

It is said that those who will not copy this prayer will meet with some misfortune. It is also said that those who will write it nine times from the day received and send it to nine of their friends will on the ninth day experience some great joy. It is said at Jerusalem at the holy feast that those who write this prayer will be delivered from all calamities. Do not break the chain. Make a wish while writing. This was sent to me. I am choosing you as one, hoping this will bring you the promised reward. Write one each day and send it to a friend. I remain, YOUR FRIEND.

Windsor is Pleased, Too.

Windsor Record: In order to improve the mail service to the east the postoffice authorities have arranged to have a mail bag of ordinary matter for London, put on the International Limited at nights, taken across the river and transferred to the midnight train for London and the east via the early morning delivery train. It is stated that all letters posted here for London and east before 10 o'clock p.m. will reach London early the following morning, whereas they had to be posted before 7 p.m. This change will prove a decided advantage to Windsor business men.

Death of Miss Macbeth.

The death occurred in Victoria Hospital, Saturday, of Miss Catherine Macbeth, of Walkerton, daughter of the late Donald Macbeth. Miss Macbeth was 65 years old, and had lived with her sister, Mrs. White, at Walkerton, for many years. She was stricken with pneumonia and her death resulted. She was a native of this city, is a nephew of deceased. She is survived by one brother, in Pittsburg. The funeral will be held this afternoon at the Michigan Central station, interment being made at Tyngdon. The funeral services were conducted by Elliott, of Stephen's Church, Tyngdon.

Presentation at Muncie.

A very pleasant time was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Forsythe, on Tuesday evening, when the Presbyterian choir of the Muncie Road Church, assembled there for the regular weekly practice. A complete surprise was sprung on Mr. Wm. Riley, the bass soloist, when Messrs. John Stuart and Peter McGregor, on behalf of the congregation, presented him with a beautiful quartered oak Morris chair, as a slight token of their appreciation of his valiant and efficient services for the past number of years. Mr. Riley made a very appropriate reply to Mr. Stuart's well-chosen address. Mrs. Riley was accompanied with a handsome silk handkerchief and a beautiful cut glass bottle of perfume, in an elegant case. After the presentation a very dainty lunch was served, which was heartily enjoyed by all.

REV. MR. INKSTER TO MEDICAL STUDENTS

Special Sermon Preached Last Night in First Presbyterian Church.

A special sermon was preached to medical students last evening by Rev. J. Gibson Inkster, B.A. in the First Presbyterian Church. There were over 100 students present, and many of the professors, including Dr. Waugh, Dr. MacGregor, Dr. Eccles, dean of the faculty, and others were present also.

Mr. Inkster took as his subject, "The Good Samaritan," and drew many valuable lessons from this parable. He paid a high compliment to the profession, saying that he knew of no class of men who did so much good as the medical men. He warned them of the dangers of their calling, and exhorted them to be good men.

After the sermon a reception was held for the students, a large number of them remaining. Miss Forrester sang a solo, and Mr. Inkster gave a short address.

Miss E. Upthegrove rendered an excellent solo during the service.

THE PRINCESS OF WALES' PIANO

There is now on exhibition in the window of the Nordheimer Company, 188 Dundas street, a duplicate of the Steinway piano recently purchased by Her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales, for Marlborough House. Steinway pianos are to be found in the palaces of nearly every European monarch and Steinway & Sons have been appointed by special royal warrants piano makers to seventeen reigning emperors, kings and queens. No other piano has been so exceptionally honored.

The Nordheimer Company will be pleased to show copies of these original warrants to anyone caring to inspect them.

ENGLISH PAPERS

AT LIBERAL CLUB

The Officers Are Making Every Endeavor to Provide Good Reading for Liberals.

The Young Liberal Club officers are furnishing the reading-rooms with an excellent list of magazines. Many of these are British, and an effort is being made to create a deeper interest in English publications. They will no doubt be of great service to the many Englishmen and other Britishers who reside in the city. Since the magazines have been added there have been a very large number of Englishmen and Scotchmen attending the clubrooms.

Among the list are the following: Canadian Magazine, Life, Review of Reviews, Saturday Evening Post, Saturday Night, Scientific American, Outlook, Munsey, McClure's, Everybody's, Harper's Bazaar, Strand, Lloyd's Weekly, London Daily News and others.

The rooms are open every evening, and visitors have access to these magazines at all times.
All are invited to use them.

RECORD-BREAKING SALES IN CHATHAM

Bargain-Hunters Out in Force

—Sleight Party Pitched Out—New Mill.

(Special to The Advertiser.)

Chatham, Feb. 21.—Rumor has it that a new flour mill is shortly to be started in Dresden. Should rumor prove correct, the farmers will welcome the usual good results (from their point of view) that competition brings about.

It is a doubtful whether Chatham ever witnessed a scene such as took place at Ball's fire sale yesterday. From 8 o'clock in the morning till 10 o'clock at night, the temporary premises in the Scane Block, were simply besieged by bargain-hunters. The doors were closed periodically to permit of the people being properly waited upon.

A sleighload of young people on their way to Darrell the other evening, somehow managed to get upset, and though no one was hurt, it is understood that great damage was done among sideboards, hatpins and other odds and ends, with which the ditch was liberally bestrewn. The Advertiser's correspondent has been unable to obtain any definite information as to the name of the young man who was driving—or whether it was he, or the young lady next him, who held the lines. At any rate it appears that the lines got mixed—hence the upset.

R. Kilip is expected to return to business tomorrow, after his long and trying illness.

Rev. George Johnson, from Montreal, preached in Christ Church this morning. His subject was "Missionary Work."

Miss Anna Warren Smith, leader of Park Street Church, rendered a fine solo at the morning service.

The young ladies of Christ Church will give an "at home" in the school room tomorrow evening.

The Radley and McLean juvenile entertainers gave a successful performance in the opera house yesterday, entitled, "A Country Kid."

The coroner's inquest has been unable to obtain any definite information as to the name of the young man who was driving—or whether it was he, or the young lady next him, who held the lines. At any rate it appears that the lines got mixed—hence the upset.
