New York, July 19.-Under the new dispensation of Mayor Gaynor there now remain in a city of nearly four Harry. millions just six places where a wayfarer abroad after 1 o'clock in the morning may walk in through the front door and order a drink within the law.

The mayor's scrutiny of the all-night license list resulted in a second cut today, by which the 13 remaining from the original 40 odd when the mayor took the subject first under advisement were still further abridged.

Those penalized include many names blazoned bright across the "white way" and known from coast to coast. They do something of a dinner business, a bit more of after-theatre supper business, but the bulk of their at Port Stanley. trade comes in after the hotel restaurants have closed, from 2 o'clock in the morning on till daylight; and there is much speculation how many of them can live with the larger share of their profits cut out. The mayor's policy is to license only those restaurants patronized by night workers, whose demand for refreshments is ligitimate. TO BETTER THE NEGRO. Kingston, Jamaica, July 20.—General a two-weeks' visit in Cleveland, O. Bonito Sylvain, a native of Haiti, who was an aide de camp to King Meneli-The furniture dealers of the east kof of Abyssinia, has arrived here on
