COUNSEL CLASH

Sharp Exchange of Shot Takes Place At Grand Bend Trial.

RESERVES DECISION

Special to The Advertiser by a Staff Reporter.

Grand Bend, Aug. 13 .- Sharp clashes between Crown Attorney Seager, K. C. of Goderich, and Dudley Holmes, counsel for the defence, marked the trial of Bert, Holt at Grand Bend on Monday. The charge was selling liquor on August 1, and the case dragged on all day before Magistrate Charles A. Reid of God-

Walter Jackson and Murray Wilson of Parkhill had visited Grand Bend arrival and departure they absorbed enough liquor to put them in the trouble class. Constable Oliver on the night of August 1. Between Grand Bend arrested Jackson for driving a car while under the influence of liquor and a jail term fol-

A. Whiteside of the provincial police, and W. T./ Pellow, license inspector for Huron, secured evidence from Jackson as to the source of the liquor and the charge against Holt followed.

A Wordy Duel.

Whole hours of summer-time were used up by the counsel for the de-fence in trying to trip Jackson and It was during one of the long-winded spells of questioning which the crown attorney character ized as "wasting time with mos obvious and absurd questions," that he lawyer for the defence was referred to as an impertinent and in pudent pup, and as not realizing the serious dignity of his calling. Mr. Seager accused him of putting wrong questions, of intimidation, and all questions, of intimidation, and an manner of things, winding up with the statement, "You impertinent young pup, I'll show you up; you refuse to see the impropriety of your conduct. I shall at once take this matter up with the Attorney-Gen-eral of the province. Mr. Holmes, not to be outdone by this outburst, proceeded with questions which dealt with inches, seconds, minutes, distances, names different types of corkscrews, wheth er it was three feet to the veranda or one yard, and whether it would take ive minutes to fill the jib of a car with enough rainwater to wheel to the Bend, pick up a jag and retur Witnesses' Story.

The witnesses, Jackson and Wilson oth of Parkhill, swore they drove their car up to the home of Ber Holt on the evening of August 1 allege that after parting with $4 they became joint owners of bottle of ointment which put Jack-son out of business. Jackson told the ourt that he remembered nothing Oliver broke the news to him in the morning. After securing the crock they drove around one concession and parked n court to prove that during the me connected with the charge no he had left the veranda. Work and all business activity at the Bend came to a standstill during the trial, and the townspeople and campers attended the trial en masse.

THE VALUE OF CHARCOAL

Few People Know How Useful It is in Preserving Health and Beauty. Nearly everybody knows that charcoal is the safest and most efficient disinfectant and purifier in nature, but few realize its value when properly prepared and taken into the human system for the sams cleansing purpose. Charcoal is a remedy that the more you take of it the better; it is not a drug at all, but simply absorbs the gases and impurities always present in the stomach and intestines and carries them out of the system.
