BACKBITERS.

A gentleman, who has lived in Victoria for about a year and who keeps in touch with what is going on ,was in the Colonist office a few days ago, and after referring to some public matters, proceeded to deliver himself as follows: "What is the matter with this town? I never knew a place where there was as much scandal talked as here. I don't mean social scandal, but business and of all sorts of things. I do not believe as they must be, if what they say about each other is even half true. It does not matter what any one proposes, he is attacked personally behind his back. Nasty insinuations are made, or you are told confidentially that your informant knows something about some one else, routing from this rule? It is worth as they must be, if what they say about it is not recognized here by the government, nor has it ever been recognized by the School Board of Victoria. The pay has been graded according to service and not according to sex. Are we to have a defining to sex. Are we to have a definity of the matter with a great-great-grandfather was born in Switzerland. Now, why should the enumerator stop at the great-great-grandfather was born in Switzerland. Now, why should the enumerator stop at the great-great-grandfather was born in Switzerland. Now, why should the enumerator stop at the great-great-grandfather with a great-great-grandfather was born in Switzerland. Now, why should the enumerator stop at the great-great-grandfather was born in Switzerland. Now, why should the enumerator stop at the great-great-grandfather was born in Switzerland. Now, why should the enumerator to be industry to make them the great-great-grandfather was born in Switzerland. Now, why should the enumerator to be industry to make them the great-great-grandfather was born in Switzerland. Now, why should the enumerator to be industry to make them the great-great-grandfather was born in Switzerland. Now, why should the enumerator to be industry to make them the great-great-grandfather was born in Switzerland. Now the beets in a rather negligible was very satisfacto that the people of this town are as bad the other fellow up in his true colors." And he talked in this strain for about that until this sort of thing was stopped

Victoria could never expect to go ahead.

It is true that there are in this city a lot of men, who deliberately and maliciously endeavor to break down the reputation and influence of others. Than such people there can be no one more cowardly or contemptible-miserable fellows who are friendly to your face and stab you behind your back upon every occasion that offers itself, and if none offers, they hasten to make one. Case offers, they hasten to make one. Case after case has come to the notice of the came between the two. Thus the change absurd faddist or he had some sinister Colonist, where men who have worked would be calculated to defeat its own motive when he issued it.

he is in the right, for him to worry because some mean-souled people try to place him in the wrong. He need only exercise a little patience. He need only go on doing his duty as he sees it, and doing it fearlessly. There is not the least use in trying to chase down a lie. It will evade you in spite of all you can do. You need not think you can drive it home, for its own father will not assume the responsibility for it. It is not pleasant when you are trying to do what is right to know that evil-minded persons are trying to place you in the wrong. It is not agreeable to find your friends givis not agreeable to find your friends giving you the cold shoulder. But when a man is so treated he should call to his aid his philosophy and this will teach aid his philosophy and this will be aid his philosophy and his philosophy aid his philosophy aid his ph
