

Stirring Addresses By the Candidates Seeking Election in Conservative Interests in Victoria--Dangers of Marimism Explained--McPhillips Scores on Oliver--Victory Assured Saturday.

(From Wednesday's Daily.) As a result of the splendid meeting held in the Victoria theatre yesterday evening, there is admitted no longer any doubt about the return of the entire Conservative ticket to the Legislature. The meeting had been but inadequately advertised, it was filled with a gathering of enthusiastic electors, and they heard a masterly exposition of the aims of the Conservative party in the present contest, and arguments which completely disposed of the claims put forward by the opponents of the progressive policy which it is intended shall be inaugurated by the McBride government.

The stage and the balconies of the theatre had been decorated very nicely with bunting, the flag of old England predominating in the scheme of decoration, and when the curtain rolled up the audience found seated on the platform a sterling representation of the party's solid forces. He did not believe that the time has come when legislation serious laws, in order to prevent the industrial disputes that have lately broken out in the West, and that both employers and employed that independent tribunal be organized, which would settle such disputes, and so endeavor to adjust alleged differences.

It had been asserted that the present government had no policy. This was ridiculous, the speaker said, for the people in the face who cared to read the public press. The day had gone past when they followed a leader, or a man; the standard-bearers of the party would educate the party's policy. He read from the Revelstoke Conservative platform on the matter of railways, and trails. The party had come to the conclusion that it would be best in the interest of the country to have a company in railways; that is, a company, without having to go to the legislature, could undertake the work of building and operating the railway. He called attention to the fact that the party had done so strenuously, but notwithstanding the fact that they had been defeated. This would not happen again.

Slim Gathering At North Ward Few of the Faithful Assemble to hear the Old Told Tales.

Dr. Milne Comes Loaded With Records to Tell of His Forgotten Efforts. (From Tuesday's Daily.) The Liberals held a little family gathering at North Ward school last night, and only a few of the faithful were present. The candidate spoke and Dr. Milne told of what he had done in the busy days when he was a candidate. The forensic eloquence of the Liberal orator, Mr. B. J. Elliott, was the chief feature of the evening. The speaker had always endeavored to lack of time to read the good reading matter he had brought with him. The audience rose to applaud the speaker, the chairman of the meeting, Messrs. Laurin and Elliott not speaking. Mr. Cameron then moved a vote of thanks to the chairman and the meeting ended.

It is also a matter for congratulation that the affairs of the province are now in the hands of a man who is as trustworthy a financier as the Hon. Richard McBride was in the past. He has inspired confidence all over the province, and that a large measure of success will be achieved by the McBride government in its present position.

So Weak, Couldn't Walk

Another Astonishing Case of Female Troubles Cured By FERROZONE. "Before taking the first box of Ferrozone," writes Mrs. Annie Jeffrey, of Stanley, B.C., "I was in a deplorable condition. My health was very weak, and I suffered from terrible palpitations, which the doctors said were from nervous prostration. Friends urged me to try Ferrozone, and I bought six boxes. When I used the first box I felt a new vigor and strength returned. The palpitations ceased, my appetite increased, and I gained weight in a few days. It would be impossible to speak of the benefits of the medicine and men should use it. I hope many suffering sisters will use Ferrozone, for it will surely cure their troubles."

Are You Bilious? Blame the Liver. Scores of the Common Ills of Life Due to Disorders of the Liver and Curable by the Use of Dr. Chase's KIDNEY - LIVER PILLS. If your digestion is impaired and you suffer from headache and dizzy spells, blame the liver. If your bowels are irregular, constipated and you are unable to alter, blame the liver. If you have pain under the shoulder blades, feelings of chilliness, or a yellowish tinge to the skin, blame the liver. Topical, sluggish action of the liver is responsible for all these symptoms, and while you have a right to blame the liver, it may be well for you to set about to help the liver out of difficulty. Though bile, which the healthy liver filters from the blood, is nature's cathartic and is necessary to healthful and regular action of the bowels, it is poison when left in the blood, and gives rise to many distressing symptoms. The use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills promptly cures torpid liver, and biliousness, and because of their combined action on liver, kidneys and bowels ensure a thorough cleansing of the system. There is probably no one organ responsible for so many ill as the liver.
