THE TELEGRAPH DEAL.
 HEADQUARTERS OF THE NORTH-WESTERN COMING TO TORONTO.

The work of consolidation—when will rates be increased?—Montreal Telegraph Stock to go out of the market.

The lease of the Montreal telegraph line to the Great Northwest company has been consummated, and the Montreal Telegraph, the president of the latter, has formally gone into possession. Mr. Winan came up to Toronto yesterday and is now in the city.

THE HEAD OFFICES of the Great Northwest company, according to a Montreal dispatch, will be removed to Toronto shortly. This step will probably cause considerable feeling in Montreal, and will give an impetus to any opposition likely to be offered to the new concern.

This is a most likely move, though it may be some time before it is made. Mr. Doughty said to be the manager of the new company, and he no doubt would have a good deal to say in the matter. Besides, the three lines—Montreal, the Dominion and the North-western, could be managed much better than anywhere else in the world.

THE REAL HEADQUARTERS OF THE CONCERN, however, are in the West. Union people of New York, and what they say will determine the policy of the Canadian managers. Shrewd Yankee business men, they are said to be pledged to pay a dividend, and to make the company a success.

It is said Mr. Winan has been very liberal in the promise of a dividend, and that the staff of the consolidation, but the officials will do well to put too much faith in Mr. Winan's good intentions. There is a greater power than he, and more information is to be run on strict business usage, and the men in New York who have secured the monopoly will not be so easily deceived.

They will reduce the number of operators, they will close unproductive offices, and they will increase the rate of tolls. They think any of the present employees do not suit they will dismiss them with little or no notice. The new company will do to all the telegraph business of Canada much cheaper than the three companies did, and therefore ought to give a cheaper service. But they have the monopoly, and monopolies do no missionary or good Samaritan work.

THE NEW AMERICAN MUTUAL telegraph company has completed a number of contracts for building and equipping of its lines. Thus far the company has made rapid progress in its work. At present it has a contract for building lines from Boston, via Providence, Hartford, New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore, to Washington, and from New York, via Springfield, Wilmington, Del., and other cities. It is expected that the line from New York to Chicago, via Albany, Buffalo, Cleveland, Toledo, and Detroit, will be completed for public business early in October. Already it is in Buffalo, and would make connections with the Erie and the Western Union.

WHERE FOUND IS in the great cable companies. As soon as Gould's new cables are laid, as they soon will be, he can snap his finger at the British cable, and Gould will then control the biggest system in the United States and Canada, and four cables to Europe, and the competition will get very little business from him. In self-defense they will have to get hold of the American Mutual or some other system, and start an opposition to the British cable.

THE IRISH LAND BILL. Favorable comments of two leading London journals. The Daily News in a leading article says that there can be no doubt that the land bill is a measure which will make capital out of the interference of the house of lords with the bill. We regret that the opportunity has been offered them to say that the lords spoiled the bill, but reasonable men know that the bill is not spoiled. We do not believe that the lords will do anything to compromise the value of its beneficent operation.

THE KENTUCKIANS.
 One Thousand of Them in the City Yesterday—A Talk With One.

There were a thousand Kentuckians in the city yesterday. They came over from Lewisport by the Empress of India in the morning, and went back by the Chicago in the afternoon. There were professional men and farmers, business men and artisans, with their wives, daughters and sweethearts. The majority of the men were tall, raw-boned fellows, with swarthy skins and bright black eyes; the women were shapely brunettes, with here and there a good-looking one. They were clad in broadcloth and store clothes, silk and stuff, and the man or woman who didn't have a duster on carried one over the arm or strapped in a roll. They were in good-humored lot of people, especially after having got a good Toronto dinner, and well pleased with the city. "Oh, how is your city getting on?" a tall, grey-headed Louisvillean said to a World man. "I was here a year ago and saw a good deal of it. I was up at your railway station, and I had a look at your city. It's a fine house for a governor, and the grounds about it are beautiful. I had quite a talk with the Hon. Mr. Winan who showed me about. He told me what salary your governor got and how his house was kept up, but said he wouldn't take it for a dollar. Which I thought was a good thing. If Queen Victoria wanted a good one there was a big Kentuckian about my size and build, and he would be a good man to turn a turn at it. The Irishman smiled and said: "BREAD FEEDS THE WORLD."

"I don't fancy to see him there today. We are pretty full men in Kentucky, you say. Well, yes, we are, and some of us are pretty well off. Now there's my brother-in-law, Yank Bligh, the detective. He and I were born the same hour of the same day of the same year. We were both 200 lbs. And we kept on, 210, 220, 230, 240 and 250. Then ran for marshal of the state of Kentucky. That was six years ago, and between that election and the office I pulled down to 228. But Yank kept right on going up the hill, and he's now 300 lbs. and he's a good man."

ANY BIG GETS WITH US? We like your first rate. Thinking of annexing a few of our states, but I don't think it's a good idea. Never mind, we'll get along all right. But you just come down to Louisville and ask for Col. A. H. Riddle. He'll show you something worth looking at. We've got the prettiest woman—they say here today—she's no horse, and the best whiskey in the world."

THE EXCURSION PARTY. The excursion party of the Erie and the Western Union, which left for Buffalo on Tuesday, returned to Toronto on Thursday. They were a large party, and were very much pleased with their trip. They had a very good time, and were very much pleased with their trip. They had a very good time, and were very much pleased with their trip.

THE ANTI-MONOPOLISTS.
 MEETING OF DELEGATES AT UTICA YESTERDAY.

The Aggregations of Corporations Must Cease—Curbing their Power for Evil—Crittenden and Seymour Hear From.

UTICA, Aug. 18.—The anti-monopoly conference met this morning, fifty delegates being present. General Alex. Drown was elected president, and vice-presidents were chosen representing a variety of commercial interests.

THE POWER OF CORPORATIONS. Mr. Crittenden said the united power of corporations is doing heavy blows against the life of the republic. Corporations have brought down the city and state under their domination, and are now preparing for a final assault upon the state legislatures, congress and the supreme court of the United States. It has become certain that they will not cease about their control of the government. Thoughtful citizens, without distinction of party or creed, have decided upon the course of action to be taken. We have an unscrupulous enemy to meet. It is not wise to underestimate the power of the corporations. We must not be misled by the promises of the corporations. We must not be misled by the promises of the corporations. We must not be misled by the promises of the corporations.

DEATH IN THE DRAINS.
 The Stuffed Way in Which the Spectator.

The article in the World the other day describing the nefarious practice of stuffing drains with rags, and the consequent spread of cholera, is a fearful indictment, while the whole neighborhood is polluted by the filth which is pumped into the sewer, about 200 feet. Eight water-closets, four baths, four sinks, besides the roof and surface drainage, were all clandestinely connected with a six-inch pipe which was already carrying off the waste of a large mansion. The pipes connecting the four houses with this drain were put down in an unworkmanlike manner, the lengths of pipe being all laid wrong end foremost and with little regard either to cleanliness or economy. This was alone sufficient to cause the pipe to gradually fill up and to cause the cholera to spread.
