DECEMBER WEDDINGS

BRANDER—EVANS

The marriage took place quietly at the Methodist parsonage, Forest, on Wednesday, Dec. 12th, when Mr. Frederick William Brander, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Brander of Bosanquet, was united in marriage to Earla, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Evans of the same township. They were unattended and the ceremony was performed by the Rev. S. Anderson. After a short honeymoon to Western points, they will return to reside in Bosanquet.

KELLY—HOLLOWELL

A quiet wedding was solemnized at the Zion Methodist church, Moose Jaw, on Nov. 26th, when Miss Lillian Evelyn Hollowell, of Moose Jaw, and Harold Kelly, Maple Bush, were united in marriage.

After a short honeymoon the happy couple arrived at Maple Bush last Friday. That evening between 40 and 50 neighbors assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Kelly to offer congratulations to the newly married couple and to welcome them home. Mrs. Harold Kelly was presented with a purse of silver. Everybody spent a most enjoyable time and the party did not break up till daylight.

EDGAR—MCLACHLAN

A marriage of much local interest was quietly solemnized at the Presbyterian manse, Alvinston, Saturday, Dec. 22nd, at high noon when Marybelle, only daughter of Mr. Dougal and the late Mrs. Dougal McLachlan, to Ivan Clare Edgar, son of Mr. John and the late Mrs. Edgar, both of Brooke township. The bride was attired in sand canton crepe trimmed with beaver fur. After the ceremony the bridal party motored to the bride's home where a sumptuous wedding dinner was served to immediate relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Edgar left on the 6.05 train for Hamilton, Niagara and Toronto. The bride travelling in a brown velvet dress with hat and coat to match.

On their return the happy young couple will reside on the groom's farm, con. 10, Brooke.

LAMB—MCLAREN

A quiet December wedding was solemnized at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon at the home of the bride's mother, 544 Confederation street, when Miss Isabel C. McLaren was united in marriage to William D. Lamb, son of William Lamb of Watford. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John R. Hall, pastor of St. Paul's Presbyterian church, and the couple were unattended. The bride wore a gown of navy blue satin and chemise and carried a bouquet of pink roses. A reception and wedding repast followed the ceremony and Mr. and Mrs. Lamb left on the late afternoon train for a wedding trip to Toronto and points east. Upon their return they will reside on Proctor St. Among the gifts received by the bride was a case of silver from her former employer, E. J. Schoolcraft of Port Huron. Mr. Lamb was the recipient of a handsome electric reading lamp from J. W. Whitcombe and the staff of the Frontier Printing Company, where Mr. Lamb is employed. Mr. Lamb served overseas for two years and received a medal for bravery on the field of action. A brother paid the supreme sacrifice.

WILLS—BUTLER

On Wednesday, Dec. 19th, at "Woodlands Fruit Farm" Luella J., eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Butler, Arkona, was joined in wedlock to Mr. Jas. Wills of Warwick.

The bride was supported by her sister, Marion, while the groom was attended by Mr. Roy S. Burman, cousin of the bride. Marching to the piano played by Miss Evelyn Butler, the bridal party took their places under an arch of cedar decked with apple blossoms, the bride leaning on the arm of her father. Promptly at 12.00 o'clock the pastor of Arkona Baptist church, Rev. A. H. Jones, joined the happy couple in the holy bonds of matrimony. Immediately after the ceremony a dainty buffet lunch was served to all the friends gathered for the occasion, after which the afternoon was spent in a happy time together.

The bride and groom entrained for Detroit, Pontiac and other points in Michigan. The presents received were both valuable and useful, showing the esteem in which the happy couple are held in the community. The bride also received a substantial check from her father and the attendants each a splendid gift from the groom. They will settle on the groom's farm in Warwick.

FROM OLD SUBSCRIBERS

Wm. Dormer, Sault Ste Marie: Please find enclosed the price of next year's Guide. We have a remarkable finefall here this year, no snow until last Thursday night and only about six inches then. You know what to do with my tickets and about the Flivver, I will have to get you to store it for me until spring as the snow will be too deep here to do anything with it.

John Maw, Wyoming: Please find enclosed order for $7.00 subscription for one year for Guide and London Advertiser. You may drop seven tickets in the box for me.

C. P. VanAukon, Hockleysack, N. Y.: Find enclosed cheque for five dollars in payment of past and future subscription. The Guide is always welcome. Please accept my best wishes for the continued prosperity of the Watford Guide Advocate.

W. Lamb, Brantford: Herewith find enclosed a money order for renewal of subscription to the Guide-Advocate, which will entitle me to two tickets which I hope will draw some one of the prizes offered in the Community Club.

M. S. Campbell, Armstrong, B.C.: Please find herewith enclosed $2.00 to cover year's subscription in advance from Jan. 1, 1924. Kindly acknowledge and credit me with the same and oblige. Will you please turn in the two tickets for me in the Auto Contest.

Ross McLaren and D. A. Thom, Regina: Don't overlook our tickets for the Sedan. We want it to go to the "Old Boys" next summer.

Mrs. C. B. Hathaway, Palmerston: You will herewith find enclosed a money order for two dollars for the renewal of my subscription which runs out in March 1924. Kindly drop two tickets in the contest box for me. I see by the home town paper that many old boys and girls are doing their part towards making the contest a success, so I thought I'd do the same and add my name to the list. Best wishes to all. Wishing you every success for 1924.

H. S. Sweet, Cayley, Alta.: Enclosed please find money order to apply on my subscription to the Guide-Advocate, and also to put me in good standing to win that Sedan, as my touring car is getting out of style. By the way you might look after the Sedan for me until the Old Boys Reunion next summer when I'll go down and get it.

T. Dodds, San Francisco, Cal.: Enclosed find $5.00 for subscription. Think I may as well have the Ford as any one else as I could run it every day in the year here. We have had three frosts this season which have done lots of harm, but you don't hear much about it back east. Ontario is good enough for me. Always glad to receive the Guide to see local news. I was surprised to hear of the death of Miss Durstan, it must have been a great shock to her parents. Hope Miss McNaughton soon recovers.

W. M. Routley, Biggar, Sask.: Find enclosed postal note for arrears and renewal of my home paper which we look forward to every week. Kindly drop tickets in box so that I may have a chance at some of your grand prizes.

D. Roche, Toronto: Enclosed P. O. for $2.00 which will pay my subscription for 1924, place the winning tickets under the back seat. If Chief Elliot will spare Gordon off the street for a few days, he will run it down for "Oche". You might also instruct Gord to keep Liz on high as there are many of the Red Ryan gang loose yet. Wishing all my old friends a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Mrs. R. J. Campbell, Wawota, Sask.: Enclosed please find an order for the sum of four dollars for 1923 and 1924 subscription for the Watford Guide Advocate. It's always like a letter from home. Kindly put my name and address on tickets for the contest. Hoping I am the lucky one.

Fred Mathews, Toronto: Enclosed please find cheque for four dollars for subscription to your paper until October 1924. I thought I may as well get in on some of your prizes you are giving away in Watford. You may place my tickets in your box and give me credit for same on your list.

W. H. Kennedy, Whitby, Ont.: Enclosed find cheque for $6.00 for subscription due your valuable paper. Trusting to win the Ford Sedan.

WATFORD PUBLIC SCHOOL REPORT

To get a chance on the Sedan I am sending at this time, renewal of my subscription. Nothing would please me better than to have this Sedan waiting for me to use when I come to the "Old Boys' Reunion" next summer. The old home town shows some spirit in offering this grand prize.

M. McClure, Hanna, Alta.: Please find enclosed $2.00 for the renewal of the Guide for 1924. I know you will sign the tickets for me. Hoping I will be the lucky one, even if I have to come from Hanna, Alberta, to Watford to get the Sedan. Wishing you many happy returns of the season.

D. Eccles, Winnipeg: Enclosed please find cheque for renewal of paper for 1924. Give two tickets for the Ford Sedan. Do what is necessary for the draw. The first thing, when I come home from the office I ask for the Watford paper before I look at the Winnipeg papers or "Toronto Globe". It is like getting two or three letters from the home town. I certainly would miss it. Wishing you the season's greetings.

Wm. F. Pike, London: Find enclosed $2.00 for my renewal for 1924. We would not like to be without the old Home paper and please drop two tickets in the box for the Ford Sedan.

J. J. Mavity, Sarnia: Enclosed find money order for six dollars for subscription for paper. Kindly drop tickets in box for the drawing of Ford. Hope you have an interesting time. Will not have time to go down after Sedan. Just send it by parcel post to Sarnia. Wishing you and all the old Watford friends the compliments of the season.

Henry Baird, Edmonton: Enclosed find P.O. for renewal of my subscription to the Guide-Advocate for another year. You will also please drop a couple of tickets in the box for me as with our mild bright weather and good streets I could use that Sedan.

M. J. Roche, Forest: Am enclosing $2.00 for my subscription. Please drop the tickets in the box. I'll drive it to the Old Boys' Reunion.

L. McLeay, Gravenhurst, Ont.: Please find enclosed subscription for 1924. Ship in a couple of coupons for me and I'll have Walker McLaren look after the Sedan for me until Spring.

Fred McIntosh, Toronto: Dear friends, you will find enclosed two dollars, subscription for the Guide-Advocate, or as I call it "A Weekly Letter from Home", and also as I intend coming to Watford after New Year's I thought how nice it will be to ride back home in the Ford Sedan, and I intend challenging the Grand Trunk for a race from Watford to Toronto, so don't forget to drop my tickets in and let me know about it as soon as I have won.

Dr. F. Burton Kenward, San Francisco: Enclosed find $5.00 for the Guide and like a good many slow pays am after the Henry Ford. Things are busy here too, preparing for Christmas. We have had practically no rain here yet. One day of it but about 6 inches shy for the season to date. My mother arrived here last Saturday and looks and feels fine.
