THE ISLAND BIBLE CLASS

Presentation and address to Rev. I. Brindley Saturday Evening

The "Island Bible Class" met at the home of Mrs. A. Angers on Saturday evening, Feb 18th.

The Class opened with prayer and singing.

After an interesting paper on the subject "Ideals of Christian Living" delivered by the President, Mr. J. K. Winchester, Rev. I. Brindley took up the subject and explained the lesson in his usual appropriate and inspiring manner.

At the close of the lesson the President presented the Rev gentleman with a purse of money, in recognition of his faithful and indefatigable efforts.

The presentation address was prepared and read by the President:

MY DEAR MR. BRINDLEY: I have been delegated by the Island Bible Class to present you with a small token of the respect and esteem in which you are held by every member of this class, and as I do so, a feeling of sadness comes over me, and at the same time also a feeling of pride.

I feel sad when I realize that conditions have made it necessary for you to sever your connection with us, as a minister, as a neighbour and as an instructor and life of our Bible Class. I will not say as a friend, for you can never sever the friendship that exists between us. I don't think it is possible in your make up, but I feel proud to think you will leave behind you this "Bible Class" and other influences, that will tend to be landmarks, on our pathway of life, which if we will lead us into that peaceful haven where the wicked cease from troubling, and the weary are at rest.

I think I have heard you refer in your prayer to God, of a prayer and words that you could not utter. My Dear Sir, that is the position I am in to night, and I leave from a different motive. My heart is too full for utterance, for personal I had looked forward to great things from our Bible Class with your personal lacking, now I feel we will be like sheep without a Shepherd. But I know that He that doeth all things, will not leave us to wander too far from the Divine fold, and I hope when the heavens are rolled up as a scroll we will all be found enjoying the presence of Him who said "Come ye blessed of My Father inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the foundation."

Now, my dear Mr. Brindley this small token consists of a sum of money and our respect for you is not to be measured by its intrinsic value and this amount contains in addition to other money two gold pieces which we hope you will always wear, one in each side pants pocket and then you will always be reminded that you have a friend on either side. You will know you leave many behind and we know the future is safe in your hands, and now wishing you all the blessings that God has in store for those that love Him, and with sad hearts we say good-bye to you as a Bible Class.

A vote of thanks was tendered Mrs. A. Angers for her kindness and hospitality, also to Capt and Mrs. J. V. Robblee for the refreshments served at the close of the evening.

In behalf of the Karsdale Union Bible Class.

E. H. PORTER, President
Karsdale, March 2nd, 1920.

MASSACHUSETTS TOWNS VOTED "WET"

The Majority Had Voted Consistently "Dry" for Many Years

BOSTON, March 3—Almost fifty Massachusetts Towns out of sixty seven voted "wet" in their annual town meetings, complete returns showed today. The majority of these towns returned substantial "wet" majorities, despite the fact that almost all had voted consistently "dry" in their history.

The few towns that stuck to the "dry" column did so in many cases by narrow margins or by substantially reduced majorities.

Rockport, noted north shore town, was the only town to vote "dry" in its history.

The Bridgewater Division of the C. N. R. has just received two powerful locomotives of the ten wheel type.

I.O.F. Zelma Rebekah Lodge Institute at Digby

One of the pleasantest and most successful events in the history of Oddfellowship in Digby took place Monday afternoon and evening when Mrs. J. W. Peters, of Bridgetown, Past President of the Rebekah Assembly, instituted Zelma Rebekah Lodge No. 78 at Digby. She was assisted by several Past Grand officers including Past Grand Master J. A. Craig and Past President, Mrs. C. G. Pollard, of Yarmouth. Other visitors present from Yarmouth were: Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Smith, Mrs. A. E. S. Eldridge, Mrs. Aubrey Reed was also present from Middleton.

After the Digby ladies had served a sumptuous luncheon in the lodge room the degree staff of Autumn Leaf Rebekah Lodge, Bridgetown, conferred the degree on 42 candidates, which with the charter members gives Zelma Lodge, the youngest in the jurisdiction, a membership of 48. The degree work was beautiful, probably the best ever seen in the Maritime Provinces.

Mrs. J. W. Peters and staff which included Mrs. F. E. Bath, Past District Deputy President, and Mrs. Dora Hayward, Past Grand Chaplain, installed the following officers:

Mrs. G. H. Peters, N. G.
Mrs. J. F. Milbury, V. G.
Miss Adelaide Coggins, R. S.
Miss Edna Titus, F. S.
Mrs. R. C. Smallie, Treas.
Miss Eunice Milbury, Warden.
Mrs. M. C. Denton, Con.
Mrs. C. H. Curry, Chap.
Mr. S. S. Aymar, R. S. N. G.
Mrs. Carl J. Elbridge, L. S. N. G.
Mrs. A. J. Dillon, R. S. V. G.
Mrs. Ernest Collins, L. S. V. G.
Mrs. N. W. Hoag, I. G.
Mr. Guy D. Dunn, O. G.

Installation was followed by a presentation from Past Grand Master Craig consisting of a beautiful set of jewels and an envelope containing a substantial sum in cash. This was followed by a vote of thanks.

The officers and members of Autumn Leaf were thanked for conferring the degree followed by several speeches. Mr. J. L. Peters, P. G., was the only charter member of St. George Lodge present. This lodge was instituted 28 years ago.

Mr. O. S. Dunham, P. G., and P. C. P., who was the first Noble Grand in St. George's spacious and well furnished lodge room, was also present. This hall was dedicated to Oddfellowship in 1897 by Hon. O. T. Daniels, of Bridgetown, who was then Grand Warden of the Grand Lodge.

Hiawatha Lodge of Kentville conferred the first degree on several candidates in Annapolis Monday evening. This party, which consisted of about 75 of the three like fraternities, included Deputy Grand Master Clarke, of Kentville, Grand Warden Wood, of Windsor, and Mr. Horace Bishop, of Bridgetown.

Yarmouth Encampment No. 7, of which O. S. Dunham, of Bridgetown is Past Chief Patriarch, held a special meeting last night to confer the third degree.

St. George Lodge, Digby will celebrate its 29th anniversary next Friday evening, March 12th.

It is reported that Rebekah lodges are about to be instituted in Wolfville, Canning and Bear River.

FARMERS MET AT KENTVILLE Will Hold Another Convention in April

A meeting of the Executive appointed at the meeting of the United Farmers of Nova Scotia following the annual meeting of the Nova Scotia Fruit Growers' held in this town recently, convened at Kentville 3rd. All members of the executive were present—namely, William O'Brien, of Windsor, Mr. Nicholson, of Coxheath, C. B. V. B. Leonard, of Clarence, Annapolis County; M. K. Ellis, of Port Williams and W. A. Bacon, of Digby. In addition to the executive Mr. Taggart, president of the Milkmen's Association, Colchester County, Frank Foster, delegate to the United Farmers of New Brunswick Association, F. A. Chipman and J. Elliott Smith, of Wolfville were present.

There seemed to be unanimity of opinion that a provincial convention should be called at the earliest possible date, and the 14th day of April was set for that meeting. Arrangements are being made whereby at least two sessions will be devoted to organization purposes, to be followed by a mass meeting addressed by some of the foremost speakers in Canada, and representatives of the different provinces.

The executive evidently have carried out their instructions to the letter, and have obtained information which in their opinion warranted the calling of the United Farmers of Nova Scotia together, and ascertain if it is their wish that an extensive organization campaign should be put on.

SATURDAY'S HORSE RACE Big Crowd Present to Witness Sports on the Ice

Notwithstanding the disagreeable weather a large number gathered along the water front Saturday afternoon to witness some horse racing on the ice which was brought about from the result of Mr. Kenneth Hebb's challenge in last Wednesday's MONITOR.

There were two starters "Nancy May" owned and driven by Mr. Kenneth Hebb, of Granville, and "May Queen" owned Mr. Wheelock C. Marshall, of Clarence, and driven by Mr. John Hall, of Lawrenceport. Mr. Hebb won in three straight heats, thereby winning his prize of twenty five bushels of oats. Mr. Elias Ramey endeavored to arrange a race with the winner and also with an automobile which for some reason did not materialize, although an auto from the Colonial Motor Co., made several trips over the course.

The officers of the day were: starters, George Gill, and Harry Egan; judges, E. A. Craig, Lou Walker and H. Ruggles; patrol judge, Chas. F. DeWitt.

Mr. F. W. Bishop has returned from a visit to relatives in Massachusetts. Miss Sera Longley is home on account of her school being closed by "flu."

Mr. Floyd Banks is spending a few days at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Banks.

Miss Troop, of Bridgetown, spent few days visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Layte.

Miss Rosina Calneec, of Granville, is visiting at the home of her aunt, Mrs. H. W. Longley.

We are glad to be able to report that no new cases of sickness have been reported lately and that all the sick are making good progress.

A very enjoyable coasting party was held on Thursday night on Banks' hill, young and old alike participating. After the coasting the party was entertained very pleasantly at the home of Mrs. J. C. Phinney.
