

Local Happenings

The annual Harvest Festival service in St. Mary's Church, Belleisle, will be held on the evening of Thursday, Sept. 25th, commencing at 8 o'clock. This is a departure from the usual custom as heretofore this service has been held on Sunday.

The Executive of the N. S. Fruit Grower's Association have made representations to the Secretary of Agriculture that it is their opinion that the Department of Agriculture of the Government of Nova Scotia should make an effort to encourage an exhibit of the best obtainable Nova Scotia fruit at the Imperial Fruit Show to be held in Birmingham, England, in November. Prizes at this exhibition will be awarded to individual fruit growers and fruit grower's associations. It has therefore been recommended that whatever assistance is given to any private grower or associations who are ready to exhibit at this important show. Two years ago Mr. A. L. Morse of Berwick was successful in winning the two most important prizes awarded at the Imperial Fruit Show. In doing which he gave a splendid advertisement to the possibility of apple growing in Nova Scotia. It is hoped that this year a number of those who have had experience in exhibiting fruit will obtain the necessary prize lists and get in touch with the Secretary for Agriculture at Truro in respect to assistance that will be given to those who will exhibit at the Imperial Show.

The Rev. Canon Underwood was a passenger to Bridgewater on Monday for a three days visit at Holy Trinity Rectory. The local apple warehouses opened up this week to handle the seasons business. Mr. W. B. Rhymer of West Paradise has sold his valuable farm to Capt. Orr.

Today our esteemed citizen, Mr. James Bacon, attained his seventy-eighth birthday and is as hale and hearty as the average man much younger. He can still read readily without the aid of glasses. Don't fail to hear Miss Duncanson, the talented soloist of Wolfville, at the concert in Lawrencetown, Thursday evening.

Eighteen tons of butter a week's what the Scotsburn creamery is turning out now. Mr. B. A. Bent, who has in charge the construction of the new college building reports that the work is proceeding very satisfactorily. The entire roof will be completed in a short time and it is expected that favorable weather continues to have the exterior of the building pretty well completed before winter sets in. Acadian Chief Bishop arrested a local citizen on Thursday night charged with creating a disturbance in his family circles. The chief during the visit confiscated a jug of beer. A fine of $15 was administered next morning at Police Court.

Dr. Hugh MacKinnon, of Inverness has purchased the home and practice of the late Dr. MacNally at Berwick, and will begin his professional duties at that place next week. Dr. MacKinnon had four years of service overseas as a surgeon and at the close of the war practiced for a time in Halifax. Since then he has had charge of the county hospital at Inverness. His coming to Berwick should prove a valuable addition to the medical practitioners of Kings county.

C. V. Whitman and party, who have been installing a lighting system with in limits of Lockeport, have completed the contract, and left Friday for their homes in Lawrencetown, Annapolis Co. Power will be obtained from P. J. Nicol, of Mahone Bay, who is completing the plant at Canada Hill, and expects to turn on the current in about two weeks.

REUNION OF MEMBERS OF ARMSTRONG FAMILY.

A very pleasant reunion among members of the Armstrong family took place in Parrsboro on Sunday last. Those present were Premier E. H. Armstrong, and Mrs. Armstrong, Mr. A. O. Armstrong, Dr. M. E. Armstrong and son, Mr. Maurice Armstrong. The reunion took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hatfield, the latter as most of readers know, being a sister of the Premier and Dr. Armstrong. The reunion was much enjoyed by the different members of the family.

CHAMPION SOCIALS HERE THIS AFTERNOON—GAME AT 4 P. M.

This afternoon a team, the Socials Juniors, arrives from Halifax with the avowed purpose of taking home with them the scepter of our local Juniors. The Socials were Junior Prov. Champions in 1921-22-23 and hope to down our exponents of the game. Be on hand at 4 o'clock on the B. A. A. grounds to see if they can do it. This is the last contest of the season in all probability and should be the best. Our boys are not going to part with any of their hair without a big fight.

PERSONAL MENTION

Mrs. Burpee Chute left for Malden, on Tuesday, to rejoin her husband, who has been in that city for the past few months. Mrs. Chute was a member of the Baptist Church choir and an enthusiastic church worker. Her presence will be much missed in the church and among a large circle of friends.

Mr. Allie Ruffee has entered upon his duties here as Customs Examiner. Mr. Ruffee was a member of the 21st Battalion, N. S. H. and for some time previous to his customs appointment was connected with the Halifax Herald's business office as manager of the classified ads department.

Queens County Exhibition is being held at Caledonia, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week. Numbers from here expect to go to Annapolis on Saturday evening to attend the splendid musical treat put on there by the famous Boston Symphony Ensemble, now on its third annual visit. The programme is a varied and attractive one and not too classical to be beyond the enjoyment of the average person. It speaks volumes for the enterprise of Annapolis Royal music lovers that they do not pass down the opportunity to secure such splendid musicians for the musical treat of the year.

MARRIED

Paradise.—The marriage was solemnized at the home of the bride's mother Mrs. Israel M. Longley, on Thursday, September 12th, of her eldest daughter, Hilda Marion, to Mr. Frederick Doig, of St. John, N. E. Promptly at 11 o'clock, to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Miss Bessie Darling, the bride entered the drawing room on the arm of her brother, Dr. William H. Longley, of Baltimore, Ind., and took her place beneath the bridal arch of evergreen and golden glow. She was charming in a gown of tawn flat crepe, with black picture hat, her only ornament being a beautiful pair of pearls. She carried a large bouquet of American beauty roses and maiden hair fern.

The groom's gift to the bride was a stone-marten necklace, to the matron-of-honor a sterling silver vanity case and chain, to the pianist, a gold piece, to the flower girl, a bracelet, and to the best man, a pocket book. The bride received many useful and beautiful gifts, among which was a valuable silver tea service, presented to her by the staff of A. R. Williams Machinery Co., of St. John, where she had been cashier for some time past. The bride travelled in a dress of old blue canton crepe, with navy blue wrap and hat to match. Mr. and Mrs. Doig left on the east bound express for their honeymoon, which will be spent in Halifax, and Prince Edward Island, after which they will reside in St. John.
