Private Harry H. Bent, who has been visiting his parents Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Bent for the last few days, returned to his duties at Wellington Barracks on the eighth inst.

Can't Lose Hair

Twenty Years From Today a Bald-headed Man Will Be An Unusual Sight.

One of the most prominent druggists of America made a statement a few weeks ago which has caused a great deal of discussion among scientists in the medical press.

He said: "If the new hair grower, Mildredina Hair Remedy, increases its sales as it has during the past year, it will be used by nearly every man, woman and child in America within eight years."

"When Mildredina Hair Remedy is used almost universally, dandruff will disappear and with its departure baldness, itching scalp, splitting hair and all scalp diseases will follow and twenty years from now a bald head will be a rarity."

There is only one way to cure dandruff, and that is to kill the germs. There is only one hair preparation that will kill the germs and that is any head where there is any life left; Mildredina Hair Remedy. This unusual hair restorer with its record of thousands of cures will grow hair on it will cure dandruff, stop falling hair and itching of the scalp in three weeks or money back.

It is the most pleasant and invigorating tonic, is not sticky, or greasy and is used extensively by ladies of refinement who desire to save and to keep their hair soft, lustrous and luxuriant. Fifty cents for a large bottle druggists everywhere. Mail orders filled by American Proprietary Co., Boston, Mass.

CUT THIS OUT

FREE to show how quickly Mildredina Hair Remedy acts, we will send a large sample free by return mail to anyone who sends this Coupon to AMERICAN PROPRIETARY CO., BOSTON, MASS., with their name and address and ten cents in silver or stamps to pay postage.

In an article dealing with Great Britain's plan to cut off food supplies from Germany the Cologne Gazette says that prisoners of war must starve first. "We have 600,000 prisoners and the parts of Belgium and France we occupy contain eleven million people. If it comes to starving, the subjects of hostile countries will suffer first."

In Indianapolis, on Sabbath, January tenth, 100,000 persons gathered in the different churches. This was more than half the population of the city. Query: What proportion of the population of Bridgetown will be found in the churches next Sabbath.

PARADISE

March 8th.

Mr. Reginald Bishop was in Bridgewater a few days last week.

Mrs. McNinch passed away on Monday afternoon at the home of her son, Rev. A. M. McNinch.

OBITUARY

MORRISON O. WADE

It is with feelings of deep regret that we this week chronicle the death of Morrison O. Wade, which occurred at his home in Belleisle on Monday, the 8th inst., at the age of 70 years. The deceased was born in Belleisle, a son of the late John Wade. Being of a genial and always happy disposition, he made many friends, who will learn with deep regret of his demise. He had been the Monitor's regular correspondent in Belleisle for over thirty years, and his contributions were always bright and full of interest.

He is survived by a widow, two sons and one daughter, the eldest son and the daughter now residing in the United States.

Funeral services will be held this afternoon, conducted by the Rev. E. Underwood.

MRS. ANNIE BROWN

Mrs. Annie Belle Brown, wife of Charles L. Brown, of Swampscott, Mass., died Tuesday, February 16th, 1915, after ten days illness of pneumonia. She was born at Ontram, Annapolis County, N. S., March 19th, 1862, and was the second daughter of Walter and Eliza Healey. She has resided in Mass. for the past 17 years, she leaves a sorrowing husband, two sons, Robey S. and Roscoe R.; and two daughters, Emma I. and Ethel E.; beside a sorrowing and aged mother, Mrs. Eliza Healey, and three sisters, Mrs. William Hall, Mrs. Elijah Risteen; three brothers, Roland, Charles and Gilbert in California, and Alfred at Ontram, N. S. She was a kind and loving mother ever ready to do all in her power for her family. She united with the Baptist Church when in her youth and was ever found faithful. Much sympathy is felt for the family.

THE WEEK'S WAR NEWS

British Air Fleet Makes Another Attack on Ostend. Operations in the Dardanelles Chief Feature in War News

LONDON, Mar. 8.—(10 p. m.)—The Admiralty tonight issued the following statement:

"Wing Commander Longmore reports that an air attack on Ostend was carried out yesterday afternoon by six aeroplanes of the Naval Wing. Of these two had to return, owing to their petrol freezing. The remainder reached Ostend and dropped eleven bombs on the submarine repair base and four bombs on the Kursaal, the headquarters of the military."

"All the machines and pilots returned. It is probable that considerable damage was done. No submarines were seen in the basin. The attack was carried out in a fresh north-north-west wind."

LONDON, Mar. 8.—In a statement issued this evening regarding the recent fighting between British troops and Turkish forces at the head of the Persian Gulf, the Official Press Bureau said:

"The enemy's losses near Ahwaz (in Khuzistan) on March 3, were heavier than previously reported. Six hundred were killed and many were wounded."

"In the action on the western flank the enemy lost three hundred men killed."

The British and French fleets have battered their way a step nearer to Constantinople. More Turkish forts on the Asiatic side have been silenced, according to a statement by the British Admiralty, but the Turks are making a terrific resistance with the shells from their German-made guns.

This struggle for the gateway of the Ottoman capital is at present the big feature of the war news, and closely linked with this is the sustained excitement in Greece, incident relating to the resignation of the Cabinet of M. Venizelos who, deemed Greece's entry into the hostilities on the side of the Triple Entente imperative, could not agree with his King, and resigned.

WAR BRIEFS

The Kaiser is said to have aged greatly. His hair is grey, and he is subject to great depression. His speaks little and his articulation is abnormally slow.

The first Canadian Ship to fall a victim to German raiders is the three masted schooner Wilfred M., of Lunenburg. The crew were landed at Buenos Ayres by a German tramp steamer.

Michael O'Leary, a young Irish-American of Regina, has won the Victoria Cross, for his daring at the storming of Cuinchy on Feb. 1st.

Thirty-three students of Queen's University were granted degrees at a special Convocation, because they were to the war. Some are hospital dressers, some engineers, some infantry.

Professor Wrong, lecturing in Halifax before the Canadian Club, said there must be a change of dynasty in Germany before permanent peace can be assured.

Major General Hughes said in the House of Commons that more than 5000 applications have been made for position of Chaplain. Twenty are now in England. Only eleven have been allowed to go to the war.

A French woman has given birth to quadruplets. She called them Raymond, Elizabeth, George and Alexandra, after the French President, the Queen of the Belgians, the King of England, and the Czarina.

Violin strings have gone up in price because of the war, as much as 10 per cent. The reason is that labor is scarce in France.

The supply of leeches to England, from Central Europe, has been cut off by the war. Some have been brought from India.

Charges were preferred before President Wilson, against Federal Judge John M. Killits for saying "he did not care how soon some one dropped a thousand bombs upon Emperor William's head. The accusers were German-Americans. As Congress appoints such judges, Congress only can deal with the case.

War contracts of about twenty-nine million dollars have been entered into by the Militia Department for supplies for Canadian troops.

The Queen Elizabeth, the greatest British Dreadnought is now ready for sea and for action.

A French aeroplane maker in France has been charged with forgeries to about $5,000,000. He said he had spent about $2,000,000 of the money on aeroplanes. A large proportion of those in the French army bear his name.

A German who was for a time porter at the Oddfellows Home, Yonkers, New York, has confessed to have helped to poison eight old inmates, because they were too much trouble to him.

Earl Grey, in a letter to Washington indignantly denies the statement coming from Berlin, that Great Britain intends to sink an American ship and blame the German submarines for it, in order to introduce American complications with Germany.

Monitor's Belgian Relief

We are still doing business in the interest of the Belgians. Our fund grows a little every week. And it will become bigger yet. We can't make any mistake about the generosity of the good people of this Annapolis Valley. We know also that they look upon this work of Belgian relief, not simply as a matter of charity, but of duty. Our obligation to the brave Belgians has been held up before us time and again. It has been emphasized and re-emphasized. And we are not going to soon forget it. It would be interesting to know what the Kaiser thinks of the Belgians now. We know what he thinks of the English; the "dirty English" as he calls them. And we don't mind that. We are not working for his good opinion. And we believe that when they have him and his armies dug out of their trenches in Belgium and on the run for home, as he flees with his back to the English he will at least respect their fighting qualities. And if they ever force their way into his country as we believe they will at no distant date, they will at least teach him a lesson in the art of humane warfare. The atrocities of the Germans in Belgium will not be repeated in any part of the Kaiser's realm by the English. We are confident of the true instincts of humanity which animates the boys in khaki.

But what does the Kaiser think of the Belgians? If he could bestow the Iron Cross on that poet who wrote the "Hymn of Hate" to England, he will surely laud with decorations of honor that poet who can write the Hymn of deadliest hate to Belgium. Today he looks towards Paris, with longing disappointed eyes, and then looks back upon his own country with 8,000,000 fighting men, the pick and flower of his realm, killed, wounded, missing and prisoners, looks back upon his people, now almost on the verge of starvation, and he reflects with bitterness that had it not been for the Belgians he might have been in Paris six months and more ago.

What does the Kaiser think of the Belgians? He thinks they are worthy only of starvation, of carving and butchering and driven out of their land, and so far as it is in his power, he dooms them to such a fate. The Kaiser thinks the Belgians are worthy only of starvation—the worst kind of death—because they got across the line of his proud march to Paris and threw it tremendously out of gear.

What do you, prosperous Valley farmers, think of the Belgians? Are you of the same opinion as the mad despot of the house of Hohenzollern, that they are worthy only of starvation? Don't stop to waste time with any eloquent opinion about their bravery. Don't stop to abuse the Kaiser for his brutal treatment of them. There is just one way to answer, and that is with your contribution. You'll prove that you are not in the same class as the Prussian War Lord, by helping to save them from the fate to which he has consigned them. This is a case where money talks. It expresses your real attitude toward these brave, suffering people, more eloquently than any of your fancy phrases can do. Speak with your contribution. Don't line up with the Kaiser. Keep silent and let your money do the talking.

The MONITOR will give it a chance to speak for you, and to disclose that you are of a different opinion than William the butcher. We ought to reach the thousand figure soon. $1,000 is not much for us to pay for keeping the Germans out of Paris. We'll get our money's worth, no matter how much we give. Let your money talk, and let it talk now.

Crescent Lodge, I.O.O.F. 'At Home'

The leading social function of the past week was the "At Home" of Crescent Lodge, I. O. O. F. on Thursday evening. The guests of the evening were the members of Autumn Leaf Rebekah Lodge, and a number of friends not connected with the Three-Link Order. A short program of music was rendered, consisting of vocal solos by Miss Edna Burns, Mr. J. S. Lewis and Mr. F. R. Beckwith, and a vocal duet by Mrs. G. O. Theiss and Mr. F. V. Young, with Mrs. J. S. Lewis as accompanist for all the numbers. After the program a dainty luncheon was served (Mrs. B. E. Chute, catering), the remaining part of the evening being spent in social conversation, singing of patriotic and old-time songs, and speeches. Altogether it was one of the most delightful social evenings ever given by Crescent Lodge.

Major Vincent Receives Appointment in 40th Battalion

In the 40th Battalion of the 3rd Canadian Overseas Contingent now being recruited and mobilized, Major Vincent, late of the Royal Marines, has received the appointment of Major and second in Command. For the past eight months the Major has been living at Carlton's Corner, on the property he purchased from Mr. Norman Dargie. This desirable property will now again be in the market, and elsewhere in this issue the Major is advertising the private sale of his household effects, etc.

We have been using MINARD'S LINIMENT in our home for a number of years and use no other Liniment but MINARD'S, and we can recommend it highly for sprains, bruises, pains or tightness of the chest, soreness of the throat, headache or anything of that sort. We will not be without it one single day, for we get a new bottle before the other is all used. I can recommend it highly to anyone.
