

—Glide down the stream by night—The deer in the water—Fight with a deer—The plague of flies in summer	253
---	-----

CHAPTER XV.

Summer excursion to Goderich—The new pier—Fishing—Visit Mr. Sheriff Hyndman—Excursion to the Falls of the Thames—Canadian whisky—Contemplate an extensive expedition—A sudden route, and its expensive consequences—Volunteer for court-martial duty—Journey to Hamilton—The Niagara host—The court-martial—The U. S. Fort Niagara—Good feeling between American and British officers—Stories of American duels—Brock's monument—Return to Hamilton—Netherwood—Excursion up the Niagara River—Fort Erie—Buffalo—Visit an American barrack—A boat story—A British patriot—Reach Kingston—Amherstburgh—Penetanguishine	269
--	-----

CHAPTER XVI.

Major General Sir Richard Armstrong—Facilities for desertion at Kingston—The treaty of Washington—A corporal and private desert—Are pursued, captured, and escape again—Author follows them to Watertown U. S.—Return to French Creek—Bill Johnston, the smuggler—The fugitives are arrested—Civility of a countryman—Sympathizers at Watertown—Visit to
--	--