Remember daily the mid-day prayer for missions

"Ask of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermost part of the earth for thy possession."—Ps. li. 8.

THUNDER CHILD'S RESERVE,
BATTLEFORD, October 15th 1898.

My mission includes five of the seven Indian reserves in this part of Saskatchewan, and also the Bresaylor settlement, adjoining this reserve.

The number of Indians on these five reserves is nearly seven hundred, the number of Church families in the settlement is seventeen.

I am the first resident clergyman in the Mission, and we have never had a church either for the Indians or the settlers; hitherto services have been held in schoolhouses. It is almost impossible to carry on the work, as it should be done, either among Indians or settlers without suitable buildings for the worship of Almighty God.

Two suitable mission churches could be built for about one thousand dollars each, some local help in the way of cutting and hauling logs, etc., can be depended upon. I beg, then, to ask that two thousand dollars for two mission churches, one for Indians and one for settlers, may be found for my mission.

The churches will be about eight miles apart. The number of Christian Indians, on the five reserves, is about one hundred and seventy.

D. D. MACDONALD, C. M. S. Missionary.

While heartily endorsing this appeal, I beg that it may receive a quick and favorable response. The want of suitable mission churches in different parts of the country where they are needed, is a serious hindrance to church work.
