NOTES AND COMMENTS

MESSRS. F. D. LEWIS & BRO.,

AMSTERDAM, N. Y., have just purchased the Japanese Bantam cock that won 1st at the New York State Fair, Syracuse. They have also acquired the entire stock of white Polish Bantams owned by Mr. C. P. Earle, Gouverneur, N. Y.

MR. J. B. CLARK, DUNNVILLE, wishes us to say that since informing his friends at the Industrial of his proposed removal to Buffalo, he has changed his mind and will still reside at his old address.

MANHATTAN PARK POULTRY RANCH. This month we give an illustration of this extensive farm. Fancy varieties of numerous kinds are raised as well as poultry for purely market purposes. Pigeons, Angora Rabbits and Fox Terriers also find a home on the "ranch." Mr. Herbert Austin is manager, the proprietor is Mr. T. F. Curtis.

THE GERRED INCUBATOR CO., TORONTO have patented their machine in England and have established an agency there.

SCOOPED THE AMERICANS.

This is what a local paper says of Messrs. Burn & Hansler, Tilsonburg Messrs. M. T. Burn and G. H. Hansler, breeders of poultry, of this town, won great honours with their birds during the past two weeks at the New York and New England state fair at Albany, N. Y. and the New York and Pennsylvania state fair at Elmira, N. Y. At each place there were large exhibits, but the Tilsonburg exhibit was far ahead of all competitors. Twenty-three first and eighteen second prizes were taken by Burn and Hans-
