

of Church Government and Pastoral Theology in the Theological Seminary at Danville, Philadelphia: Joseph M. Wilson, Sold by D. McLellan, Hamilton.

The groundwork of this treatise was an inaugural discourse delivered by the author at the request of the Board of Directors of the Danville Theological Seminary during the sessions of the General Assembly in May 1857. His object is to set forth and illustrate the doctrine of the Presbyterian Church, concerning the Church and its Government. Besides the discussion of this subject, the volume contains the "Schort somme" of the 'First Book of Discipline;' "the second Book of Discipline," Robert Baillie's Letter 1643; Extracts from Gillespie's notes of procedure in the Westminster Assembly; the votes passed in the Westminster Assembly concerning Discipline and Government; and the form of Government agreed upon by the Westminster Assembly. Some of these republications are rare and difficult to be procured. We recommend the work to the careful perusal of all who can procure it. It is peculiarly well-timed, and well fitted to guard the student from an anti-evangelical churchism on the one side, and from an anti-ecclesiastical evangelicalism on the other.

Philadelphia, Presbyterian Board of Publication.

We class together the above named works, as they are principally of the same class. Like the books generally published by the Board, they can be safely recommended as excellent works for the young. The tendency of them all is to develop the various graces of Christianity and to foster a benevolent, self-denying, missionary spirit.

THE FAMILY TREASURY OF SABBATH READING.

EDITED BY THE REV. ANDREW CAMERON. (Formerly Editor of "the Christian Treasury.")

RECOMMENDATORY NOTICES.

The following are a few of the Recommendatory Notices which have already been received by the Publishers.

From the Right Rev. The Bishop of Carlisle.

I think it eminently suited for its object. Cheerful in its tone, varied in its matter, and sound in its doctrine, it must, I think, interest and improve the reader.

From the Rev. J. C. Ryle, Helmingham, Suffolk.

The name of the Editor is a sufficient guarantee for the future character of "THE FAMILY TREASURY." The reading public may confidently expect that in its pages the strict supremacy of Scripture will always be maintained, Christ will have his rightful offices, faith will have its lawful place, the Holy Ghost will be duly honoured, and love towards all who love the Lord Jesus be continually inculcated.

From the Rev. Robert S. Candlish, D. D., Edinburgh.

I thoroughly agree in Dr. Guthrie's recommendation. I have the utmost confidence in Mr. CAMERON'S editorship, and I believe that, under the Divine blessing, he will more than realize, in this New Periodical, the expectations naturally raised by his manner of conducting the "Christian Treasury."

From the Rev. Thomas Guthrie, D. D., Edinburgh.

AUTHOR OF "THE GOSPEL IN EZEKIEL," ETC.

From the very remarkable skill and success with which my friend Mr. Cameron conducted for many years the "Christian Treasury," and to which I have often borne testimony, I had no doubt that the work to which his labours have now been transferred would be equally honourable to him, and useful to the public, and would start at once into the high position to which, among popular religious Periodicals, the "Christian Treasury," attained under his management.

From the Rev. John Caird, A. M., Glasgow, AUTHOR OF "RELIGION IN COMMON LIFE," ETC.

"THE FAMILY TREASURY," more than sustains the high character of the well-known "Christian Treasury," formerly conducted by the Editor of the present Periodical.

Testimonials in favour of the "Family Treasury" have been received also from the following clergymen, viz:—

Rev. Dr. Robertson, Professor of Church History, Edinburgh; Rev. Dr. Glover, Edinburgh; Rev. Alexander Raleigh, London; Rev. Dr. R. Buchanan, Glasgow; Rev. Principal Fairbairn, Glasgow; Rev. Dr. Morison, Editor of Evangelical Magazine; Rev. Andrew Gray, Perth; Rev. Dr. Goold, Edinburgh; Rev. J. H. Rigg, Stockport; Rev. Dr. Andrew Thompson, Edinburgh; Rev. W. M.
