A New Canadian Story.

MISS DEXIE:

A Romance of the Provinces.

By Stanford Eveleth.

Paper, 50 cents. Cloth, $1.00.

We have just issued this charming story, written by a Nova Scotia lady. It is one of the brightest, most entertaining stories given us by a Canadian pen in a long time. Those who have read it are delighted with it. The scene is laid partly in New England and partly in Halifax and Prince Edward Island. The characters are admirably drawn, the conversations are bright and clever, there is plenty of interesting incident, with here and there touches of real dramatic power—indeed in all its 426 pages there is not a dry passage. It is a fresh, breezy, wholesome story that will be read with enjoyment by all who love a good book.

The BEST
Though not the BIGGEST
Life Assurance Company in Canada

Why?

BECAUSE—1st. It has disbursed (in expenses and claims) the least, and laid by (to reserve and surplus) the most, per $1,000 at risk, and also per dollar received in premiums, of any Company doing business in Canada. Therefore it gives the most value for the money.

3. Its plan of arranging the assured in three classes—Abstainers, Non-abstainers, and Women—each class paying for its own losses, is the fairest known.

3. Policy conditions unsurpassed for liberality.

4. No catch-penny, humbug, so-called cheap insurance is used; therefore paying business is not weighed down with selling goods below cost, hence our profits are unsurpassed by any Company.

5. Its lapse ratio is the lowest of any Canadian or American Company.
