

WHICH WILL YOU TAKE?

Artificially Colored and Adulterated Teas of China and Japan—or"SALADA" CEYLON TEASold in its Native Purity Rich and Delicious

Loose Packets Only. Never in Bulk All Grocers.

WATER OF LIFE

FOR OLD AND MIDDLE-AGED PEOPLE.

A concentrated essence of powerful vitalizing agents. Not a medicine but simply a Life Giver and Renewer for the old and middle aged. Dr. Brodie's "Water of Life" will lengthen your days. Price $1.00 11 bottles for $10.50 or 6 bottles for $4.50.
A. H. DIXON, 43 East Bloor Street, Toronto, Ont.
Sole Agents for Canada.DR. C. P. COBBAN, L.D.S., Dentist,537 Sherbourne Street, between Earl and Isabella Sts.DR. SWANN W. C. ADAMS*DENTISTS.

Tel 2419. 95 KING ST. EAST.

Patent Monuments.

Metallic Monuments Enamelled in Granite and Marble superior to stone. See our display at Toronto Exhibition. Agents wanted.Catalogue free.
Phone 2894.Metallic Monument Co., Ltd., 341 Yonge Street, Toronto.

MONUMENTS.

D. McINTOSH & SONS

Manufacturers and Importers of GRANITE and MARBLE Monuments. Best Designs and Lowest Prices in Ontario.
Write us before buying elsewhere.
Works—YONGE ST. DEER PARK.
Office and Showroom—524 YONGE ST. (Opposite Maitland St.)
Please Mention this Paper
TELEPHONE 4719Gas Stoves*RICE LEWIS & SON LIMITEDCor. King and Victoria Streets TORONTO*NIAGARA FALLS LINE DOUBLE TRIPSEMPRESS of INDIA and G.T.R.Daily from Yonge Street Wharf at 7:45 a.m. and 3:20 p.m. for St. Catharines, N.
Falls, Buffalo, N. York, and all points east.
Family books for sale. Low rates to excursion parties. Tickets at all principal agents and at office on wharf.Toronto Railway Company Service Cars into the Parks.Victoria and Munro Parks.—Open cars on King Street run every six minutes. Connections are made at the Junction of Queen Street and the Kingston Road with the Toronto and Scarborough Railway cars, which run direct to the Park gates.High Park. College and Yonge, and Carlton and College cars run every five minutes direct into the Park.Long Branch.—Open cars leave Sunnyside by the Toronto and Mimico Railway every twenty minutes. Special rates from any part of the city to this Park may be had for school and other picnic parties.Private cars and moonlight trips can be arranged for on reasonable terms.

June 11, 1896

JAMES GUNN, Supt.

The Endeavor
HeraldIs the brightest religious paper published in Canada. Every page glows and glistens. Not a dry paragraph in it. Full of help and interest for Christian Endeavorers. Very low subscription rates. Send for sample copies to distribute.Endeavor Herald Co., 35 Richmond St. West, Toronto.Ministers and Churches.Rev. Prof. McLaren, and Rev. R. P. MacKay have left Vancouver for home.Rev. J. M. Grey, has been inducted into the pastorate of the church at Selkirk, Man.Rev. Jas. B. Duncan, of Parry Sound (retired minister), has taken up his residence in Galt.Rev. F. Ballantyne, M.A., of Kirkwall, recently filled the pulpit at Lynden very acceptably.Rev. H. F. Thomas, M.A., Preston, and Mr.
Henry Knox, of Hawkesville, recently exchanged pulpits.Mr. E. W. McKay, B.A., Toronto, has been given a unanimous call to Madoc Presbyterian Church.Rev. Angus McKay, of Lucknow, conducted the services in the church at Bluevale on a recent Sabbath.Rev. D. C. Hossack, of Parkdale, visited his mother and his sister, Mrs. C. C. Field, at Coburg, last week.Rev. D. Strachan, of Rockwood, officiated in the pulpit, Knox Church, Acton, on the two past Sabbaths.Tichborne Presbyterian Church held their annual picnic in the grove near Eagle Lake, on Friday last.The annual picnic of Grimby Presbyterian Sunday school was held at Ainslie Park, Hamilton, last week.Rev. R. Pettigrew, of Glenmorris, addressed the Christian Endeavor meeting in the church at Paris last week.Rev. Hugh A. McPherson, of Galt, was inducted into the pastoral charge of Knox Church, Acton yesterday.Rev. Samuel Acheson, of Kippen, and Rev.
J. A. McDonald, of Varna, exchanged pulpits a week ago Sunday.The Rev. A. C. Bryan, B.D., of Kingston, conducted the services in Knox Church, Canning-ton, last Sabbath.Rev. Mr. Dodds, missionary from Mexico, lectured at Priceville, in the Presbyterian Church, on Wednesday evening last.Rev. J. C. Tolmie, of Windsor, is spending a week in Kingston. Mrs. Tolmie is visiting there and will return home with him.Miss Florence Robinson, of Lindsay, recently enjoyed a two weeks' visit with Mrs. (Rev. Dr.) McTavish, of Toronto, at Sturgeon Point.Professor Archibald MacMechan of Dalhousie College, Halifax, his wife and children, are visiting this week at the Old Manse, Port Perry.Mr. John McConnell, student, has gone to Ompah, 4th Line North Sherbrooke, to take charge of the Presbyterian church for a month.Rev. J. A. R. Dickson, B.D., Ph.D., of Galt, who, together with his daughter, spent three weeks at Ocean Grove, N.J., has returned to his work.During the absence of Rev. Dr. Hamilton, of Motherwell, in Manitoba, his pulpit has been occupied by Mr. F. H. Barron, a student of Knox College.After a visit of ten days to this city, Rev. M. P.
Talling, of London, together with his wife, returned to the Forest City, and occupied his pulpit on Sunday.On Sunday last the Rev. Dr. Sexton preached in Harrington Presbyterian Church in the morning, and in Knox Church, Stratford, in the evening.At a recent meeting of the congregations of North East Hope and Hampstead, it was decided to extend a call to the Rev. R. F. Cameron, of Cranbrook.Rev. J. S. Hardie, pastor of Stanley Street Church, Ayr, preached to a union meeting of his congregation with that of Knox Church, a week ago Sunday.In the holiday absence of Rev. Duncan M.
Buchanan, his pulpit at Lanark was occupied by the Rev. Mr. McConnel, who returned to his home in Venetia last week.No services took place in the Belleville churches a week ago Sunday. Rev. M. W. Mc-Lean was confined to his room, and Rev. T. J.
Thompson was in Kingston.Rev. Principal Grant preached two admirable sermons in New St. Andrew's Church, in this city, on Sunday last. He will occupy the same pulpit on the coming Sabbath.Rev. W. Patterson, B.A., made a touching reference to the untimely demise of the Hon. W.
D. Balfour, in a sermon preached a week ago Sunday, in the church at Leamington.At Appleton the pulpit of St. Andrew's Church was last Sunday morning occupied by the pastor, Rev. G. T. Hayne, the Rev. R. McNair, of Carleton Place, officiating in the evening.Rev. W. T. Herridge, of Ottawa, it is expected, will occupy his pulpit next Sunday. He returns on Saturday from Bedford, N.S., where he has been spending the summer.Mr. Nicol, organist of the First Presbyterian Church, Brockville, is now upon his holidays. In his absence Miss Maggie Abbott and Mr. Geo.
Hunter will have charge of the organ.Rev. D. McTavish, M.A., D.Sc., of Central Church, this city, sailed from Liverpool on Saturday last, and is expected to preach on Sunday, when he will be welcomed by a large congregation.Rev. William Frizzell, of this city, has returned from a two months' trip to Europe, most of which was spent with relations at Dungannon, Ireland. He is feeling considerably benefited by his outing.Rev. W. J. Clarke, of London, and his two children, who have been on a three months' visit to the old country, are now at home. Mr. Clarke occupied his pulpit, for the first time since his return, on Sunday.Three prominent members of Knox Church, Stratford—John McIntosh, Thomas Brown and Mrs. Armstrong—have recently died. Last Sunday morning Rev. M. L. Leitch preached a memorial discourse.Rev. W. G. Jordan, B.D., after having spent a very enjoyable month in this city, returned to Strathroy, along with his family, last week. The subject of Mr. Jordan's evening discourse on Sunday was "The Future Life."Rev. Robert McNair, pastor of St. Andrew's Church, Carleton Place, has been reappointed Chief of the Eastern Division of the Order of Foresters. The meeting at which he was thus honored was held at Ottawa last week.Rev. T. A. Bell, of Avonton, preached in Knox and Kilmartin churches, Belmont, recently.
His sermons were characterized by directness and clearness, were thoroughly earnest and practical, and were listened to by large congregations.Rev. J. A. McConnell, of Orangeville, who during the summer filled very acceptably the pulpit of St. Andrew's Church, Lark, in which congregation he made "many friends by his genial and sociable bearing," has returned to his home.Rev. John Hall, of Knox College, occupied the pulpit in Knox Church, Dutton, last Sabbath.
The Sabbath school picnic to Whiteside's, Tuesday of last week, was a decided success. A large crowd attended and a very enjoyable afternoon was spent.Rev. E. Lawrence Hunt, B.A., and Mr. J.
Lovell Murray, B.A., two well-known graduates of Toronto University, delivered addresses in the College Street Church on Sunday evening. Their subject was the Students' Volunteer Movement for Foreign Missions.Rev. Louis H. Jordan, B.D., preached from his own pulpit in St. James' Square Church, city, on Sunday, for the first time since his return after two months spent in the Maritime Provinces.
His discourses were exceptionally good, that of the evening being particularly thoughtful and suggestive.Rev. T. J. Thompson, of Belleville, has been called upon to mourn the loss of his wife by death.
She died at the home of her parents in Kingston, where, before her marriage last December, as Miss Hattie M. Baker, she took an Arts course at Queen's University, graduating with the degree of M.A.The service in Knox Church, Sundridge, was conducted a week ago Sunday morning by Mr.
Cheyne of Knox College, who for the summer has charge of the Hartfell Mission. Rev. W. J. Dey, of Simcoe, who with his family was spending his holidays in that town, preached in the evening.Rev. S. H. Eastman and family have returned to Oshawa, after a month's holiday very pleasantly spent at Orillia. Mr. Eastman occupied the pulpit of Dr. Grant's church for several Sundays, and the satisfaction evidenced by his hearers was quite marked. He is a solid, earnest, interesting preacher.Rev. Mr. Waddell, of Scotland, a week ago, occupied the pulpit in St. Andrew's Church, Beaverton, Sunday morning, and in the evening it was filled by the Rev. D. Y. Ross, of St. George.
Mr. Waddell is the father-in-law of Mr. John Proctor, a wealthy and prominent citizen of Beaverton.Rev. D. Y. Ross, of St. George, after spending a very pleasurable holiday, has returned to his work at St. George. Mr. Ross occupied a cottage at Ethel Park, Beaverton, during the major part of his vacation. He visited the scene of his old charge, at Cannington, during his visit, stopping with Dr. Gillespie.The Church at Belwood, after having been thoroughly repaired, was reopened on Sunday.
Rev. John McInnis, of Elora, preached in the morning and Rev. James B. Mullan, of Fergus, in the evening. Rev. Peter J. McLaren, B.A., pastor of the congregation, is to be congratulated on the progress made under his direction.Rev. George Gilmore, of the North Presbyterian Mission, reports that he is meeting with great success in his collections on behalf of the Pottersburg new Presbyterian Church. He says building operations will be pushed forward with all despatch, and that the edifice will probably be open, free of debt, about the middle of October.Rev. R. P. MacKay and Rev. Prof. McLaren, D.D., lately paid a visit to Union and Alberni, British Columbia. While at Union, five Chinese were baptized and received into connection with the Presbyterian Church. The church building was packed with Chinese during the ceremony, and at the close of the service quite a number of these remained to converse with Dr. McLaren and Mr. MacKay and to express their sympathy with the work.Dominion Stained Glass Co.

Established 1881.

Manufacturers of CHURCH
DOMESTIC and ORNAMENTAL
GLASS.Correspondence Solicited Designs with Estimates on application.

94 Adelaide St. W.

TORONTO
Tel. 933.Rev. Professor Beattie has returned to Louisville, his presence being needed there for the very agreeable reason that the Theological Seminary has been made the recipient of property to the amount of $40,000, which gives it now a very complete equipment.Rev. James G. Stewart, of London, and Rev.
W. A. Hunter, of Toronto, spent their vacation together on a wheeling tour. They made Montreal their headquarters, and from that city took many expeditions into the surrounding country.
Both the reverend gentlemen have now returned to their charges, much refreshed by the enjoyable weeks of out-door life.Rev. Robert Aylward, of Parkhill, after having filled the pulpit of the church at Petrolia for four successive Sundays, returned to his home on Tuesday of last week. Before departing from "oil town," Mr. Aylward gave a lecture on "Hymns and Hymn-writers," the enjoyment of the evening being enhanced by solos from Miss Maggie Primmer and Mr. Fred Colter.After twenty years of service in Stirling and West Huntingdon, the Rev. James M. Gray, has accepted a call to Manitoba. His late parishioners learned this intelligence with regret, and their sentiments were given verbal form in several lengthy addresses read at a farewell meeting. To Mr. Gray is mainly owing the large share of prosperity that this Ontario field has experienced.The Church at West Adelaide was beautifully decorated with fruit and flowers recently on the occasion of a harvest festival. An excellent programme was presented, consisting of addresses by Rev. Messrs. Currie, Graham, Baldwin, Bristol and others. Music by the Strathroy and Thedford choirs, and recitations by Miss McLean, of War-ford. Mr. E. Roland, of Strathroy, filled the chair in a very acceptable manner.The Board of Manitoba College met recently to attend to some pressing business. In the absence of the chairman, Rev. Dr. DuVal presided and Prof. Hart's place as secretary was taken by Rev. Mr. Farquharson. The others present were Revs. Dr. Robertson, John Hogg, K. G.
MacBeth, C. B. Pitblado and A. Dawson. The Board elected the same Senate as held office last year, with the exception that Mr. J. C. Saul takes the place of Mr. James Fisher, M.P.P., he being the representative of the graduates on the Board.
Revs. Prof. Hart and Dr. Bryce who were appointed representatives on the University Council were also selected. A resolution of sympathy with Prof.
Hart in his illness was passed.Delicious Drink*Horsford's Acid Phosphatewith water and sugar only, makes a delicious, healthful and invigorating drink.Allays the thirst, aids digestion, and relieves the lassitude so common in midsummer.Dr. M. H. Henry, New York, says:
"When completely tired out by prolonged wake-fulness and overwork, it is of the greatest value to me. As a beverage it possesses charms beyond anything I know of in the form of medicine."

De ceiptive pamphlet free.

Rumford Chemical Works, Providence, R.I.

Beware of Substitutes and Imitations.