Dallea 434 423 J Wright The first tie shot off during the contest occurred in this match, Sergeant Shea make ing a centre and two bull's eyes, against Sergeant Storey's centre, bull's eye, and centre. At the conclusion of this match the non commissioned officers of the 34th Battalion challenged a like number of officers to fire a match at 400 and 200 yards, Hythe Post tion. This was accepted; but the claim of the privates to be permitted to compete was allowed; and the most stirring contest of the week was the result. The score is appended. It is in every way a remarkable one, and proves that, after all, as good, if not better shooting is made off the shoulder and knee as in "any position." The ave rage for each man of the thirty competitors was twenty-eight and a half points. It probable that such a score cannot be beaten by a like number of men from any battalion in the Dominion. At 200 yards twenty fig. points over an average of centres was made. Ten Privates. 400y. 200y R Crawford, . 19 19 T G Blackstock,
