

Maritime Notes,

Rev. M. G. Henry has returned from Harbor Grace.

Rev. A. H. Cameron is laboring at Metapedia for a time.

Rev. E. McNab has resigned the charge of Newport congregation.

A Society of Christian Endeavor was formed in New Annapolis, April 23rd.

Rev. R. Laing has resigned the pastorate of St. Matthew's church, Halifax.

The financial report of Sydney Presbytery shows a marked increase in liberality.

Rev. J. W. McLennan has been called to the congregation of West Cornwallis.

Mr. T. S. Coffin, licentiate, goes to Bay of Islands, Nfld., for the summer.

Sydney Presbytery meets in Falmouth St. Church, on the third of June at 10 o'clock.

Halifax Presbytery has now eight vacancies. Last year its vacancies were all filled.

Rev. S. Rosborough has tendered his resignation of the congregation of Sheet Harbor.

The Presbyterians of Lower Stewiacke intend erecting a manse during the coming summer.

Grove Church, Richmond, calls Rev. J. F. Smith, who has for the past year labored in River Hebert.

Sydney Presbytery approves the remit that the representation to Assembly be reduced to one-sixth.

The Presbytery of Wallace has made application to the Hunter Fund for aid in building a new church.

Rev. D. McLean has resigned the pastoral charge of the congregation of Earltown and W. B. River John.

Rev. J. W. McLellan has been called to the congregations of Montrose, P. E. I., Waterville and Lakeville, N. S.

Mr. Alexander Laird, Student Catechist, has been appointed to assist Mr. Graham, the pastor of St. Johns, Nfld.

The separation of the congregation of Pugwash and Oxford into two separate pastoral charges from June 2nd.

Urbania, Hants Co., has a Society of Christian Endeavour, with twenty active, and three associate members.

The International line of steamers running from Annapolis to Boston has this season stopped the running of its boats on Sabbath.

Halifax Presbytery, on May 1st, licensed the following students: Messrs. D. McD. Clark, T. S. Coffin, A. W. McLeod, Chas. McKay, F. W. Murray.

The congregation of Welford, New Brunswick, Rev. Wm. McLeod, pastor, has built a fine new church, which was opened on Sabbath, May 11, by Rev. N. McKay.

By the will of the late Peter Ross, of Halifax, his widow has the use of this property during her life and at her death it goes to the Presbyterian Theological College.

The executors of the Gregor estate, Cove Head, P. E. Island, have paid in to the Agent of the Church $200 for the schemes. This amount is to be given yearly for ten years.

The Voice announces that arrangements have been completed with ex-Governor St. John, of Kansas, one of the great prohibition leaders, for forty nights in the Maritime Provinces.

Rev. John Murray and D. McMillan were appointed by Sydney Presbytery, a delegation to visit Cape North in May. Mr. Murray to moderate in a call to Rev. E. McKenzie while there.

On the evening of May 4th, Rev. L. H. Jordan, formerly of St. Andrew's Church, Halifax, preached his farewell sermon in Erskine Church, Montreal. He proceeds to Germany to pursue a special course of study.

The commissioners to Assembly from Sydney Presbytery are Messrs. Forbes, D. McMillan, W. Calder, A. Farquharson, ministers; and D. McLennan, Exq., Alex. McAskill, Capt. McKay, and W. Campbell, elders.

Sheet Harbour congregation, after enjoying the services of Rev. S. Rosborough for nearly six years, is again to be vacant. This congregation is so extensive that a minister cannot endure for many years so much physical toil. Steps should be taken to effect a division.

The catechists in the Presbytery of Sydney are appointed for the summer as follows:—Mr. Malcolm McLeod to North River and North Shore, Neil K. McLennan to South Gut and English Town; W. W. Rainnie to Little Bras d'Oor; and D. O. McKay to Louisburg.

The Presbyterians of Mulgrave, have completed their pretty church, and it was formally opened for Divine service on Sabbath,