

SINCLAIR'S JOURNAL

OF

BRITISH

North

America.

VOL. 1.

QUEBEC, 12TH MAY, 1849.

No. 6.

CONTENTS.

Electric Telegraphs under the Sea.
Adventures of a Night.
Poetry.
Correspondents.
Sketches of distinguished men—The Napier Family.
The Sikhs.
Canada.—Incidents of Canadian Travel.
Colonial Governors.
Advertisements.

Electric Telegraphs under the Sea.

A question at present exciting much attention is that of electric telegraphs under the sea. It is proposed to enclose the coated wires within a leaden tube, which, being sunk, will in a short time bend and fit itself to the conformation of the sea bottom. No difficulty is anticipated in laying down such a line across the chan-