IMITATION

is sometimes called the sincere form of flattery. This may account for the number of imitations of the original and only positive corn cure—Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor.

Most men remember obligations, but not often to be grateful for them. The proud are made sour by the remembrance, and the vain silent.

It is a dangerous thing to neglect a cough or cold or any difficulty of the throat or lungs. Lose not a moment in getting a bottle of Johnson's Anodyne Liniment.

Individuality is everywhere to be spared and respected, as the root of everything good.

We advise every farmer or stock raiser to invest in "Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Powders" and feed them out to their herds this winter.

The chains of habit are generally too small to be felt till they are too strong to be broken.

Virtue pardons the wicked, as the sandal tree perfumes the axe that strikes it.

The question whether the wheat of Manitoba can be transported through Hudson's Bay direct to Liverpool is of serious moment to this country as well as to Canada.

SIMSON'S LINIMENT.

A LETTER FROM QUEREC.

[Translated from the French.] Gentlemen.—I have deferred writing the letter to testify to the benefits derived from the use of your Simson's Liniment.

I can certify that in every case where I have used it upon myself, I have been very well satisfied.

Mr. N. Mooney, of St. Sylvester, had a bad leg which was said to be incurable. I told him to use Simson's Liniment, and it has effected a complete cure in a very short time.

I have been assured of the cures of these people, and the remedy having become known, it has created quite a demand, people coming as far as 35 miles to procure it for themselves.

Mr. Wm. Bennett, of St. Ferdinand, has had it some time for himself, and he has bought it for his friends, suffering from Rheumatism, and they have all been well satisfied.

I have never known any medicine to have had such good results about here as Simson's Liniment.

Hoping that it will prove as satisfactory elsewhere. I am yours, truly, DAMASE PAGENT.
