DEACONS IN THE CHURCH.

We hail the rate movement of our Church in the matter of the Diaconate, as one of the best signs of our times. It is Churchmen, that they are not doing what the Church was designed to do, and what it is capable of doing, in the work of 'preaching the Gospel to every creature;' while it affords the most gratifying evidence of the Kingdom of Christ on earth. a disposition to return to the practice of every order of an Apostolic ministry.

The Canon was passed, and was regarded by many as the beginning of a better state of things. But the measure was a failure. Very few were the measure was a failure. Very few were ordained under it. It had a two-fold defect, and that was enough to nullify the good it 75,000 men to besiege it, and, when therefore, the was designed to accomplish; it virtually smaller force has lost the artificial protecti created a fourth Order of the Ministry—a its ramparts, the contest seldom remains doubtsort of sub-deacon-since a broad distinc- ful. tion was made between those ordained under this Canon, and such as were ordained under the old Canon, with the intention and expectation of being advanced to the Priest-hood; there were thus created two distinct classes of Deacons. Now, there is not, and is not to be in the Apostolic ministry and is not to be in the Apostolic ministry the interior, and the north side is left completely sub-Priests and sub-Bishops. The people asked for Deacons—Apostolic Deacons, and the General Convention authorized the defending and the forces have been gradually whereas the allied forces have been gradually dependent to their contractions. So that, however urgent the demand of the people—however willing the Convention—however the convention—however willing the Convention—however with the convention and the convention are convention. pressing the necessity of the circumstances of any particular case—and however fit and well qualified the candidate—the Bishop had the power of his own will to frustruct the whole mutter and in some in exercising this prerogative.

In 1853, the General Convention repealed this Canon, and enacted another, by which both errors which distinguished and extinguished the Canon of 1847 were rectified by being excluded altogether.

This Canon provides that every person hereafter to be ordained Deacon, shall be exemined by the Bishop and two Presbyters, whose duty it shall be to assertain that he is well acquainted with the Holy Scriptures and the Book of Common Prayer; and who shall inquire into his fitness for the ministrations declared in a serious provides that every possible the ministrations declared in the Scota and Sanguage of the stream of the ministrations declared in the Scota and Tenetary to 6 3 an advantages of the serious error were well acquainted for shot and so far were we from establishing an advantage in this respect that on the second day of the cannonade, their fire was superfor to our own. Their front of defence, instead of representing a confined space, exposed to all the concentrated fire of the attack, is actually, as Lord Raglan describes, "more extended" than our own, and they [the besieged force] are thus in the possession of the advantages ordinarily enjoyed by the besiegers.

In point of fact, there would really be little exaggeration in saying that one of the armies in the Crimea is as effectually "besieged" as the other. Both have their communications open—the Russians before Sebastopol, the allies on the heights of Balaklass and, as far as one of the ministrations declared in the second of the static formulary to 7 6 Aucculation and Percussion. December to 8 one of the second of the sec ters, whose duty it shall be to assertain that he is well acquainted with the Holy Scriptures and the Book of Common Prayer; and who shall inquire into his fitness for the ministrations declared in the Ordinal, &c. Such person is required to be a candidate for one year. He is not allowed to be settled over a Parish or congregation, until he shall have satisfactorily passed the three examinations prescribed the Russians by land and the allies by sea; both have their strong positions—the Russians before sebastopol, the allies on the eights of Balaklava; and, as far as operations have hitherto proceeded, it would be hard to say which party seemed to be the assailants and which the defenders. We are battering the works of the Russians, but they are also battering ours, and whereas we have not yet regularly assaulted their strong positions—the Russians before sebastopol, the allies by sea; both have their strong positions—the Russians before have their strong positions—the Russians before sebastopol, the allies on the eights of Balaklava; and, as far as operations have hitherto proceeded, it would be hard to say which party seemed to be the assailants and which the defenders. We are battering the works of the Russians by land and the allies by sea; both have their strong positions—the Russians before sebastopol, the allies on the legists of Balaklava; and, as far as operations have hitherto proceeded, it would be hard to say which party seemed to be the assailants and which the defenders. The Diaconate is thus placed upon its primitive foundation, and if it be not used with primitive success, it will be our own. with primitive success, it will be our own any of the advantages of besiegers, we are not without some of the advantages of the opposite enabled to repulse the attacks of an enemy numerically superior to ourselves. So far, therefore, although the actual siege of Sebastopol may have advanced but slowly, the events of that campaign are favorable to us.

Copy of a Letter from J. Noble, Esq., Mayor of Boston,

To Professor Holloway. — D-ar Sir, —Mrs. Sarah
Dixon, of Liquorpond-street, Boston, has this day deposed before me, that for a considerable period she was severely afflieted with Scrofulous Sores and Ulcers in her arms, feet, legs, and other parts of her body; and although the first of medical advice was obtained, at the cost of a large sum of m. ney. she obtained no abatement of suffering, but gradually grew worse. Being recommended by a friend to try your Ointment, she procured a small pot, and a box of the Pills, and before that was all used, symptoms of amendment appeared. By persevering with the medicines for a short time longer, according to the directions, and strictly adhering to your rules as to diet, &c., she was perfectly cured, and now enjoys the best of health.

My sufferings were very great, and I quite despaired of any permanent amendment, when I was advised to have recourse to your Ointment and Pills. I did so without delay, and am happy to say the result was eminently successful, for they effected a radical cure of my leg and restored me to the enjoyment of health. I shall ever speak with the utmost confidence of your medicines, and have recommended them to others in this neighbourhood similarly afflicted, who derived equal benefit.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. T. F. Ker, Chemist. & C., Louer Moss-lane, Manchester, dated Feb. 12th, 1853.

To Professor Holloway.—Dear Sir.—I have great pleasure to forwarding to you the particulars of a very extraordinary cure of a bad breast effected solely by the use of your celebrated Oithment and Pills. Mrs. Martha Bell, of Pitt-street in this town, has been for a considerable time labouring under nervous debility, loss of appetite, and general ill nealth, occasioned by ulcerated wounds in the breast. She had had much experience in the use of all the known remedies for the cure of ulcers, but without any beneficial result.—in fact, she had nearly lost all faith and hope of a cure being effected. In this distressing and painful condition of body and mind, she was persuaded to have recourse to your invaluable Ointment and Pills, which she immediately did, and in the course of a very short time the effect produced was most astonishing: her appetite was speedily improved, the sores and ulcers in the breast gradually healed, and the nervous excitement of her system was wholly removed.

I remain, dear Sir, yours faithfully, (Signed) T. FORSTER KER.
