

The patrons of the Dining Hall are complaining that there was no turkey on Thanksgiving Day! Never mind, boys—buy your tickets for the dinner on the 10th, and have all the turkey you want!

Herbie O'Flynn, '03, spent Thanksgiving day at the old homestead in Madoc.

The president of the '04 Debating Society is still debating whether the score at the Argo-Varsity match was 5-2 or 5-1.

McG—v—n, '04 (translating in Spanish): "I once made love to a young lady whom I had never met—" (hesitates). Professor: "What's the difficulty in the next sentence, Mr. McG.?" (Professor continues translation)—"Young man, you should never do that!"

Messrs. H. T. Wallace, '02, Morrison and Bell, '03, and Lloyd, '04, took their accustomed climb up the Hamilton mountain after eating Thanksgiving dinner at home. A certain precocious freshe delights in locating at the Faculty Table every Sunday morning. The intellectual atmosphere will doubtless have a "brainy" effect, but still we would advise him to remain with the "profanum vulgus" for some time yet.

There is nothing like Asthmalene. It brings instant relief, even in the worst cases. It cures when all else fails.

The Rev. C. F. WELLS, of Villa Ridge, Ill., says: "Your trial bottle of Asthmalene received in good condition. I cannot tell you how thankful I feel for the good derived from it. I was a slave, chained with putrid sore throat and asthma for ten years. I despaired of ever being cured. I saw your advertisement for the cure of this dreadful and tormenting disease, asthma, and thought that you had overspoken yourselves, but resolved to give it a trial. To my astonishment the trial acted like a charm. Send me a full-size bottle."

We want to send to every sufferer a trial treatment of Asthmalene, similar to the one that cured Mr. Wells. We'll send it by mail, POSTPAID, ABSOLUTELY FREE OF CHARGE, to any sufferer who will write for it, even on a postal. Never mind, though you are despairing, however bad your case, Asthmalene will relieve and cure. The worse your case, the more glad we are to send it. Do not delay. Write at once, addressing DR.
