

Appendix L

SOURCES OF STATISTICAL INFORMATION IN INDIA

India has a large amount of statistical information available and it is of a reasonably high quality. Some of the main sources are:

- Economic Survey of the Ministry of Finance;
- Centre for monitoring the Indian Economy, monthly and annual reports;
- Census of India 1991 (ten-yearly data)
- Budget of the Central Government (annual, Ministry of Finance)
- Estimates of National Product Saving and Capital Formation (annual)
- Monthly Abstract of Statistics
- Annual National Account Statistics
- Report on Currency and Finance (annual; Reserve Bank, Bombay)
- Reserve Bank of India, Bulletin (monthly)
- Monthly and annual Trade Statistics of the DGCIS (Calcutta)
- hindu Survey of Indian Industry