

legislation for the provision of insured medical care services in Canada will be satisfactory unless it:

(a) secures co-operation of the governments of the provinces of Canada;

(b) recognizes the principle of voluntary choice by the individual;

(c) makes adequate prior provision for sufficient medical research, the training of adequate numbers of doctors and other medical personnel; and

(d) immediately provides for those persons who are unable, for financial reasons, to provide medical services for themselves."

And debate continuing;

[At 5.00 o'clock p.m., Private Members' Business was called pursuant to provisional Standing Order 15(3)]

(Public Bills)

Orders numbered one, two and three having been called were allowed to stand at the request of the government.
