

Bennett, Hon. R. B.—Con.

- Alberta, natural resources bill, 246, 1543, 1562, 1569, 1691
- Anonymous pamphlet, members and, 2328
- Australian and Chinese steamships subsidies, 2864
- Australian treaty
Amdt. (Mr. Gardiner), 1011
Amdt. (Mr. Senn), 288, 489, 506, 732
Amdt. (Mr. Casgrain), 376
Want of confidence vote, and, 735
- Automobiles, change in customs duties, 2937
- Balfour, Lord, death of, 741
- Banff national park, 1577, 1931
- Beauharnois Power Corporation, M. (Mr. Gardiner), 2393, 2417
- Biscuit manufacturing industry, competition, 2492
- "Blue ruin" speeches, and, 36, 1021
- Bounty on coal for smelting bill, 2722, 2726
- Bourke patent bill, 1970
- Breweries and distilleries, qu., 414
- British Columbia natural resources, 101, 821
- British Empire Steel Corporation, 2726
- British North America Act
M. (Mr. Mackenzie King), 2625-6
Message to Senate, 2795
- British millers and wheat pool, 19-20, 41-42
- British preference
Application of, 1822
Imports under, 2238
- Budget, 1678. Free trade tariff policy of Liberals at variance with the budget; imposition of countervailing duties a retaliatory policy; policy made in Washington, 1678; increasing the British preference; reclassifying and juggling with tariff schedules; handing over to Washington the power to make our tariff; reciprocity agreement of 1911, 1679; surrender of legislative authority; no effort made to protect Canadian industries and market gardeners; adjournment of debate, 1680; definition of budget statement; committees of supply and ways and means; no means of knowing the prospective revenues and proposed expenditure for fiscal year ending March 31, 1931; redress of grievances before supply, 1811; omissions from the budget statement; result of financial operations for last year; three methods of determining the revenue of the country; result of imposition of taxes, 1812; statement of Finance Minister that revenues have increased

Bennett, Hon. R. B.—Con.

Budget—Con.

although taxation has been diminished; taxation per capita larger than in any year since 1922; burden of taxation; revenues apart from taxation; interest on investments and revenue from special sources; total reduction of national debt; sales tax, 1813; total collection of sales tax since 1921-22, 1814; abolition of nuisance taxes; diminution of national business; adverse balance and lessening of volume of trade; collection of $83,000,000 of British indebtedness through the late Mr. Larkin, 1815; increases and decreases in taxation about equal each other; increase of imports and decrease of exports to the United States; great basis of taxation is still the customs tax, 1816; fall in stock market values; shrinkage in values of oil stocks and speculative mining stocks and securities; lessening of the borrowing power of the people; house should not be asked to go into committee of ways and means unless it knows how much money it has to raise, 1817; position of Mr. Dunning and Mr. Crerar; proposed tariff changes and customs proposals; Mr. W. H. Moore and the Mackenzie and Mann enterprises; underlying principles of the budget; iron and steel schedules and the approaching election, 1818; recommendations of the Duncan commission, 1819; protection of the steel industry; the consumers' league; Mr. R. J. Deachman on the budget, 1820; downward revision of the tariff; letter of resignation of Hon. Mr. Crerar in 1919, 1821; duty on cast iron pipe raised 100 per cent; protection on furniture; five per cent surtax on alloy steel, 1821; possibility of United Steel Corporation mills at the Soo and Ojibway; countries to which British preferential tariffs apply, 1822; imports from empire sources on which preferential duty is altered in 1930 budget, 1823-4; importation of metals; free entries under the British preference, 1925; Canada first; the economic conference; trade preferences must be mutually advantageous; two great problems confronting British people; trade and commerce and migration,