

PUBLIC SERVICE—POSITIONS RECLASSIFIED

Question No. 14—Mr. Orlikow:

In each of the past five years, by department, for each occupational group earning $20,000 or more in 1978 and 1979, how many (a) public service positions were reclassified upward (green-circled) and/or downward (red-circled) (b) individuals continued to hold a public service position after the position had been reclassified?

Hon. Sinclair Stevens (President of Treasury Board): To provide a complete reply would entail a costly and time-consuming examination of all personnel and incumbent files in all departments and agencies. The cost of this study would be prohibitive in terms of both manpower and time.

NATO—CAST COMMITMENT

Question No. 177—Mr. Herbert:

1. (a) What was the total CAST commitment to NATO, in numbers of men, agreed to by Canada when it was first entered into (b) which units were tasked to provide these men (c) what equipment was committed to this force?

2. What have been the changes in the commitment in (a) numbers of men (b) the units which were tasked to provide the men (c) the equipment which was committed to this force and, in each case, what was the date that a change was made?

3. (a) What was the total CAST commitment in numbers of men, as of January 1, 1979 (b) which units were tasked to provide them (c) what equipment was committed to this force?

4. (a) What is the planned total CAST commitment by Canada in numbers of men, effective September 1980, in light of the Minister of National Defence's statement on October 31, 1978 (b) which units are earmarked to provide them (c) what equipment is it planned to commit to this force?

Hon. Allan B. McKinnon (Minister of National Defence and Minister of Veterans Affairs):

1. (a) Approximately 5,300
- (b) Two Canadian Brigade Group including:
 - Second Regiment Royal Canadian Horse Artillery
 - Eighth Canadian Hussars-Princess Louise's-Regiment
 - Two Combat Engineer Squadron
 - Two Canadian Brigade Group Headquarters and Signals Squadron
 - Second Battalion Canadian Guards
 - First Battalion Royal Canadian Regiment
 - Deuxième Bataillon Royal 22^e Régiment
 - Combat Service Support Units
 - Two Tactical Fighter Squadrons
- (c) This type of detail is classified
2. (a) No significant change
- (b) Two Canadian Brigade Group July 1, 1969
Cinquième Groupement de Combat July 1, 1977
- (c) This type of detail is classified

Order Paper Questions

3. (a) Approximately 5,300
- (b) Cinquième Groupement de Combat including:
 - Le 5^e Régiment d'artillerie Légère
 - Le 12^e Régiment Blindé
 - Le 5^e Régiment de Génie de Combat
 - First Battalion Royal Canadian Regiment
 - Les 2^e and 3^e Bataillons du Royal 22^e Régiment
 - Combat Service Support Units
 - One Helicopter Squadron
 - Two Tactical Fighter Squadrons
- (c) This type of detail is classified
4. (a) Approximately 4,300
- (b) The Special Service Force including:
 - Second Regiment Royal Canadian Horse Artillery
 - Eight Canadian Hussars-Princess Louise's-Regiment
 - Two Combat Engineer Regiment
 - Special Service Force Headquarters and Signals Squadron
 - First Battalion Royal Canadian Regiment
 - Canadian Airborne Regiment
 - One Battalion Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry (specific battalion not yet designated)
 - Combat Service Support Units
 - One Helicopter Squadron
 - Two Tactical Fighter Squadrons
- (c) This type of detail is classified

EMPLOYED MARRIED WOMEN

Question No. 410—Mr. Lambert (Bellechasse):

On March 31, 1979, what was the total number of married women holding jobs in Canada and what was their average weekly income?

Hon. Sinclair Stevens (President of Treasury Board): Statistics Canada reports: Estimates from Statistics Canada's monthly labour force survey, which refer to the week ending March 17, 1979, indicate that the number of married women employed in Canada at that time was 2,393,000. Data regarding their average weekly income is not available.

FAMILIES—AVERAGE INCOME

Question No. 412—Mr. Lambert (Bellechasse):

On March 31, 1979, what was the average income of Canadian families?