

is so far only as will promote their party views, which once obtained, they would not scruple to endeavour to humble their mother country; witness their joining in exultation about the taking of some of our frigates.

"I fear that I am becoming tiresome, and must conclude, but not before submitting to you these questions, after a perusal of the foregoing observations.

"Can there be a doubt about the practical as well as abstract right of employing the Indians in our and their defence; and is there not now an imperious necessity for manifesting to America, by every practicable means, our power of compelling her to do them and us justice?

"Can there be a Briton now so lost to all feeling and sense of national honor, as not to be roused to indignation, when the motive, the time, and all the circumstances of the American declaration of war, as also their practice under it, are taken into consideration?

"Can America, as a nation, be at present considered in any other light than a parricide, deliberately aiming at the life of her parent; and that, to promote the triumph of the MERCILESS USURPER who is desolating continental Europe? Surely Heaven will punish, even in this world, a conduct so superlatively unnatural. For the facts within stated I pledge my veracity, and leave you to make such use of them as you shall judge most conducive to the cause of truth, and of OUR COMMON COUNTRY, at the present alarming crisis!"

even this
at their
what they
nes of sup-
e, at which
at the plea-
nce of the
kinds had
to them with hibited from
tion; non-
withstandin ations (and
ght of inter-
of Indians,
contrary, are
reduced the
rings system-
t is a curious
rdy advocates
e not ashamed
ical invasion
d completely
; and this at
rality, and to
acts, invading
ples; and of Americans, I
a great majo-
ly contains a
e of a British
Great Britain
re our friends