

WAINFLEET—Lies in the county of Lincoln, on lake Erie, and is a most delightful situation. It is particularly well situated for water, having lake Erie in front, and the Welland river to the north.

WALPOLE—Is in the county of Norfolk, and also lies on lake Erie ; its situation is good, the soil favourable, and doubtless in a reasonable time will form a numerous settlement.

WALSINGHAM—Lies in the county of Norfolk, and is bounded by Long-point bay. This spot is much admired by most travellers, particularly Europeans ; the soil is good, the society respectable, and seems to invite strangers with more success than the usual settlements.

WESTMINSTER—Lies on the river Thames, adjoining to London ; its local situation is good, but, in common with other distant townships, proceeds rather slowly.

WHITBY—Is situated in the east riding of the county of York, on lake Ontario. Its vicinity to the seat of government commands particular advantages.

WHITCHURCH—Lies also in the east riding of the county of York, and adjoins to Yonge-street, a settlement of great importance in the neighbourhood of York.
