

Municipal

i. 20, 36,

merica, ii.

i. 215

e), i. 59,

, 23, 414,

ers, i. 594,

, ii. 399

559

See Cabinet

t by public

, i. 645

, i. 566

on, ii. 48 ;

ts working

e for office

Rings and

74 ; Ma-

111 ; the

141, 270 ;

6 ; the no-

ssachusetts,

democracy,

nder Party

440

State Con-

3, 275

78

merica : its nyor, 594 ;

ncil, 596 ;

functions,

oston, 600 ;

of St. Louis, 603 ; tests of efficiency, 606 ; case of Philadelphia, 606 ; the system a conspicuous failure, 608 ; nature of the evil, 609 ; its causes, 610-614 ; remedies proposed, 615 ; Hon. Seth Low on municipal government, 620 ; system of Brooklyn, 625 ; problem of the legislative branch of city government, 632 ; tendency towards improvement, 633 ; system provided by the Californian Constitution, 730 ; corruption, ii. 130 ; efforts of reformers, 140 ; system of New York City, 336

NATIONAL Debt. See Debt

National Nominating Conventions. See Conventions

Nations and small communities, types of relationship between, i. 13

Naturalization laws, i. 406 ; ii. 67

Navy, control of the, i. 30, 49

Navy, Secretary of the, i. 81

Nebraska, State of, i. 96

Negroes, condition of the, ii. 276 ; their future, 708

Negro Vote, The. i. 41 ; ii. 7, 95, 276

Nevada, State of, i. 560

New Haven (Connecticut), Town and City of, i. 567

New Orleans, ii. 672

Newspaper Press, The, i. 171 ; ii. 232-237, 629

New York, City of, i. 609, 633, 111, 141 ; ii. 335, 353, 502, 547, 671

New York, State of, i. 23, 93, 539 ; ii. 128, 687

Nominating Conventions. See Conventions

OATH of Allegiance to the Constitution, i. 127

Ohio, State of, i. 477 ; ii. 58, 139, 176

Opinion, Public : its nature, ii. 209 ; stages of formation, 210 ; opinion in the educated and uneducated classes compared, 213 ; leaders of opinion, 215 ; not a new force in the world, 217 ; difference between free and despotically-governed states, 218 ; evolution of opinion, 219 ; government by it, 221, 227 ; its dangers, 222 ; and safeguards, 223

Opinion, Public, in America, the ultimate force in government, i. 6 ; the real source of the President's power, 62 ; its influence on the Supreme Federal Court, 267 ; on the interpretation of the Constitution, 376 ; on the State judiciary, 437 ; on the professional politicians, ii. 36 ; its character on the whole upright, 203, 324 ; American opinion of various features of their political system, 204 ; nature of its rule, 225 ; causes of its importance, 229 ; the consequences, 230 ; mode of its expression, 232 ; necessity of efficient organs, 233 ; the newspaper press, 233 ; public meetings, 238 ; elections, 239 ; associations, 239 ; comparative influence of urban and rural population, 240 ; the discernment of opinion, 241 ; the effect upon it of national characteristics, 243 ; of class characteristics, 255 ; local types of opinion, 268 ; in the East, 269 ; West, 270 ; Pacific slope, 272 ; South, 273 ; tendency to homogeneity, 280 ; analysis of opinion in England, 281 ; different phenomena in America, 285 ; its influence exerted through elections, 288 ; independent opinion and the great parties, 288, 296 ; its influence on officials, 290 ; mutability of electoral bodies, 291 ; private agencies for the expression of opinion, 292 ; its relation to the regular party organizations, 293 ; its activity less continuous than in Europe, 294 ; fatalism of the multitude, 297 ; its effect on the action of opinion, 306 ; tyranny of the majority, 307 ; in Congress, 308 ; in the States, 309 ; in the action of public opinion, 310 ; improvement in this respect, 312 ; its defects as a governing power, 315 ; difference in this between States and the whole Union, 319 ; its merits, 324 ; educative influence on new-comers, 327 ; its influence on public appointments, 331 ; on foreign policy, 332 ; influence of a capital on public opinion, 644 ; effect of the absence of a capital in America, 649

Oratorical excellence, nature of, ii. 651 ; how far attained in America, 652 ; American defects, 652 ; different kinds of oratory, 653 ; three kinds specially developed in America, 655 ; reserve of audience, 657